The Articles of Incorporation were published on 30 July 2014 in the Mémorial, Recueil Spécial des Sociétés et Associations (the "Mémorial"), after submission to the Luxembourg Trade and Companies Register (Registre de Commerce et des Sociétés de Luxembourg).

The Articles of Incorporation may be amended from time to time by a meeting of Shareholders, subject to the quorum and majority requirements provided by Luxembourg law. Any amendment thereto shall be published in the Mémorial, in a Luxembourg daily newspaper and, if necessary, in the official publications specified for the respective countries in which Shares are sold. Such amendments become legally binding on all Shareholders, following their approval by the general meeting of Shareholders.

Any amendments affecting the rights of the holders of Shares of any Class vis-à-vis those of any other Class shall be subject further to the said quorum and majority requirements in respect of each relevant Class.

The Company is one single entity; however, the right of investors and creditors regarding a Sub-Fund or raised by the constitution, operation or liquidation of a Sub-Fund are limited to the assets of this Sub-Fund, and the assets of a Sub-Fund will be answerable exclusively for the rights of the Shareholders relating to this Sub-Fund and for those of the creditors whose claim arose in relation to the constitution, operation or liquidation of this Sub-Fund.

In relation to the respective relationships between the Company's Shareholders, each Sub-Fund is treated as a separate entity. The assets, commitments, charges and expenses that cannot be allocated to one specific Sub-Fund will be charged to the different Sub-Funds on a basis judged by the Board of Directors to be fairest to Shareholders. With due regard to materiality, this will generally be either pro rata to the net assets of the Sub-Funds or on a per Sub-Fund basis or some combination of the two methods, as appropriate due to the amounts considered.

GENERAL MEETINGS

The annual general meeting of Shareholders shall be held at the registered office of the Company or at such other place in Grand Duchy of Luxembourg on second Wednesday of May in each year, unless otherwise stated in the notice of convocation, or if any such day is not a Business Day in Luxembourg, on the next following Business Day in Luxembourg.

Shareholders of any Sub-Fund or Class of Shares may hold, at any time, general meetings to decide on any matters that relate exclusively to such Sub-Fund, such Class of Shares.

Notices of all general meetings are sent by mail to all registered Shareholders at their registered address at least eight (8) days prior to each such meeting. To the extent required by Luxembourg laws, notices of all general meetings will be published in the Mémorial and in a Luxembourg newspaper. Such notice will indicate the time and place of such meeting and the conditions of admission thereto, will contain the agenda and will refer to the requirements of Luxembourg law with regard to the necessary quorum and majorities at such meeting. To the extent required by Luxembourg law, further notices will be published in the Mémorial and in one Luxembourg newspaper.

GLOBAL RISK EXPOSURE

The risk exposure is calculated taking into account the current value of the underlying assets, the counterparty risk, future market movements and the time available to liquidate the positions. For each of the Sub-Funds, the commitment approach is used for global exposure calculation purposes.

INVESTMENT MANAGER'S REPORT ON THE MANAGEMENT OF THE FUND

Dear Shareholders,

Credicorp Capital Latin American Equity Fund

2019 was a very good year for equities globally as investors shrugged off trade war fears and geopolitical tensions. Developed Markets (25.2%) outperformed Emerging Markets (15.4%) mainly on the back of growth deceleration in Asia and currency weakness across EM. Latin America (13.7%) slightly underperformed EM, but performance was extremely dispersed across countries. The top markets were Brazil (22.1%) and Colombia (27.2%), both of which enjoyed the benefits from new pro-business governments enacting important reforms towards fiscal stability. On the other side, Chile (-18.6%) and Argentina (-22.6%) were the worst performers due to slow growth and currency depreciation exacerbated by internal factors (social crisis in Chile and elections in Argentina). Peru (0.3%) and Mexico (8.0%) were in the middle of the table, as weaker GDP figures weighted down on their equity markets, however, both enjoyed the only currencies in the region that gained against the USD.

In 2019 the fund outperformed its benchmark in 10 out of 12 months, ending at 21.5% compared to 17.8% of the MSCI Latin America Index, showing a balanced and consistent positioning throughout the year. The fund had an average active share of 60%, an average tracking error of 450bps and a beta of 0.95. The highest contribution to fund's performance in terms of allocation came from our overweight in Brazil and underweight in Chile. In terms of selection, consumer discretionary and financial stocks contributed the most, while materials and staples detracted slightly. The top contributor to alpha was the Brazilian healthcare company Hapvida, which doubled in the year, after announcing accretive acquisitions in the Brazilian healthcare sector. This was followed by B2W, the ecommerce company which also doubled on the back of improving operating momentum.

