Objectives and Investment Policy

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Sub-Fund is actively managed. The Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate TR index is used for performance comparison as well as internal risk monitoring purposes, without implying any particular constraints to the Sub-Fund's investments. Securities targeted by the Sub-Fund can be similar to those of the index to an extent that varies overtime but their weighting is expected to materially differ. The performance of the Sub-Fund may deviate materially from that of the index. The objective of the Sub-Fund is to generate a regular income and capital appreciation by investing mainly in bonds whose use of proceeds are aimed at financing projects that have a positive impact on the environment. In selecting individual bonds, the Investment Manager will apply qualitative and quantitative criteria to assess the environmental impact of the use of proceeds as well as perform a fundamental analysis of issuers. This approach aims at optimizing resource allocation and maximizing environmental impact while ensuring strict financial selection of issues. The Investment Manager will use its discretion with regard to the selection of instruments, issuers, maturities and currencies. The use of derivatives is used for hedging and efficient of portfolio management but not as part of investment strategy. The Sub-Fund is a product which has 'sustainable investment' as one of its objectives for the purposes of article 9 of the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation. The Investment Manager adopts a multifaceted approach to the way it analyses the sustainable profile of the Sub-Fund's investments (including sustainability focused screening & scoring, exclusions, restrictions and qualitative and quantitative reviews).

What does it mean?

This indicator (SRRI) represents the annualized historical volatility of the Sub-Fund over a 5-year period. Where there are less than 5 years worth of data, missing returns are simulated using an appropriate benchmark. The SRRI may change over time and should not be used as an indicator of future risk or returns. Even the lowest risk classification does not imply that the Sub-Fund is risk-free or that capital is necessarily guaranteed or protected.

Category

The Sub-Fund provides a global aggregate bond strategy with a diversified mix of government, government-related and corporate issues.

Are there any other particular risks?

The following risks may be materially relevant but may not always be adequately captured by the synthetic risk indicator and may cause additional loss:

- Credit risk: A significant level of investment in debt securities or risky securities implies that the risk of, or actual, default may have a material impact on performance. The likelihood of this depends on the credit-worthiness of the issuers.
- Liquidity risk: Where a significant level of investment is made in financial instruments that may under certain circumstances have a relatively low level of liquidity, there is a material risk that the fund will not be able to transact at advantageous times or prices. This could reduce the fund's returns.
- Concentration risk: To the extent that the fund's investments are concentrated in a particular country, market, industry, sector or asset class, the fund may be susceptible to loss due to adverse occurrences affecting that country, market, industry, sector or asset class.

For more details about risk, see appendix B "Risk Factors" of the prospectus.
