BRAZILIAN EQUITIES MID SMALL CAP USD R class (LU0670731933) a Sub-Fund of Bradesco Global Funds

This Sub-Fund is managed by Waystone Management Company (Lux) S.A.

OBJECTIVES AND INVESTMENT POLICY

Investment Objective

To obtain a superior return in the medium and long term by investing mainly in Brazilian companies with small and medium market capitalization, which are not included among the 25 largest holdings in Brazilian Stock Index – IBrX. At most 15% of the total net assets (excluding cash) can be invested in companies with greater liquidity and market capitalization, provided they are not included among the 10 largest holdings of the Brazilian Stock Index – IBrX.

The investment management method used is a bottom-up approach (stock picking) in order to select the eligible companies according to their potential growth, their strategy, their macroeconomic environment and the quality of the management of these companies.

The sub-fund will promote the economic, environmental and social development to entities which operate across the entire value chain in several sectors. For the avoidance of doubt, the sub-fund is an ESG sub-fund within the meaning of Article 8 of the SFDR.

The Investment Manager will seek to achieve long-term total returns by investing in companies whose core business, in the opinion of the Investment Manager, aims to contribute social and/or environmental change alongside a financial return. This means that the Investment Manager will invest in companies that have a significant commitment and contribution to at least one sustainable development goal of the United Nations Principles for Responsible Investment sustainability goals, which can be found under the following website: <https://www.unpri.org/sustainability-issues/sustainable-development-goals>.

Investment Policy

The diversified portfolio is mainly invested in shares and equity related securities issued by Brazilian companies listed on the Sao Paulo Stock Exchange, including Brazilian Depository Receipt (BDR), and also investments in American Depository Receipts (ADR) and International Depository Receipts (IDR). Additionally, the sub-fund may invest in shares/units of funds and exchange-traded funds (ETF). The sub-fund will invest a minimum of 85% of its net assets (excluding cash) in shares and equity-related securities issued by Brazilian companies with small and medium market capitalization, which are not included among the 25 largest holdings in Brazilian Stock Index – IBrX.

The sub-fund can invest at most 15% its total net assets (excluding cash) in companies with greater liquidity and market capitalization, provided they are not included among the 10 largest holdings of the Brazilian Stock Index – IBrX.

The sub-fund will be actively managed and the benchmark index will be used to exclude securities' from the portfolio's selection.

On a daily basis, the Investment Manager will check the composition of the Brazilian Stock Index – IBrX and will exclude the largest positions from the investment universe as per the above investment limits.

The sub-fund's portfolio will deviate materially from the composition of the Benchmark index.

On an ancillary basis (up to 15%), the sub-fund will invest in

- stocks with greater liquidity and market capitalization, provided they are not included among the 10 largest holdings of the Brazilian Stock Index – IBrX;

- Brazilian money market instruments issued by first classes Institution denominated in USD or in any other currency (cash or cash related instrument);

- shares/units of fixed income investment funds;

- in fixed-income bonds. Investments are mainly made in securities denominated in Brazilian Reais and thus subject to fluctuations to the respective currency of the sub-fund. Additionally, the sub-fund may, on an ancillary basis, invest in securities denominated in currencies other than Brazilian Reais.

The sub-fund may use derivatives for the purpose of hedging or for an efficient portfolio management.