For 2020, we continue to be encouraged by the positive trends seen in the Latin American region, particularly in those countries working on a positive reform agenda like Brazil, Colombia. We feel less certain about the current macro and political environments in Argentina and Chile, and although Mexico and Peru are relatively in more stable, domestic demand will remain weak during the year. Hence, we have an overweight position in Brazil entering 2020, underweight in Chile and Mexico, and a neutral in Peru and Colombia. Our investment strategy is to continue to concentrate the fund in "high conviction" names and to make the most of market inefficiencies in the mid and small capitalization universe.

Credicorp Capital Latin America Pacific Alliance Fund

The Pacific Alliance region (3.0%) had particularly difficult 2019, underperforming Latin America (13.7%), Emerging Markets (15.4%), and Developed Markets (25.2%). As all countries in the Pacific Alliance region are open economies, these markets were specially affected by the trade war and commodities prices. However, internal risks also materialized in some countries, which affected performance even further. The top market was Colombia (27.2%), which enjoyed the benefits from a new pro-business government. On the other side, Chile (- 18.6%) was the worst performer due to slow growth and currency depreciation exacerbated by internal factors (social crisis). Peru (0.3%) and Mexico (8.0%) were in the middle of the table, as weaker GDP figures weighted down on their equity markets, however, both enjoyed the only currencies in the region that gained against the USD.

In 2019 the fund outperformed its benchmark until its closing in December 3, 2019, ending at 1.7%% compared to -1.6% of the S&P Pacific Alliance Index. The highest contribution to fund's performance in terms of allocation came from our overweight (off-benchmark) in Brazil and underweight in Chile. In terms of selection, consumer discretionary and financial stocks contributed the most, while materials detracted slightly. The top contributor to alpha was the Mexican microfinance company Gentera, which rallied as it continually improved its financial metrics during the year. This was followed by B2W, the ecommerce company which also doubled on the back of improving operating momentum.

The fund has been liquidated as of December 2019.

INVESTMENT MANAGER'S REPORT ON THE MANAGEMENT OF THE FUND (continued)

CrediCorp Capital Latin American Corporate Debt

2019 reported positive returns for the Latin America corporate debt. More risk appetite throughout the year, good momentum in Brazil and low rates in the globe, impacted in a positive way the asset class. On the negative side, politics and economic policy specially in Argentina impacted Latin American corporate debt. On the domestic front, solid credit profiles, helped companies to avoid negative rating actions and continue tapping the market in order to refinance their short-term debt, improving their maturity profile.

The Latin American Corporate Debt Fund had a return of 14.75% in the period, with volatility of 2.43%, lower than a 2.68% at the close of 2018. Sector allocation was the main alpha detractor, while selection added performance. In terms of sector selection, the fund closed the year with an overweight position in sectors like consumer, transport and real estate while underweight in sectors like financials and also sectors related to commodities, like oil & gas. In terms of country selection, the main contributor was the overweight position in Brazil.

In term of sources of performance, spread contraction and Treasury yields were the most relevant drivers for the positive return. For the year, Latin American corporate spreads (to worst) contracted 50 basis points (bps), reaching 350 bps; mostly as a result of: (i) The global commercial war making central banks in the globe with an accommodative stance, (ii) Attractive valuations in emerging markets corporate debt, particularly in Latin America (iii) The increased risk appetite of investors that resulted in inflows to the asset class helping valuation and new issuances throughout the year, and (iv) On the negative side, political uncertainty in Argentina and Chile.

For the next year, the main strategy is to maintain a majority of exposure in high yield bonds, maximizing income and the beta exposure to the market, and consolidate the level of diversification achieved, with currently 77 issuers in the portfolio. In terms of country allocation, the strategy is to maintain a constructive view in Brazil, and a conservative bias to Argentina and Chile, unless the macroeconomic conditions change materially. In terms of sector exposure, the strategy is to continue overweight to internal demand related sectors, and underweight to commodity related sectors.

Credicorp Capital Latin American Investment Grade Fund

2019 reported positive returns for the Latin America investment grade corporate debt. More risk appetite throughout the year, good momentum in Brazil and low rates in the globe, impacted in a positive way the asset class. On the negative side, politics and economic policy specially in Argentina and Chile impacted Latin American corporate debt. On the domestic front, solid credit profiles, helped companies to avoid negative rating actions and continue tapping the market in order to refinance their short-term debt, improving their maturity profile.

The Latin American Investment Grade Fund had a return of 13.6% in the period, with volatility of 1.52%. Sector allocation was the main alpha detractor, while selection added performance. In terms of sector selection, the fund closed the year with an overweight position in sectors like utilities and consumer, while underweight in sectors like Pulp & Paper and Metals & Mining. In terms of country selection, the main contributor was the overweight position in Brazil.

In term of sources of performance, spread contraction and Treasury yields were the most relevant drivers for the positive return. For the year, Latin American corporate spreads (to worst) contracted 50 basis points (bps), reaching 350 bps; mostly as a result of: (i) The global commercial war making central banks in the globe with an accommodative stance, (ii) Attractive valuations in emerging markets corporate debt, particularly in Latin America (iii) The increased risk appetite of investors that resulted in inflows to the asset class helping valuation and new issuances throughout the year, and (iv) On the negative side, political uncertainty in Argentina and Chile.

