INVESTMENT MANAGER'S REPORTS

CT European Real Estate Securities Fund

Strategy & Performance

In the six months to 30 September 2022, the B £ Acc shares returned -33.8% (net of fees) in sterling exactly in line with its benchmark, the FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Developed Europe Capped Total Return (Net) Index.

Since inception in April 2010, the fund has outperformed in 42 out of 51 quarters.

Pan-European property stocks experienced a severe correction as investors re-assessed the sector fundamentals amidst stubbornly high inflation leading to higher bond yields. For instance the 10-year German government bond rose +0.77% to 2.1%, a level last seen in September 2011.

This led to a significant underperformance of property shares (FTSE/EPRA Developed Europe index TR, EUR) of -23.3% relative to the wider equity market (EuroStoxx 600) but also a regime shift in terms of volatility, which averaged 28% against the long-term historical level of 15%.

Over the review period, the fund's net exposure averaged +98% with a long book of 107% and short book of -9%. This reflects our "long enhanced" strategy which utilises selective single-stock shorts in order to express greater negative fundamental conviction. Our decreased net exposure compared to the previous 6-month period reflected our more conservative stance and uncertain outlook for property equities.

The main sectors contributing to the Fund's gross relative performance included Swedish diversifieds (+39bp), German offices (+58bp), Swiss diversifieds (+37bp), UK/Irish residential (+34bp), London retail (+32bp) and UK healthcare (+22bp). In terms of detractors, Benelux diversifieds (-111bp), UK majors (-34bp) and self-storage (-32bp) were notable.

Market Outlook

Pan European real estate equity valuation now reflects meaningful corrections in the value of the underlying real estate, trading at around -50% discount to net asset value, and well-below historical averages. These shifts in valuation have been primarily driven by the cost of borrowing and it has been the lowest yielding (and therefore the most highly rated) sectors of our universe which have been impacted the most. The worst performers were industrial/logistics and residential. These are also the two sub-markets with the strongest outlooks based on the ongoing mismatch between demand and supply. These market fundamentals will, at some point, reassert themselves in investors' decision making.

In the near term, as we transition from accommodative to restrictive monetary conditions, we expect volatility to remain elevated. The question is therefore, will the central banks need to see evidence of disinflation or even recession before pivoting their policies? Either inflation remains elevated and property companies should, in particular in Continental Europe, benefit from it through indexed leases, or inflation recedes and this should pave the way for a retrenchment in bond yields, which in turn could trigger the outperformance of the listed real estate sector.

CT Real Estate Equity Market Neutral Fund

Strategy & Performance

We believe that monitoring geographical exposures by country can be deceptive and irrelevant. Therefore, we designed a framework to classify the Pan-European real estate equity sector into 24 proprietary sub-sectors, such as French offices, German residential, hotels, European shopping centres, UK student housing and UK retail. From May 2016, we widened the geographical remit of the fund and invest up to 20% in US REITs (real estate investment trusts). During that period, our average gross exposure allocated to the US was 14% and produced +163 basis points (bp) of gross performance. The fund's strategy has remained unchanged during the review period, despite the heightened volatility experienced.

Pan-European property stocks (FTSE/EPRA Developed Europe index TR, EUR) experienced a severe correction of -36.3% during the period as investors re-assessed the sector fundamentals amidst stubbornly high inflation leading to higher bond yields. For instance, the 10-year German government bond rose +0.8% to 2.1%, a level last seen in September 2011. This led to a significant underperformance of property shares of -23.3% relative to the wider equity market (EuroStoxx 600) but also a regime-shift in terms of volatility, which averaged 28% against the long-term historical level of 15%.

The CT Real Estate Equity Market Neutral Fund (GBP C class) returned -0.5% during the 6 months to 30 September 2022, in sterling, net of fees.

In terms of activity, the fund's turnover of 83.2% (purchases and sales divided by two) was very elevated reflecting the extreme volatility, with high dispersion for both sub-sectors and individual stocks. Over the review period, the fund's gross and net exposure averaged +94% and +0.1% respectively. We reduced our net exposure from +4.8% to -6.2% at period-end, by both reducing our long book by 6.6% and extending our shorts by 4.3%.

The main sub-sectors contributing to the fund's gross performance included German offices (+83bp), Swiss diversifieds (+67bp), UK residential (+49bp), London retail (+37bp), Swedish diversifieds (+37bp), Stockholm offices (+34bp), UK healthcare (+33bp) and UK retail (+30bp). In terms of detractors in Europe, Benelux diversifieds (-175bp), German residential (-76bp), UK majors (-55bp) self-storage (-50bp), supermarkets (-43bp) and industrials (-37bp) were notable. The US gross alpha contribution was +19bp, helped by healthcare (+16bp) and offices (+7bps) offset by Triple Net REITs (-7bp).

