Performance

Based on transaction prices, the fund's return was -4.74%.

In February, the fund was down -3%, lagging the MSCI Europe by -1.83%. Stock selection was positive in financials and consumer discretionary, while selection in materials and industrials was a drag on performance. The fund continued to benefit from not holding many of the highly priced growth stocks within luxury goods as well as almost no exposure to diversified banks, which started to come under pressure on back of the Russia-Ukraine conflict. The fund also benefited from having no exposure to internet & direct marketing retail names such as Just Eat Takeaway, Zalando and Delivery Hero, which continue to be under pressure from the reopening of the economy. While the impact was much smaller than from non-holdings, our positions in reopening plays Smith & Nephew (+11 bps) and InterContinental Hotels Group (6 bps) contributed positively to performance. On the losing side, the most notable detractors were Michelin (-45 bps), Inditex (-37 bps) and Allianz (-32 bps), which cost the fund more than -115 basis points on aggregate.

Market development

For the second consecutive month, the MSCI Europe Index fell by around -3.0%, bringing year-to-date returns to -6.09%. After a long winning streak of serial quarterly returns after the pandemic lows of March 2020, the MXEU has stuttered in the face of higher rates and rising volatility. Uncertainty surrounding the potential outcomes of the Russia-Ukraine conflict, the impact on the Russian economy, and the flow-on effect to global markets weighed on equity returns. Russian equities collapsed -53% during the month, and all major regions retreated. Growth stocks with a defensive profile that have been vulnerable to the re-pricing of debt have stabilized. European defensive growth in sectors such as utilities (+1.83%) and healthcare (+0.83%) have demonstrated their resilience. Rising commodity prices, in particular oil, have benefited the materials sector (+0.57%) and the global energy sector, which has now rallied +12.42% this year. Year to date, the worst-performing sector in Europe is information technology (-16.26%). For now, the growth to value rotation has been replaced by a more general shift to defensive sectors together with the restoration of a premium for quality.

Expectation of fund manager

The fund's strategy aims to make investments in high-quality companies with sustainable, differentiated business models taking a full-cycle view. Given that approach, we'd expect the fund to show its full strength when returns of individual stocks start to materially differ due to less overall market support. The fund's positions tend to be less driven by assumptions on general market trends, but much more by company-specific qualities that are likely to endure in both positive and negative environments. Driven by expected business resilience and comparably moderate valuations, our key convictions can give some comfort in volatile times.

Top 10 largest positions

We believe a robust, fundamental stock-picking approach that fully integrates a variety of material ESG information into the process helps to uncover underappreciated, long-term opportunities in the market. The research process leads to a diversified but highly focused portfolio consisting of shares of sustainable companies with attractive return potential over the full cycle. The top ten positions are composed of our highest conviction ideas.

Sustainability

The fund incorporates sustainability in the investment process via exclusions, negative screening, ESG integration, ESG and environmental footprint targets, and voting. The fund does not invest in issuers that are in breach of international norms or where activities have been deemed detrimental to society following Robeco's exclusion policy. In addition, a negative screen is used to exclude the 20% worst ESG scoring stocks from the investable universe. Financially material ESG factors are integrated in the bottom-up fundamental investment analysis to assess existing and potential ESG risks and opportunities. In the stock selection the fund limits exposure to elevated sustainability risks. The fund also targets a better ESG score and at least 20% lower carbon, water and waste footprints compared to the reference index. In addition, where a stock issuer is flagged for breaching international standards in the ongoing monitoring, the issuer will become subject to exclusion. Lastly, the fund makes use of shareholder rights and applies proxy voting in accordance with Robeco's proxy voting policy.

ESG Risk Score

The Portfolio Sustainability ESG Risk Rating chart displays the portfolio's ESG Risk Rating. This is calculated by multiplying each portfolio component's Sustainability ESG Risk Rating by its respective portfolio weight. If an index has been selected, those scores are provided alongside the portfolio scores, highlighting the portfolio's ESG risk level compared to the index.

The Sustainability ESG Risk Rating distribution chart shows the portfolio allocations broken into Sustainability's five ESG risk levels: negligible (0-10), low (10-20), medium (20-30), high (30-40) and severe (40+), providing an overview of portfolio exposure to the different ESG risk levels. If an index has been selected, the same information is shown for the index.

Footprint Ownership

Footprint ownership expresses the total resource utilization the portfolio finances. Each assessed company's footprint is calculated by normalizing resources utilized by the company's enterprise value including cash (EVIC). Multiplying these values by the dollar amount invested in each assessed company yields the aggregate footprint ownership figures. The selected index's footprint is provided alongside. Sovereign and cash positions have no impact. The portfolios score is shown in blue and the index in grey.

Investment policy

Robeco Sustainable European Stars Equities is an actively managed fund that invests in equities of companies that are domiciled in Europe. The selection of these stocks is based on fundamental analysis. The fund's objective is to achieve a better return than the index. The fund aims for a better sustainability profile compared to the Benchmark by promoting certain ESG (i.e. Environmental, Social and corporate Governance) characteristics within the meaning of Article 8 of the European Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation and integrating ESG and sustainability risks in the investment process. In addition, the fund applies an exclusion list on the basis of controversial behavior, products (including controversial weapons, tobacco, palm oil and fossil fuel) and countries, while avoiding investment in thermal coal, weapons, military contracting and companies that severely violate labor conditions, next to voting and engaging. The fund also aims for an improved environmental footprint compared to the Benchmark. The strategy combines proprietary ESG research and analysis within a disciplined and proprietary investment framework to determine a company's intrinsic value. Our rigorous valuation approach takes advantage of market mis-pricing, leading to a concentrated portfolio of attractively-valued, high quality stocks with a higher potential to outperform the Benchmark across environmental and financial metrics. An in-house Sustainability Investing (SI) research team integrates financially-material sector and company-specific sustainability analysis into investment cases. The majority of the stocks selected through this approach will be components of the Benchmark, but stocks outside the Benchmark may be selected too. The Management Company may use its discretion to invest in companies or sectors not included in the Benchmark based upon opportunities found through fundamental or proprietary ESG research. The fund can deviate substantially from the weightings of the Benchmark. The investment strategy aims to outperform the Benchmark over the long run whilst applying market risk limits (on countries, currencies and sectors) that limit the extent of deviation from the Benchmark. The Benchmark is a broad market weighted index that is not consistent with the ESG characteristics promoted by the fund.
