Emerging Markets High Dividend Fund (the "Fund")

A sub-fund of Cullen Funds plc

USD Distributing Retail Share Class A1 IE00BXNT0C65

The Fund is managed by Carne Global Fund Managers (Ireland) Limited (the "Manager")

Objectives and investment policy

The Fund aims for long term growth in, as well as returning income on, the value of your investment.

The recommended term for investment in the Fund is three to five years.

Primarily, the Fund will purchase dividend paying shares of companies that are organized in, maintain at least 50% of their assets in, or derive at least 50% of their revenues from, emerging market countries (the "Companies" and each a "Company"). In selecting which of such Companies' shares (which may be denominated in currencies of emerging countries) to purchase, the Fund will generally look at criteria including:

(i) the Company's price/earnings ratio is below the average price/earnings ratio on shares comprising the MSCI Emerging Markets Index (which is an index of shares intended to be representative of equity market performance in global emerging markets. A price/earnings ratio is a valuation ratio of a company's current share price compared to its per-share earnings and essentially shows how much one needs to pay per dollar of earnings – if a company were trading at a price/earnings ratio of 20, the interpretation is that an investor is willing to pay $20 for $1 of current earnings);

(ii) relative to share price, dividend yield on the Company's shares is greater than the average dividend yield on shares comprising the MSCI Emerging Markets Index; and

(iii) based on the Company's historical dividend growth and overall well-being, there is strong potential for higher dividends (i.e. an increase in the actual dollar amount of the dividend irrespective of the dividend yield).

The Fund is actively managed in reference to the MSCI Emerging Markets Index NR but does not intend to track the performance of the MSCI Emerging Markets Index NR nor is it intended that the shares of the Companies in which the Fund will invest be limited to Companies included in the MSCI Emerging Markets Index NR.

The Fund may also invest in American Depositary Receipts (which represent a specified number of shares in a Company and are issued by U.S. banks and traded on U.S. stock exchanges), European Depositary Receipts (which represent a specified number of shares in a Company and are issued by European banks and traded on that bank's local exchanges), Global Depositary Receipts (which represent a specified number of shares in a Company and are issued in more than one country by the local branch of an international bank and traded on the local exchanges of the issuing branch) and in real estate investment trusts (which are listed companies investing directly in real estate). In addition, the Fund may invest in other funds.

You can buy and sell your shares in the Fund on each regular weekday up to 4.00 pm (Irish time).

Any income earned on investment will be distributed to you on a quarterly basis.

Risk and reward profile

Lower risk			Higher Risk
Typically lower rewards			Typically higher rewards
1	2	3	4	5	6

The synthetic indicator is calculated on the basis of the volatility (the ups and downs in its value) of the share class over the prior 5 year period and shows where the share class ranks in terms of its relative risk and potential reward.

Historical data used in calculating the synthetic indicator may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile.

The risk category shown above is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

- The lowest risk category does not mean a risk free investment.

The share class has a risk rating of 6 because the assets to which it is exposed have experienced a high level of volatility during the period.

Funds investing in the shares of other companies tend to be more volatile but can also offer greater potential for growth. The value of the underlying investments in the Fund may fluctuate quite dramatically in response to activities and results of individual companies, as well as in connection with general and economic conditions.

Emerging market securities may decline or fluctuate because of economic and political actions of emerging market governments and less regulated or liquid securities markets.

The legal infrastructure and accounting, auditing and reporting standards in emerging market countries may not provide the same degree of information to investors as would generally apply internationally. Further, settlement, clearing, registration and custody procedures may be underdeveloped which increases the risk of error, fraud or default.

An extended discussion of the risks associated with an investment in the Fund is set out in its prospectus.

Charges for the fund

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the Fund including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.

One off charges taken before or after you invest
Entry charge	5.00%
Exit charge	None
This is the maximum that might be taken out of your money before it is invested or before the proceeds of your investment are paid out.
Charges taken from the fund over a year
Ongoing charges	1.75%
Charges taken from the fund under certain conditions
Performance fee	None

The Fund's ongoing charge combines an investment management fee of 1.50% plus costs of running the Fund as limited by a voluntary cap of 0.25% such that the maximum amount that can be charged is 1.75%. This figure may vary from year to year. It excludes portfolio transaction costs.

The entry charge shown is the maximum figure that might be taken out of your money before it is invested. In some cases you might pay less - you can find this out from your financial adviser.

For more information about charges, please see the "Fees and Expenses" section of the Fund's prospectus.

Past performance

Past performance is not a reliable guide to future performance.

These performance results include ongoing charges taken from the Fund but do not include any entry or exit charges that you might have to pay.

Fund was launched in 2015 and this share class commenced on 13 July 2016.

Past performance has been calculated in US Dollar.

It is not intended that the performance of the Fund will track the Index.
