CARMIGNAC PORTFOLIO – Cash Plus Sub-fund

Investment objectives of the SICAV

The objective of the SICAV is to achieve the highest possible overall return for its shareholders and to enable them to benefit from professional management. It will offer its shareholders the opportunity to invest in several diversified portfolios of transferable securities with worldwide scope in order to realise long-term capital gains, without neglecting short-term income.

Shareholders have the option to choose the level of investment that they wish to make in any of the SICAV's sub-funds, according to their requirements or to their own views on future market trends.

The SICAV does not guarantee that the above-mentioned objective will be achieved; this depends on the positive or negative performance of the markets. In consequence, the net asset value may fall as well as rise. The SICAV is therefore unable to guarantee that its objective will be fully achieved.

The main objective of the accumulation shares of the Sub-fund is capital growth, which is reinvested in the SICAV.

Investment policy of the Sub-fund

The objective of this Sub-fund is to outperform the Eonia index, capitalised, (EONCAPL7) by 1.5% over a recommended investment horizon of 18 months.

The outperformance shall be sought by taking long and/or short positions on the fixed income, currency and commodity index markets via financial instruments (forward instruments or otherwise). Strategies involving the volatility of these markets may also be implemented.

The Sub-fund does not track an index; the index described below is a performance indicator. The performance index is the Eonia (Euro Overnight Average). This index is the main money market benchmark for the eurozone. The Eonia is the average of the overnight interbank rates communicated to the European Central Bank by the contributing panel banks (57 banks) and weighted by the volume of transactions. It is calculated by the ECB on the basis of the exact number of days/360 days and published by the European Banking Federation.

The geographical investment universe of the Sub-fund includes the emerging Asian, African, Latin American, Middle Eastern and Eastern European (including Russia) countries. The Sub-fund also has the option of investing worldwide.

The typology of the different strategies used is divided as follows:

Arbitrage strategy:

The portfolio shall be composed by taking long and/or short positions on the fixed income, currency and commodity index markets via financial instruments (forward instruments or otherwise) and on the volatility of these products.

Investment strategy:

The investment strategy involves investing the portfolio primarily in privately-issued securities and securitisation vehicles via the instruments described below. The portfolio is therefore invested in French and foreign bonds and money market instruments.

This component of the portfolio shall account for between 0% and 100% of the net assets.

The Sub-fund shall use debt securities and money market instruments, particularly bonds issued or guaranteed by a State belonging to the investment universe. For the purpose of portfolio diversification, the Sub-fund may invest up to 10% of its assets in shares or units of coordinated or non-coordinated European UCITS or UCIs of any classification.

In order to achieve its investment objective, the Sub-fund may use:

- derivative instruments (e.g. futures, options, swaps) traded on regulated, organised or over-the-counter markets for the purpose of hedging and/or generating exposure to interest rate, currency, volatility and commodity index risk;
- equity derivatives up to the limit of 10% of assets for the purpose of hedging and/or exposing the portfolio to the equity derivatives market;
- credit derivatives for the purpose of hedging and/or exposing the portfolio to the credit market;
- government securities linked to an index and/or including an option component;
- temporary purchases and sales of securities;

In order to optimise performance, the Fund Manager may use cash deposits up to the limit of 100% of the net assets.

Risk profile

The risk profile of the Sub-fund is to be considered over an investment horizon of more than 18 months.

The Sub-fund is classed as risk category 2 on a scale of risk from 0 (lowest risk) to 6 (highest risk); 0 risk means very low volatility, but does not mean zero risk.

Potential investors must be aware that the assets of the Sub-fund are subject to fluctuations in the international markets and to the risks inherent in investments in equities and other transferable securities in which the Sub-fund invests.