Market Outlook

Pan European real estate equity valuation now reflects meaningful corrections in the value of the underlying real estate, across all sectors. The process of pricing discovery in the physical market is well underway. These shifts in valuation have been primarily driven by the cost of borrowing and it has been the lowest yielding (and therefore the most highly rated) sectors of our universe which have been impacted the most. The worst performers were industrial/logistics and residential. These are also the two sub-markets with the strongest outlooks based on the ongoing mismatch between demand and supply. These market fundamentals will, at some point, reassert themselves in investors' decision-making. However, in the near term, markets will continue to be driven by central bank restrictive stance. The question is therefore will the central banks need to see evidence of disinflation or even recession before pivoting their policies.

We will continue to focus on owning companies which can withstand both higher interest rates and a recessionary backdrop in our long book. Companies prone to earnings decline, due to poor debt hedging, covenant breach and/or rating downgrades and their inability to pass on inflation through leases to their underlying tenants, will remain our main short candidates.

INVESTMENT MANAGER'S REPORTS

CT Multi-Strategy Global Equity Fund

Performance

In the six months to 30 September 2022, the Portfolio returned -6.0%. Over the same period, the MSCI AC World NR Index returned -7.3%. Performance is net of fees and in euro terms.

The move to underweight equities added value as equities sold off following our reduction in August. Regional equity allocation decisions added value over the period under review as the overweight in the UK and the underweight in the US in the early part of the period both contributed positively. The overweight US value versus underweight US growth added to performance. Stock selection added value in aggregate over the period with particularly strong returns from the Global Systematic and Global Sustainable strategies, while Global Small Cap detracted.

Strategy

We moved to an underweight equity and overweight cash position during the period. Our US equity underweight position was reduced and we kept an overweight position in the UK. We reduced both Japan and emerging markets to neutral and moved from neutral to underweight Europe ex UK. The overweight value versus underweight growth position was maintained throughout the period.

Outlook

Sentiment towards equities remains extremely bearish, with markets discounting further earnings downgrades, thus making valuations more attractive. Current monetary tightening around most of the globe to combat rising core inflation has coincided with several factors: an increase in long-dated gilt yields, continued US dollar strength, diminishing growth prospects in China, the ongoing gas crisis in Europe, and Japan's Ministry of Finance intervening to try and halt further currency depreciation. This is a reminder to investors that many obstacles need to be navigated as we wait for inflationary pressures and central bank monetary tightening to ease, explaining why the market is having a hard time making up its mind. As we enter the earnings season, expectations are lower, offering a degree of comfort, but market volatility is likely to continue in the short-term.

The CT Multi Strategy Global Equity Fund is likely to close during the first quarter of 2023 (refer to note 2 on page 29).

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the six months ended 30 September 2022

1. General

Columbia Threadneedle (Irl) III plc (formerly BMO Investments III (Ireland) plc until 4 July 2022) (the "Company") was incorporated on 25 February 1999 under the laws of the Republic of Ireland as an open-ended investment company with variable capital. The Company is an umbrella fund authorised by the Central Bank of Ireland (the "Central Bank") as an investment company pursuant to the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011 (as amended) and the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 (section 48(1)) (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2019 (collectively the "UCITS Regulations"). At the reporting date the Company had three active sub-funds (the "Funds"), each of which has segregated liability.

2. Basis of Preparation

These condensed unaudited Financial Statements have been prepared for the financial period ended 30 September 2022.

Statement of compliance

These condensed Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 104, 'Interim Financial Reporting' ("FRS 104") and the UCITS Regulations.

These condensed financial statements have been prepared on a basis which is consistent with that of the Company's annual audited Financial Statements for the financial year ended 31 March 2022 and should be read in conjunction with them, with the exception of the BMO High Income Bond Fund and the F&C Global Emerging Markets Fund. These Funds were terminated in prior financial years and are reflected in the table below for the purposes of these condensed financial statements. CT Enhanced Income Euro Equity Fund terminated on 6 September 2022.

During the second quarter of 2022, the Board were informed of a decision by a significant shareholder to redeem their holding from the CT Multi-Strategy Global Equity Fund. The Board concluded that, following the redemption, it would not be in the best interest of the remaining shareholders to continue as an active Fund. On this basis, the Board determined that it would be appropriate to prepare the financial statements for the CT Multi-Strategy Global Equity Fund on a non-going concern basis and to make provision for the anticipated costs of the termination of the Sub-Fund.

The Company has availed of the exemption available to open-ended investment funds under FRS 102 and is not presenting a cash flow statement.

The condensed financial statements as at 30 September 2022 are unaudited. We note that the statutory auditor's report in the audited year end financial statements as at 31 March 2022 was unqualified.

