Asia Equity Hedge

A Sub-Fund of PERINVEST (Lux) SICAV Class A LU1966780188

Sub-Fund managed by: Degroof Petercam Asset Services S.A.

Objectives and investment policy

Objective

- To maximize the return on your investment over the long term. Specifically, the Sub-Fund aims to exceed the returns of the major Asian equity markets over an economic cycle while offering some degree of decorrelation from this market.

Portfolio securities

- Under normal conditions, the Sub-Fund mainly invests in shares of companies in developed and emerging markets in Asia. The Sub-Fund may hold securities directly or may invest indirectly through derivatives.
- The Sub-Fund may also use derivatives to reduce its exposure to various investment risks (hedging), for efficient portfolio management and to directly seek investment gains.

Investment process

- The Sub-Fund is actively managed without any link to any benchmark.
  The investment manager uses fundamental research to select companies that appear to have attractive valuations or dividend yield prospects (bottom-up strategy).

Designed For

- Investors who understand the fund's risks and who have an investment horizon of at least 3 years.

Sub-Fund Reference Currency USD

Orders to buy and sell shares will be processed every Luxembourg Business Day.

The Sub-Fund issues accumulation shares (shares in which any income earned is added to the share price) as well as distribution shares (shares that distribute dividends). The Sub-Fund also issues currency-hedged shares, meaning it is designed to reduce, but not cancel out, the effect of currency movements between the share class currency and the Sub-Fund currency.

Terms to Understand

- Derivatives Financial instruments whose value is linked to one or more rates, indexes, share prices or other values.
- Shares Securities that represent a share in the business results of a company.
- Emerging Markets Markets of less economically developed nations, such as some nations in Asia, Africa, Eastern Europe and Latin America.

Lower potential reward — Higher potential reward

Not risk-free

- The value of an investment in the Sub-Fund can go up and down. When you sell your shares, they may be worth less than what you paid for them. If your currency as an investor is different from the subscription currency of the Sub-Fund, changes in currency exchange rates could reduce any investment gains or increase any investment losses.
- The risk/reward rating above is based on medium-term volatility (actual or estimated variations in the Sub-Fund's share price over five years). Going forward, the Sub-Fund's actual volatility could be lower or higher, and its rated risk/reward level may be changed.
- The Sub-Fund's risk level reflects the following:
  - As a class, shares carry higher risks than bonds or money market instruments;
  - The Sub-Fund focuses on emerging markets.

The rating does not reflect the possible effects of unusual market conditions or large unpredictable events, which could amplify everyday risks and could trigger other risks, such as:

- Derivatives risk Certain derivatives could increase Sub-Fund volatility or expose the Sub-Fund to losses greater than the cost of the derivative.
- Management risk Portfolio management techniques that have worked well in normal market conditions could prove ineffective or detrimental during unusual conditions.
- Counterparty risk The Sub-Fund could lose money if an entity with which it does business becomes unwilling or unable to honor its commitments to the Sub-Fund.
- Operational risk In any market, but especially in emerging markets, the fund could lose some or all of its investments through fraud, corruption, political or military actions, the seizure of assets, or other irregular events.
- Liquidity risk Certain securities could become hard to value, or to sell at a desired time and price.
