Objectives and investment policy

This Index Tracker Fund is passively managed aiming to replicate the performance of the MSCI Canada Index. The Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalization weighted index that is designed to capture the market performance of large and mid cap Canada equities and is rebalanced on a quarterly basis and may also be rebalanced at other times. The portfolio and the performance of the Fund can deviate from the index. Under normal market conditions, it is expected that the anticipated level of tracking error will be 0.10%. The Fund uses a physical replication strategy and invests mainly in a representative selection of equities and equity - type securities and rights, including shares, dividend-right certificates, shares in cooperatives, participation certificates, issued by companies which are part of the index. At the same time, the Fund can use derivatives to achieve the above aims. As compared to the full replication method, the representative sampling method may lead to lower transaction costs in the context of portfolio rebalancing, as well as to higher variability of the difference between the return of the index and the return an investor in the Fund receives. The investor can buy or sell shares of the Fund on a daily basis, as further defined in the prospectus. This Share Class does not make distributions.

Risk and reward profile

Risk profile

The Fund's risk and reward profile shows the variations in value an investment in this Fund would have undergone over the past five years. The Fund's risk rating may change in the future. Please note, higher possible gains generally also mean higher possible losses. The lowest risk category does not mean that the fund is risk free.

Why is the Fund in the specific category?

Amongst other, equity prices mainly reflect the expected prospects of firms, as estimated by market participants. This estimation tends to fluctuate more strongly in times of higher uncertainty.

Are there any other particular risks?

The Fund's risk and reward profile does not reflect the risk inherent in future circumstances that differ from what the Fund has experienced in the recent past. This includes the following events which are rare but can have a large impact.

- Liquidity risk: It can have adverse effects in a situation when the Fund needs to sell assets for which there is not enough demand or only at much lower prices.
- Operational risk: Deficient processes, technical failures or catastrophic events may cause losses.
- Political and Legal risks: Investments are exposed to changes of rules and standards applied by a specific country. This includes restrictions on currency convertibility, the imposing of taxes or controls on transactions, the limitations of property rights or other legal risks.

Charges

One-off charges taken before or after the investment
Entry charge	1.00%
Exit charge	1.00%
This is the maximum amount that may be deducted from the investor's money before it is invested or before the proceeds of the investment are paid out. These charges are paid to the Fund in order to cover standard brokerage fees, exchange fees and taxes.
Charges debited to the Fund over a year
Ongoing charge	0.20%
Charges debited to the Fund under certain specific conditions
Performance fee	Not applicable

Charges debited to investors are used to pay for the cost of running the Fund, including marketing and distribution costs. These charges reduce the potential growth of the investment. For detailed information about the charges, investors should refer to chapters "Credit Suisse Index Fund (Lux) – Summary of Share Classes" and "Expenses and Taxes" of the prospectus, which is available at www.credit-suisse.com.

The entry and exit charges shown are the maximum figures that can be charged to the investor. Investors may obtain the fees effectively applied from the Management Company.

For a maximum of 12 months from June 17, 2016, the ongoing charges figure is based on estimated expenses. From June 2017, the ongoing charges figure is based on last year's expenses for the year ending June 2017. It excludes performance fees and portfolio transaction costs, except in the case of an entry/exit charge paid by the Fund when buying or selling shares/units in another collective investment undertaking.
