Fund description

Investment objective: The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve capital gain in US Dollars. The Fund seeks to achieve this objective through investment principally on a worldwide basis (up to 25% of net assets may be in Emerging Markets) in income bearing or accruing securities with fixed principal amounts including government bonds, corporate bonds, junior debt securities, preferred shares, convertible securities and contingent capital notes.

Opportunities: A highly qualified and experienced management team actively manages the Fund on the basis of a fundamental valuation approach. The objective is to identify the potential investments that, in the Investment manager's opinion, are most attractive and to generate interesting and profitable opportunities for investors. The Fund invests in a broadly diversified bond universe and seeks various opportunities for returns.

Risk factors: Credit Risk / Debt Securities: Bonds may be subject to significant fluctuations in value. Bonds are subject to credit risk and interest rate risk.
Credit Risk / Non-Investment Grade: Non-investment grade securities, which will generally pay higher yields than more highly rated securities, will be subject to greater market and credit risk, affecting the performance of the Fund.
Interest Rate Risk: A rise or fall in interest rates causes fluctuations in the value of fixed income securities, which may result in a decline or an increase in the value of such investments.
Liquidity Risk: Some investments can be difficult to sell quickly which may affect the value of the Fund and, in extreme market conditions, its ability to meet redemption requests.
Concentration Risk: Concentration in a limited number of securities and industry sectors may result in more volatility than investing in broadly diversified Funds.
Capital at Risk: All financial investments involve an element of risk. Therefore, the value of the investment and the income from it will vary and the initial investment amount cannot be guaranteed.

Glossary

Average company issuer rating: is a forward-looking opinion about an obligor's overall creditworthiness and their capacity and willingness to meet its financial commitments.

Average coupon: is the average yield paid by a fixed-income security. The coupon rate is the yield the bond paid on its issue date.

Average security rating: is forward-looking opinion about an obligor's overall creditworthiness with respect to a specific security obligation.

Benchmark: an index that can be used by an investment fund as the basis of comparison for assessing the performance achieved.

Duration: refers to the period of time that capital is tied into a monetary or bond investment or in other debt securities, and determines the sensitivity of the price to interest rate changes. Unlike residual maturity, the duration also takes into account interest payments and other inflows from invested capital.

Maximum drawdown: measures the largest loss experienced by a fund or an index, peak to trough, during a stated time period.

Ongoing charge: the ongoing charge is a measure of the annual expenses incurred by a fund and is expressed as a percentage. It allows an accurate comparison of the costs of funds from different companies to be made.

Risk rating: the risk indicator is based on the volatility of the Fund's performance over the last 5 years. Where 5 years' performance history is not available the data is supplemented by proxy fund, benchmark data or a simulated historical series as appropriate. This profile is determined using historical data, as such may not be a reliable indication for the future risk profile. It is not guaranteed and may shift over time. The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.

Sharpe ratio: the Sharpe ratio (risk-adjusted performance) is generated by calculating the difference between the average annualised return and the risk-free return. The resulting figure is divided by the annualised standard deviation of the returns. The higher the Sharpe ratio, the better the fund performance in relation to the risk potential of its portfolio.

Standard deviation: measures the dispersion of a set of data around its mean. In investment terms, it is a measure of the dispersion of a fund's performance around its mean and therefore, the volatility or risk associated with the investment. The higher the standard deviation of an investment, the greater the variability of performance over the period.

Yield to maturity: the yield to maturity is the average yield generated by an investment each year if it is held until expiry.
