

Key Investor Information

This document provides you with key investor information about this Sub-Fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Sub-Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

US Corporate Bond Fund

A Sub-Fund of Eastspring Investments - Class Rdm - LU0865489339
This Sub-Fund is managed by Eastspring Investments (Luxembourg) S.A.

Objectives and Investment Policy

Objective The Sub-Fund aims to earn regular income and to outperform the Bloomberg Barclays Credit Most Conservative 2% Issuer Cap Bond Index.

Portfolio securities The Sub-Fund invests mainly in bonds of corporations that are issued in the United States, are denominated in US dollars and are within the top four categories for credit quality (BBB- or above).

Investment process In choosing investments, the investment manager combines overall economic and credit research with research into individual issuers.

The Sub-Fund may use derivatives for efficient portfolio management or to manage risks.

Base Currency USD

Recommendation This Sub-Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 5 years.

Terms to Understand

Derivatives Financial instruments whose value is linked to one or more rates, indexes, share prices or other values.

Bonds Securities that represent the obligation to repay a debt, with interest.

You can place orders to buy or sell shares at any time. Orders placed before 2 PM (Luxembourg time) and on any day that is a banking day in Luxembourg and in the country or countries where the [majority of the] Sub-Fund's assets are invested will generally be processed that day.

The Sub-Fund offers both accumulation shares (shares in which any dividends received are added to the share price) and dividend shares (shares in which any dividends received are paid out to investors).

Risk and Reward Profile

- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.
- Risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.
- The lowest category does not mean 'risk-free'.

The Sub-Fund's risk level reflects the following:

- As a category, bonds are more volatile than money market instruments but less volatile than shares.
- The Sub-Fund invests in a single geographical area.

The rating does not reflect the possible effects of unusual market conditions or large unpredictable events, which could amplify everyday risks and could trigger other risks, such as:

Counterparty risk The Sub-Fund could lose money if an entity with which it does business becomes unwilling or unable to honor its obligations to the fund.

Default risk: The issuers of certain bonds could become unable to make payments on their bonds.

Derivatives risk Certain derivatives could behave unexpectedly or could expose the Sub-Fund to losses that are significantly greater than the cost of the derivative.

Focus risk To the extent that the Sub-Fund has exposure to an issuer, geographical area or type of security that is heavily affected by an adverse event, its value may fall.

Liquidity risk Certain securities could become hard to value, or to sell at a desired time and price.

Management risk Investment management techniques that have worked well in normal market conditions could prove ineffective or detrimental.

Operational risk In any market, but especially in emerging markets, the Sub-Fund could lose some or all of its investments through fraud, corruption, political or military actions, the seizure of assets, or other irregular events.

More information in relation to risks in general may be found in the "Risk Considerations" section of the prospectus.
