

Capital Group Global High Income Opportunities (LUX)

Objective

The fund seeks to provide, over the long-term, a high level of total return, of which a large component is current income by investing in emerging market government bonds and corporate high yield bonds from around the world.

The Capital advantage

Since 1931 our firm, Capital Group, has been singularly focused on delivering superior, consistent results for long-term investors using high-conviction portfolios, rigorous research and individual accountability. We began managing our first US high-yield mandate in 1986 and have been involved in emerging market debt throughout the evolution of the asset class. We began investing in dedicated emerging market debt mandates in 1994.

Fund results are shown after fees and expenses and are calculated as the increase or decrease in net asset value of the fund over the relevant period. The net asset value is calculated based on close-of-business prices for performance and fee calculation purposes only. No dealing activity can be based on such net asset value. Please refer to capitalgroup.com/europe for further information on net asset value applicable to any dealing activity in the fund, and for other share classes; these have different fees and expenses, and returns will differ. Results data does not take account of costs incurred on the issue of shares. Inception of the fund share class on 14 November 2012. Results prior to this relate to the older share classes, adjusted where necessary to reflect the management fee of the recipient share class. Past results are not a guarantee of future results. Yield to worst is the lowest potential yield that can be received on a bond without the issuer actually defaulting.

Effective duration takes into account that expected cash flows will fluctuate when interest rates change and is expressed in years to maturity.

Risk statistics are based on close of market returns (T+1).

It is based on monthly observations using a population standard deviation calculation.

Dividend yield is the income return on the share class and is shown for distributing share classes only. It is calculated over the last 12 months as income earned by the fund after withholding taxes, fees and expenses. Where hedged share classes are listed, for the purpose of currency hedging all assets attributable to them in this fund will be deemed to constitute exposure to USD. The fund will aim to hedge 100% (with reasonable margin of tolerance) of this deemed currency exposure back into the currency referred to in the relevant Class's designation.

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment. In addition to the Total Expense Ratio (TER), entry charges may apply according to provisions described in the Prospectus. However, exit penalties may apply when there is excessive trading or market timing. Data is likely to change over time and does not constitute a commitment from the management company. Past results are not a guarantee of future results.

Total Expense Ratio (TER) is calculated over the last 12 months with a one month lag. TER data is therefore as at 31 January 2018.
