This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

UBS (Lux) Bond Fund - Global (CHF), class Q-dist (ISIN: LU0415184133), CHF

a sub-fund of UBS (Lux) Bond Fund

This subfund is managed by UBS Fund Management (Luxembourg) S.A.(the "Management Company"), a company of the UBS AG.

Objectives and investment policy

The investment fund invests mainly in a globally diversified portfolio of bonds of issuers with high credit ratings (e.g. highly rated government bonds, corporate bonds, agency bonds, securitizations (ABS, MBS), etc.). The fund may also invest opportunistically in, for example, emerging-market and high-yield bonds. The average rating of the portfolio is high (classified as investment grade by the established rating agencies). Derivatives may also be used for investment and hedging.

The fund manager combines carefully selected borrowers and bonds with different maturities, classes and currencies, with the aim of exploiting attractive return opportunities while keeping risks under control.

In principle, investors may ask the Management Company to redeem their units on any business day in Luxembourg.

This share class pays a dividend. Dividends can comprise income and capital and may be paid exclusive of fees.

Risk and reward profile

More about the risk category

- The risk category is based on the estimated future volatility of the fund. The method used for this estimate depends on the fund type and historical data.
- Historical performance is not a reliable indicator for future performance.
- The risk category allocated is not static and may vary over time.
- Allocation to the lowest risk category does not mean that an investment in this fund is free of risk.

Why is the fund in this category?

- The fund is in risk category 3 because the volatility of its returns is low.
The fund invests in bonds and may therefore be subject to volatility. This requires corresponding risk tolerance and capacity. The value of a unit may fall below the purchase price. Changes in interest rates have an effect on the value of the portfolio. The value of a unit may be influenced by currency fluctuations.

Further material risks

- Investment grade bonds are usually considered as carrying low to medium credit risk (i.e. potential loss due to failure of issuer).
- The fund can invest in less liquid assets that may be difficult to sell in distressed markets.
- The fund may use derivatives which can reduce investor risks or give rise to market risks as well as potential loss due to failure of counterparty
- Sub-investment grade bonds are usually subject to a high credit risk (i.e. potential loss due to failure of issuer).
- Emerging market bonds are usually subject to a high credit risk (i.e. potential loss due to failure of issuer).
- Investment in fixed income securities are usually considered as carrying credit risk (i.e. potential loss due to failure of issuer).
- Every fund reveals specific risks, a detailed and comprehensive list of risk descriptions can be found in the prospectus.

Charges

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.

One-off charges taken before or after you invest

Entry charge	2.00%
Exit charge	0.00%
Conversion fee	2.00%

This is the maximum that might be taken out of your money before it is invested / before the proceeds of your investment are paid out.

Charges taken from the fund over a year

Ongoing charges	0.65%
-----------------	-------

Charges taken from the fund under certain specific conditions

Performance fee	none

The entry charge shown is a maximum figure. In some cases you might pay less – you can find this out from your financial adviser.

The ongoing charges are estimated in the absence of historical data or when the calculated figure is considered unsuitable because of a material change. As soon as available or suitable, the calculated ongoing charges are reported and may differ from the estimate. They generally exclude:

- Portfolio transaction costs, except in the case of an entry/exit charge paid by the fund when buying or selling units in another collective investment undertaking.
