Bellevue Emerging Markets Healthcare, a sub-fund of Bellevue Funds (Lux)

Share class I2 EUR - Accumulating (LU1585229005)

Management company: Waystone Management Company (Lux) S.A.

Objectives and investment policy

The Fund seeks to achieve long-term capital growth. At least two-thirds of its net assets are invested in selected stocks and other equity securities of companies whose head office is located in an emerging market and/or that are primarily engaged in the emerging market healthcare sector.

A maximum of one-third of the Fund's net assets may be invested in fixed- or floating-rate securities, convertible bonds and warrant bonds of issuers domiciled in qualifying countries. The Fund may engage in derivative transactions for hedging purposes. Income generated by the Fund is retained within the net asset value of the Fund and increases the value of the Fund's shares.

The fund is managed actively and uses the MSCI Emerging Markets Healthcare Net TR index for performance fee calculation purpose only. Hence the deviation (of the portfolio composition) of the fund compared to the benchmark is material. The Management Team seeks to outperform the benchmark, which can lead to a positive or negative deviation from the benchmark performance.

Shares in the Fund may be purchased from or sold back to the fund management company on demand every business day. The redemption of Fund shares may only be suspended in exceptional circumstances, taking into account the best interests of investors. This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money from the Fund within a period of 5 years after investment.

The fund takes into consideration environmental, social and governance (ESG) characteristics when implementing the aforementioned investment objectives. The subfund is an ESG subfund within the meaning of Article 8 SFDR.

Risk and reward profile

This fund is assigned to category 6, as its share price fluctuates severely and both the risk of loss and the opportunities for profit can therefore be high.

The calculation of the risk and earnings profile is based on simulated/historical data, which cannot be used as a reliable indication of the future risk profile. The classification of the fund may change in future and does not constitute a guarantee. Even a fund classed in category 1 does not constitute a completely risk-free investment.

The following risks are of importance to the fund and are not adequately taken into account in the risk and earnings profile:

Credit risks: The fund can invest some of its assets in bonds. It is possible that the issuers of these bonds may become insolvent.

Liquidity risk: The fund may invest some of its assets in financial instruments that may in certain circumstances reach a relatively low level of liquidity, which can have an impact on the fund's liquidity.

Risks arising from the use of derivatives: The fund may conclude derivatives transactions. This increases opportunities, but also involves an increased risk of loss.

Operational risks and custody risks: The fund is subject to risks due to operational or human errors, which can arise at the investment company, the custodian bank, a custodian or other third parties.

Counterparty risks: If a contractual partner becomes insolvent, it can no longer or can only partly settle unpaid debts owed to the fund.

China A-shares: The sub-fund may invest in Chinese A-shares via the Stock Connect Program. The programs involve regulatory changes, volume restrictions and operational limitations that may lead to heightened counterparty risk.

You can find a detailed presentation of the risks faced by this fund in the "Special investment risks" section of the sales prospectus.