All references to net assets throughout the documents refers to net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating shares unless otherwise stated.

Terminated Funds

The Funds in the below table terminated in prior financial years. The Funds held the below cash balances as at 30 September 2022 and 31 March 2022. These cash balances are assets of the Company but due to their monetary value, financial statements have not been prepared in relation to these Funds, and they are disclosed in this note only. The cash balances of the Eastern European Fund is substantially due to redemptions payable to shareholders pending receipt of anti-money laundering ("AML") documentation (30 September 2022: US$171,057 and 31 March 2022: US$171,057). The remaining cash balances on the Funds were held to cover potential termination costs, and will be distributed to the final shareholders prior to the revocation of the Funds by the Central Bank.

11. Derivatives and Other Financial Instruments

FRS 102 Section 11.27 on “Fair Value: Disclosure” requires disclosure relating to the fair value hierarchy in which fair value measurements are categorised for assets and liabilities. The disclosures are based on a three-level fair value hierarchy for the inputs used in valuation techniques to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy as required under FRS 102 is based on the valuation inputs used to fair value the financial assets and liabilities and consideration of the market activity for each individual financial asset and liability. The definition for Levels 1, 2 and 3 are set out below.

Level 1: The unadjusted quoted price in an active market for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date.

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable (i.e. developed using market data) for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Inputs are unobservable (i.e. for which market data is unavailable) for the asset or liability.

The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety is determined on the basis of the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

For this purpose, the significance of an input is assessed against the fair value measurement in its entirety. If a fair value measurement uses observable inputs that require significant adjustment based on unobservable inputs, that measurement is a Level 3 measurement. Assessing the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgement, considering factors specific to the asset or liability. The determination of what constitutes ‘observable’ requires significant judgement by the Investment Manager.

The Directors consider observable data to be that market data that is readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary, and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market.

As at 30 September 2022, the CT Multi-Strategy Global Equity Fund held one equity security, Moscow Exchange MICEX-RTS, with Nil market value. This security was written down to Nil due to the Russia-Ukraine conflict and continues to be classified as Level 3 within the fair value hierarchy.

There were no transfers between levels during the financial period ended 30 September 2022. During the financial year ended 31 March 2022, Moscow Exchange MICEX-RTS, held within the CT Multi-Strategy Global Equity Fund, changed from level 1 to 3.

12. Securities Lending

The Company's securities lending programme is managed by State Street Bank and Trust Company (the "Securities Lending Agent"). The securities on loan with the Securities Lending Agent may be secured by cash collateral or non-cash collateral.

Non-cash collateral should be transferable securities or money market instruments (of any maturity) which must be highly liquid and traded on a regulated market or multi-lateral trading facility with transparent pricing in order that it can be sold quickly at a robust price that is close to its pre-sale valuation.

Cash and non-cash collateral must, at all times, meet with the criteria as laid out in "Management of Collateral" as detailed in the Prospectus.

As at 30 September 2022 and 31 March 2022, collateral received for securities lending is comprised of government issued bonds. The value of securities on loan and collateral received as at 30 September 2022 and 31 March 2022 is outlined in the below table. None of the non-cash collateral received from a single issuer exceeds 20% of the Fund's NAV as at 30 September 2022 and 31 March 2022.

Securities on loan	30.09.2022	31.03.2022
	€000	€000
CT Multi Strategy Global Equity Fund	8,130	5,169
Collateral received	30.09.2022	31.03.2022
	€000	€000
CT Multi Strategy Global Equity Fund	8,683	5,605

Pursuant to the terms of the securities lending agreement, the Securities Lending Agent is entitled to retain a portion of the securities lending revenue to cover the fees and costs associated with the securities lending activity. However, all revenues from securities lending, net of direct and indirect operational costs, will be returned to the Fund.

The Company, the Securities Lending Agent and the Investment Manager receive 75%, 15% and 10% respectively of the securities lending income.

Securities Lending Risk

As with any extensions of credit, there are risks of delay and recovery. Should the borrower of securities fail financially or default in any of its obligations under any securities lending transaction, the collateral provided in connection with such transaction will be called upon. The value of the collateral will be maintained to equal or exceed the value of the securities transferred. However there is a risk that the value of the collateral may fall below the value of the securities transferred. In addition, as a Fund may invest cash collateral received, subject to the conditions and within the limits laid down by the Central Bank, a Fund investing collateral will be exposed to the risk associated with such investments, such as failure or default of the issuer of the relevant security.

As at 30 September 2022 and 31 March 2022, none of the Funds held investments in related CIS of the Company.

