Important information	This simplified prospectus contains key information about the Sub-Funds. If you would like more information before you invest, please consult the most recent full prospectus (hereinafter the "Full Prospectus"). Unless defined in this document, defined terms shall bear the same meaning as in the Full Prospectus. For details about the Sub-Funds' holdings, please see the most recent report. Alger SICAV – The Alger American Asset Growth Fund, Alger SICAV - Alger US SmallCap Fund, Alger SICAV - Alger US MidCap Fund, Alger SICAV - Alger US LargeCap Fund, Alger SICAV - Alger US Technology Fund and Alger SICAV - China-US Growth Fund (hereinafter individually the "Sub-Fund" and collectively the "Sub-Funds") are sub-funds of Alger SICAV (hereinafter the "Company"). The Company is a Luxembourg collective investment undertaking under the form of an umbrella fund incorporated on 26th July 1996. The Company is organised under Part I (UCITS) of the Luxembourg law of 20 December 2002, as amended (the "2002 Law") as a "Société d'Investissement à Capital Variable", for an unlimited period. It comprises several sub-funds which are described in the Full Prospectus. The rights and duties of the investor as well as the legal relationship with the Company are laid down in the Full Prospectus and the articles of incorporation of the Company. The Full Prospectus and the periodical reports may be obtained free of charge from the Company at the address of the Company.
Investment objective and policy	The investment objective of the Sub-Funds is to seek long-term capital appreciation. The Sub-Funds (excluding China-US Growth Fund) invests at least two thirds of their net assets, not including liquid assets, in companies whose securities are listed or traded on a US stock exchange. To the extent described above, the companies in which the respective Sub-Funds may invest will have the following features: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- The Alger American Asset Growth Fund invests in equities or equity related securities of companies of all capitalization size which demonstrate promising growth potential.- The Alger US SmallCap Fund focuses on equities or equity related securities of small, fast growing companies that offer innovative products, services or technologies to a rapidly expanding market place.- The Alger US MidCap Fund focuses on equities or equity related securities of mid sized companies which demonstrate promising growth potential.- The Alger US LargeCap Fund focuses on equities or equity related securities of larger, growing companies that generally have broad product lines, markets, financial resources and depth of management.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Alger US Technology Fund invests in equities or equity related securities of companies of any size that focus on the technology industry. - The China-US Growth Fund invests at least two-thirds of its net assets, not including liquid assets, in equities or equity related securities of companies of any size which are economically tied to the China region. Further details are provided in the Full Prospectus.
Sub-Funds' risk profile	The investments in equity of companies may involve risks (linked to transferable securities and stock markets), such as exchange rates and volatility risks. The Sub-Funds' investments are subject to market fluctuations. No assurance can, therefore, be given that the Sub-Funds' investment objective will be achieved. It can not be guaranteed either that the value of a share in the Sub-Fund will not fall below its value at the time of acquisition. Investing in companies of small and mid capitalization involves a risk that smaller, newer issuers in which the Sub-Funds invest may have limited product lines or financial resources, or lack of management depth. Technology companies in which the Alger US Technology Fund may invest are often strongly affected by world-wide scientific or technological developments and products may rapidly become obsolete. Such companies may also offer products or services that are subject to government regulation and may, therefore, be affected adversely by government policies. Securities markets in China are significantly smaller, less liquid and more volatile than the U.S. securities markets. The value of the China-US Growth Fund shares may be affected by such political, economic and fiscal factors as, currency rate fluctuations, high unemployment, high inflation, decrease exports, over-extension of credit, economic recessions, foreign trade and regulatory developments in China. Investments in geographic specific Sub-Funds may be subject to risk related to lesser diversification. For further details, please consult the Full Prospectus.

Performance disclaimer	Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. Investors may not get back the full amount invested, as prices of shares and the income from them may fall as well as rise.
Profile of the typical investor	The Sub-Funds are suitable for investors who see funds as a convenient way of participating in capital market developments. It is also suitable for more experienced investors wishing to attain defined investment objectives. The investor must have experience with volatile products. The investor must be able to accept significant temporary losses, thus the Sub-Funds are suitable for investors who can afford to set aside the capital for at least five years. It is designed for the investment objective of building up capital. Class A (when issued) and B shares are available for all investors. Class I shares within The Alger America Asset Growth Fund are restricted to institutional investors ("Institutional Investors") as referred to in article 129 (2) d) of the 2002 Law.
Treatment of income	It is the present intention of the board of directors not to recommend the payment of any cash dividends out of net results. Normally, all net investment income and all net realized and unrealized capital gains will be accumulated and shall increase the net asset value per share. The shareholders of the Company may, however, at a general meeting of shareholders, resolve to declare cash or stock dividends within the limits of applicable Luxembourg law, and, in such case, any such dividends would be payable annually in U.S. Dollars to the holders of the Fund's shares outstanding as of the record date for such dividend as determined by the shareholders. Notices of dividends will be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Luxembourg.