As a result of the Sub-fund's investment policy, the main risks incurred are:

- Emerging markets risk: the net asset value of the Sub-fund may vary substantially as a result of its investments in the emerging markets where prices may fluctuate significantly and where operating conditions and supervision may deviate from the standards prevailing on the large international exchanges.
- Market risk: equity price fluctuations may have a positive or negative influence on the net asset value of the Fund. Market risk is the risk of a general fall in the price of equities. The Fund may be subject to equity risk. However, this type of investment shall not be predominant in the Fund's investment strategy.
- Interest rate risk: Due to its composition, the Fund is subject to interest rate risk. Part of the portfolio may be invested in interest rate products. The value of the securities may decrease after a negative interest rate movement. In general, prices of debt securities increase when interest rates fall and decrease when interest rates rise.
- Currency risk: The Sub-fund is exposed to currency risk through the purchase of securities denominated in currencies other than the euro or indirectly through the purchase of financial instruments denominated in euro whose underlying investments are not hedged against currency risk as well as through currency forward exchange contracts. The portion of the portfolio exposed to currency risk shall not exceed 50% of the net assets.
- Liquidity risk: the Sub-fund is exposed to liquidity risk arising from the fact that the markets in which the Sub-fund is invested may occasionally be affected by a temporary lack of liquidity. These market distortions may have an impact on the pricing conditions under which the Sub-fund might be caused to liquidate, initiate or modify its positions.
- Risk of capital loss: the portfolio is managed on a discretionary basis and does not guarantee or protect the capital invested. A capital loss occurs when a unit is sold at a lower price than that paid at the time of purchase.
- Counterparty risk: the Sub-fund is exposed to the risk of a counterparty defaulting on a payment.

Moreover, it should be noted that the management undertaken by the Sub-fund is discretionary; it is based on anticipating the evolution of the various markets. This being the case, there is a risk that the Sub-fund might not be invested in the best-performing markets at all times.

Shareholders have no guarantee that they will get back the capital invested. Shareholders must also be aware that investments in the emerging markets involve additional risks because of the political and economic situation in the emerging countries that may affect the value of the investments.

For further details regarding the risks inherent in investment in the Sub-fund, investors are advised to refer to the full Prospectus.

Investor profile

This Sub-fund is intended for private and institutional investors wishing to diversify their investments while benefiting from market opportunities through reactive asset management over a recommended investment period of 18 months. The appropriate amount to invest in this Sub-fund depends on the personal situation of the shareholder. To determine their level of investment, investors are invited to seek professional advice in order to diversify their investments and to determine the proportion of their financial portfolio or their assets to be invested in this Sub-fund relative to, more specifically, the recommended investment period and exposure to the aforementioned risks, their personal assets, needs and objectives.

Performance

Part of the performance mentioned above corresponds to the Sub-fund's performance before its investment policy was changed on 10 March 2009.

The Sub-fund's past performance is not a guarantee of future performance.

Taxation

It is the responsibility of each shareholder to ascertain the tax treatment applicable in his case resulting from the law of his country, nationality or residence.

Under current legislation, shareholders are not required in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg to pay any tax on income (which does not include a possible withholding tax), on capital gains, on inter vivos gifts, on inheritances, or any other tax, except, however, (a) those shareholders with their domicile or residence or permanent establishment in Luxembourg, (b) certain non-residents of Luxembourg holding 10% or more of the equity capital of the SICAV and who sell all or part of their shares within 6 months of their acquisition and (c) in a few restricted cases, certain categories of ex-residents of Luxembourg if they own 10% or more of the equity capital of the SICAV.

Nevertheless, the shareholders may, under certain conditions, be subject to withholding tax. Thus, the Luxembourg law of 21 June 2005, which came into force on 1 July 2005, has transposed Directive 2003/48/EC of the Council of the European Union of 3 June 2003 on taxation of savings income in the form of interest payments.

The purpose of this law is to introduce a withholding tax on savings income in the form of interest payments made in Luxembourg in favour of beneficial owners who are natural persons and resident for tax purposes in a Member State of the European Union other than Luxembourg.

In application of this law, the rate of withholding tax applicable will in time gradually be scaled up. It is currently 20% and shall be increased to 35% as of 1 July 2011. The withholding tax will not be applied if the beneficial owner expressly authorises the Paying Agent to disclose information to the authorities of his/her country of residence for tax purposes.

The foregoing provisions are based on the legislation currently in force and are subject to change.

Potential subscribers and shareholders are recommended to acquaint themselves and, if necessary, to seek advice regarding the laws and regulations (such as those concerning taxation and exchange controls) applicable to the subscription, purchase, holding and sale of shares in their countries of origin, residence and domicile.