The Company determined that, of this amount, the Investment Manager was to reimburse €620,328 directly to shareholders where the value of their Shares in the Fund was affected by this overpayment, with the remaining €107,096 being paid back into the Fund upon completion of the shareholder reimbursement.

14. Taxation

Under current tax law and practice, the Company qualifies as an investment undertaking as defined in Section 739B of the Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997 ("TCA"), as amended. On that basis, it is not chargeable to Irish tax on its income or gains.

However, Irish tax may arise on the happening of a "chargeable event". A chargeable event includes any distribution payments to shareholders or any encashment, redemption, cancelling, transfer or deemed disposal of shares for Irish tax purposes arising as a result of holding of shares in the company for a period of eight years or more.

No Irish tax will arise in respect of chargeable events in respect of:

- (a) a shareholder who is neither Irish resident nor ordinarily resident in Ireland for tax purposes. At the time of the chargeable event, provided appropriate valid declarations in accordance with Schedule 2B of the TCA are held by the Company or has been authorised by the Irish Revenue to make gross payments in the absence of appropriate declarations or
- (b) certain exempted Irish tax resident shareholders (as defined in Section 739D TCA) who at the time of the chargeable event have provided the Company with the necessary signed statutory declarations in accordance with Schedule 2B of the TCA.

Dividends, interest and capital gains (if any) received on investments made by the Company may be subject to withholding and capital gain taxes imposed by the country from which the investment income/gains are received and such taxes may not be recoverable by the Company or its shareholders.

15. Segregated Liability between the Funds

The Company is an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds. Accordingly, as a matter of Irish law, any liability attributable to a particular Fund may only be discharged out of the assets of that Fund, and the assets of other Funds may not be used to satisfy the liability. In addition, any contract entered into by the Company will by operation of law include an implied term to the effect that the counterparty to the contract may not have any recourse to assets of any of the Funds other than the Fund(s) in respect of which the contract was entered into. These provisions are binding both on creditors and in any insolvency. Notwithstanding the foregoing, there can be no guarantee or assurance that, should an action be brought against the Company in a court of another jurisdiction, that the segregated nature of the Funds would necessarily be upheld.

16. Strategy in using financial instruments

The Investment Managers have used derivatives both for investment purposes and to hedge portfolio exposure as part of their investment strategy. The derivatives used during the financial period consisted of contracts for difference ("CFDs"), futures and forward foreign currency transactions ("FFCT"). In each case, the derivative was used to construct part of the Funds' portfolios as a more cost-effective alternative to using the related security, or to create or reduce exposure in a way that is not feasible using a direct holding of a security. Some of the resulting positions can involve leverage or shorting, which carries a greater risk of loss than a simple long exposure, which is generally limited to the initial capital invested.

The Funds' investments expose them to various risks. All investments present a risk of loss of capital. The risks include but are not limited to market price risk, interest rate risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Investment Manager of each Fund is responsible for monitoring the risks on each Fund and reports regularly to the Board of Directors. Further information on the risk exposure of the Funds is included in the financial year ended 31 March 2022 financial statements.

16. Strategy in using financial instruments (continued)

FFCTs are utilised by all Funds for both investment management and currency hedging purposes. The realised and unrealised gains and losses on all FFCTs are disclosed in Note 3. The income arising from these contracts cannot practically be split from the total return of the instrument or between income arising from transactions undertaken for investment purposes and attributable to currency hedging. Transaction costs on forwards are embedded in their contract price and are therefore not separately identifiable for disclosure within the financial statements.

For open futures contracts, changes in the fair value of the contract are recognised as unrealised gains or losses by “marking-to-market” the value of the contract at the Unaudited Statement of Financial Position date and are included in the “net gain or loss on financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss” in the Unaudited Statement of Comprehensive Income. When the contract is closed, the difference between the proceeds from (or cost of) the closing transactions and the original transaction is recorded as a realised gain or loss. The margins paid on open futures have been disclosed separately in the Unaudited Statement of Financial Position. Futures are fair-valued using a pricing vendor.

CFDs are carried at the net amount due to/from the counterparty under the terms of the agreement, including unrealised gains and losses from changes in fair value of the notional equities, and are recorded as derivative assets/liabilities at fair value on the Unaudited Statement of Financial Position. Realised and unrealised gains and losses are included within “net gain/(loss) on financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss” in the Unaudited Statement of Comprehensive Income.

When the Company holds long CFDs it receives the dividends relating to the underlying equity and pays interest to the third party. When the CFDs are sold short, the Company receives interest on the contract value and dividend expense on CFDs is included within the net gain/(loss) on financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

The contracts are valued based on the market value of the underlying security.

The counterparties to all derivatives are disclosed at the end of each Unaudited Portfolio Statement and associated collateral and margin cash are disclosed in the Unaudited Statement of Financial Position.
