RISK AND REWARD PROFILE

Lower risk, potentially lower returns.

Higher risk, potentially higher returns.

The fund does not guarantee returns or performance and might entail capital loss.

*The performance shown prior to the 4/11/2015 is the track record of an identical French-domiciled fund created on 6/07/2015 that was liquidated on that day; its assets were transferred to the Luxembourg fund. The ESG indicators of our portfolio holdings partly explain the fund's results, but are not the sole determining factor in driving performance over time. The labels are designed as a guide for investors, to help them identify responsible and sustainable investments.

Ratio between scope 1, 2, and upstream scope 3 greenhouse gas emissions, as per the Kyoto Protocol, expressed in t eq. CO₂ per year (source Trucost, year Y-1 or Y-2) and the company's market value (year Y) expressed in millions €. Provided purely for information purposes. The figure does not take into account all of the company's emissions, downstream scope 3 emissions, and emissions that were avoided.

FUND COMMENTARY

As the market fell amid the escalating Russia-Ukraine crisis, the Europe Happy@Work fund outperformed its index. Our unique strategy resulted in a bias towards quality companies contributing positively to the fund. AstraZeneca outperformed after it reported a robust quarter and guided for revenue accelerations. Furthermore, Edenred jumped after announcing a better-than-expect quarter and a reassuring outlook. Palo Alto also rose because of good results and strong free cash flow driven by growing demand for cybersecurity solutions. Conversely, the market continues to rotate out of the technology sector, temporarily impacting stocks such as Infineon, Intuit and Salesforce. We took advantage of the pullback to initiate a small position in Novo Nordisk, a purpose-driven pharmaceutical company with engaged employees and leading GLP-1 diabetes treatments in the market. The fund's cash level rose this month as we remain prudent and wait for good entry points to invest further.
