Objectives and investment policy

This Bond Fund is actively managed without reference to any benchmark aiming to achieve risk-adjusted income with a focus on a mid-term horizon. The scope of the Fund's investments includes diversified portfolios of fixed-income securities of different currencies and sectors, with high or investment grade ratings. To achieve its investments objectives, the Fund invests predominantly in callable subordinated credit instruments but may also invest in short-term, liquid credit instruments. It might also invest up to 50% of its net assets in contingent convertible bonds (CoCos). The currency of this share class is hedged against the reference currency of the Fund (EUR). This Share Class does not make regular distributions. The Fund shall bear the costs of standard charges incurred by the Fund through securities transactions in relation to the portfolio. These charges are not included in the "Charges" section of this document.

Risk and reward profile

Risk profile

The Fund's risk and reward profile shows the variations in value an investment in this Fund would have undergone over the past five years, whereby simulated performance data is used in the case of missing history. The Fund's risk rating may change in the future. Please note, higher possible gains generally also mean higher possible losses. The lowest risk category does not mean that the Fund is risk free.

Why is the Fund in the specific category?

Investments in bonds are affected by changes in interest rates, the size of the market segment, the currency allocation, the economic sector and the credit quality of the bonds. The Fund holds mainly investments with generally good credit quality. Also the Fund intends to avoid any currency risk.

Are there any other particular risks?

The Fund's risk and reward profile does not reflect the risk inherent in future circumstances that differ from what the Fund has experienced in the recent past. This includes the following events which are rare but can have a large impact.

- Credit risk: Issuers of assets held by the Fund may not pay income or repay capital when due. The Fund's investments have considerable credit risk.
- Liquidity risk: Assets cannot necessarily be sold at limited cost in an adequately short timeframe. The Fund's investments may be prone to limited liquidity. The Fund will endeavor to mitigate this risk by various measures.
- Counterparty risk: Bankruptcy or insolvency of the Fund's derivative counterparties may lead to payment or delivery default. The Subfund will endeavor to mitigate this risk by the receipt of financial collateral given as guarantees.
- In addition, the Fund being predominantly exposed to financial institutions, adverse circumstances affecting this sector may cause material losses.
- Operational risk: Deficient processes, technical failures or catastrophic events may cause losses.
- Political and Legal risks: Investments are exposed to changes of rules and standards applied by a specific country. This includes restrictions on currency convertibility, the imposing of taxes or controls on transactions, the limitations of property rights or other legal risks.
- Sustainability risks: Sustainability risks are environmental, social or governance events or conditions that can have a material negative effect on the return, depending on the relevant sector, industry and company exposure.

Charges

| One-off charges taken before or after the investment | |
|--|----------------|
| Entry charge | Not applicable |
| Exit charge | Not applicable |
| Switch charge | Not applicable |
| This is the maximum amount that may be deducted from the investor's money before it is invested or before the proceeds of the investment are paid out. | |
| Charges debited to the Fund over a year | |
| Ongoing charge | 0.66% |
| Charges debited to the Fund under certain specific conditions | |
