Invesco European Senior Loan Fund

A Sub-Fund of Invesco Zodiac Funds

This marketing communication is for professional investors only. Investors should read the legal documents prior to investing.

Investment objective

To provide a high level of current income, consistent with the preservation of capital, by investing primarily in adjustable rate senior secured loans, collateralized loan obligations, second lien loans, mezzanine securities and credit derivatives relating to non-investment grade companies and denominated in Euro, Sterling, and other European currencies (including, but not limited to, Norwegian Krone, Swedish Krona, Swiss Franc and Danish Krone). The investment concerns the acquisition of units in an actively managed fund and not in a given underlying asset. The benchmark index is shown for performance comparisons purposes only. The fund is actively managed and does not track the index.

Investment strategy

- The fund team invests primarily in senior, secured loans to non-investment grade corporations.
- The fund's team seeks loans to companies which, in the judgment of the analyst team, have excellent management teams, consistent and dependable sources of cash flow and reliable collateral packages providing a second source of repayment.
- To manage risk, the team keeps the portfolio broadly diversified and generally avoids industries they believe to be fundamentally flawed or speculative.

Risk warnings

For complete information on risks, refer to the legal documents. The value of investments and any income will fluctuate (this may partly be the result of exchange rate fluctuations) and investors may not get back the full amount invested. Senior loans may be illiquid and more difficult to sell quickly at a fair price. Because of the risk of illiquidity of the instruments in which the product will invest, the processing of the redemption requests may be deferred in certain circumstances.

Interest rates on senior loans depend on the level of an underlying rate; as such, they may change and cause fluctuations in the net asset value of the product.

Senior loans are exposed to credit risk which is the ability of the borrower to repay the interest and capital on the scheduled dates.

The product will hold debt instruments which are of lower credit quality and may result in larger fluctuations in the value of the product.

The product may also use derivatives for investment purposes. The use of derivatives may result in the product being significantly leveraged and may result in large fluctuations in the value of the product.

The product may invest in developing markets, this may cause large fluctuations in the net asset value of the product.

Past performance does not predict future returns. Please refer to next page for additional performance disclosure.

(YTQ) Year To Quarter is the performance from the start of the current year to the end of the latest quarter.

2 The benchmark index is the Credit Suisse Western European Leveraged Loan Index. The return is calculated on a hedged to Euro basis. This index is designed to reflect the investable universe of the Western European leveraged loan market. Since inception returns for the index are shown here from 31 May 2012, the index launch date was in January 1998. There is no benchmark which appropriately reflects currency hedging for US dollar or sterling hedged share classes.

3 Distribution Yield is equal to the most recent monthly dividend distribution multiplied by twelve and divided by the NAV at month-end. GX and HX are the only classes that pay distributions. The distribution rate cannot be assured, is not intended to predict future performance, and will fluctuate. The distribution yield is expressed as a % per annum of the current NAV of the fund.

4 Based on market value of loan/note holdings.
