FUND FACTS

Why floating-rate loans?

- They offer the possibility of achieving relatively high yields for limited risk
- They show low correlation with stocks and bonds
- Their low duration helps insulate them against volatility
- The periodic re-setting of underlying bank loans ensures fairly steady net asset values
- They are classed as senior debt and collateralized against a company's hard assets, serving to minimize risk
- They offer recovery rates that are higher than the high-yield average

Why Franklin Floating Rate II Fund?

- It is managed by the Franklin Floating Rate Debt Group, based in California, which has a long expertise in managing floating-rate products
- The Group currently has over US$5 billion in bank loan assets under management
- The Group includes a seasoned investment team with an average of 15 years experience in the bank loans market
- It has a focus on in-depth research plus a disciplined credit review process
- The Franklin Floating Rate Debt Group concentrates on higher credit quality end of the market (ie. senior secured debt).
