The fund's returns may increase or decrease as a result of changes to foreign exchange rates.

The value of shares in the fund and income received from it can go down as well as up, and investors may not get back the full amount invested. All performance data shown is in the currency stated, include reinvested dividends and are net of management fees. Sales charges and other commissions, taxes and other relevant costs paid by the investor are not included in the calculations. The fund offers other share classes subject to different fees and expenses, which will affect their performance.

The W (acc) EUR-H1 share class launched on 07.04.2017. Performance data prior to that date is for the A (acc) EUR-H1 share class launched on 03.09.2007 which has higher annual charges.

The share class shown has adopted a hedging strategy intended to reduce the effect of exchange rate movements between the currency of the Fund's investment strategy and the currency of the share class. The benchmark returns displayed are shown in the reference currency of the Fund's investment strategy (USD), while share class returns are shown in the reference currency of share class (EUR). As a result, the returns shown above reflect the effect of the hedging strategy and one can compare the returns of the Fund (net of fees) relative to its benchmark index without the impact of exchange rate movements on index returns.

What Are the Key Risks?

The value of shares in the Fund and income received from it can go down as well as up and investors may not get back the full amount invested. Performance may also be affected by currency fluctuations. Currency fluctuations may affect the value of overseas investments. The Fund invests mainly in equity securities of companies located in or doing significant business in the U.S. Such securities have historically been subject to significant price movements that may occur suddenly due to market or company-specific factors. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate significantly over relatively short time periods. Other significant risks include: securities lending risk. For full details of all of the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the "Risk Considerations" section of the Fund in the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.

Performance: References to indices are made for comparative purposes only and are provided to represent the investment environment existing during the time periods shown. When performance for either the portfolio or its benchmark has been converted, different foreign exchange closing rates may be used between the portfolio and its benchmark.

Benchmark performance: Benchmarks are used for comparison purposes. The Russell 3000 Growth index is considered to be the main benchmark of the sub-fund as it is made up of growth stocks, which corresponds to the emphasis placed by the manager in the management of the sub-fund. The S&P 500 Index can also be provided as it is considered to be an indicator of the US equity market. Although the manager is not subject to any constraints in the active management of the sub-fund and may invest in companies not included in the benchmarks, the performance of the sub-fund may, from time to time, show close similarities with these benchmarks.