For the remaining of the year, the main strategy of the fund is to consolidate the diversification of the portfolio, expecting to maintain above 60 issuers in the short term, maximizing income and the beta exposure to the market. In terms of country allocation, the strategy is to maintain a neutral position in Mexico and Peru and continue with a positive bias to Brazil unless the macroeconomic conditions change materially. In terms of sector exposure, the strategy is to maintain an overweight on internal demand related and defensive sectors, and underweight to commodity related sectors.

Subsequent Event: COVID-19

Beginning in January 2020, global financial markets have experienced and may continue to experience significant volatility resulting from the spread of a novel coronavirus known as COVID-19. The outbreak of COVID-19 has resulted in travel and border restrictions, quarantines, supply chain disruptions, lower consumer demand and general market uncertainty. The effects of COVID-19 have and may continue to adversely affect the global economy, the economies of certain nations and individual issuers, all of which may negatively impact the Fund['s/s'] performance.

The Coronavirus (COVID-19) has undoubtedly been the main source of disruption and the largest generator of volatility in the markets worldwide. Additional volatility has come from the price war in the oil market, as a result of the breakdown of the agreement between OPEC and Russia. This has fueled an outstanding return on safe haven assets and a marked pullback on higher risk assets.

Fixed Income

Credicorp Capital Latin American Corporate Debt Fund

During March 2020, Latin American high yield fixed income was no stranger to the devaluation of risky assets globally, as a consequence of the uncertainty generated by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) and the pronounced drop in the price of oil. The benchmark Cembí Latam Index fell -19.63% during March, in line with the performance of US speculative fixed income -14.2%, and emerging corporate fixed income -11.5%. The impact has been of such magnitude that credit spreads have approached 700 basis points, surpassing the levels of the crisis of 2015 and close to the levels of the crisis of 2008.

In this regard, the performance of the Class I (Institutional Class) devalued in March to -21.8%, given the greater bias in categories BB and B with respect to the index, and throughout the year it has accumulated a return of -21.6%. (Data as of March 31, 2020).

Credicorp Capital Latin American Investment Grade Fund

During the month of March 2020, after the escalation of the coronavirus on a global level, the Latin American IG faced strong volatility, as did most risky assets. Our fund was not left out of this movement with a drop in the Class I (Institutional Class) of -13.5% during the month and -11.3% year to date. (Data as of March 31, 2020).

It should be noted that despite the high volatility we have had in recent times, the fund has behaved defensively against the benchmark, mainly thanks to the Underweight we have in Colombia and the Overweight in Panama. Regarding the current positioning of our portfolio, it is important to highlight the Underweight we have in companies linked to commodities, favoring to a greater extent real estate and consumer goods companies.

Equity

Credicorp Capital Latin American Equity Fund

Latin American equities have been one of the assets hit hardest by Covid-19 and by the oil price war. The performance in USD of the asset class since the sell-off began (February 24) has been -45%, compared to -25% for Emerging Markets and -28% for Developed Markets, where the depreciation effect of coins accounts for at least a third of the performance. In this sense, the performance in local currency has been similar to the performance of other equity markets. This extreme depreciation of currencies is due to a healthy adjustment mechanism that allows Latin American countries to cope with sharp falls in the commodities they produce and maintain healthy domestic and foreign accounts. Given the market situation, the performance of the Class I of the fund (Institutional Class) has fallen -37.9% in March and -47.1% year to date. (Data as of March 31, 2020)

We maintain a positive outlook for Latin American equities, and even more so now that most of its markets are trading at levels not seen since the 2008-09 crisis. Most countries are already taking important steps to prevent the spread of the virus, along with increased fiscal and monetary support, which will help to avoid recession at the regional level. We also hope that the recovery in China will have a positive effect, particularly on the demand for inputs produced in the region and just as Latin America was the most affected region in terms of performance, we also think that it could be the one with the best outcome globally.

REPORT OF THE REVISEUR D'ENTREPRISES AGREE

Report on the audit of the financial statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Credicorp Capital Asset Management Fund ("the Fund") and each of its sub-funds, which comprise the statement of net assets and the portfolio as at 31 December 2019 and the statement of changes in net assets for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of Credicorp Capital Asset Management Fund and each of its sub-funds as at 31 December 2019, and of the results of their operations and changes in their net assets for the year then ended in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 on the audit profession ("Law of 23 July 2016") and with International Standards on Auditing ("ISAs") as adopted for Luxembourg by the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier ("CSSF"). Our responsibilities under the Law of 23 July 2016 and ISAs are further described in the « Responsibilities of "Réviseur d'Entreprises agréé" for the Audit of the Financial Statements » section of our report. We are also independent of the Fund in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("IESBA Code") as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements, and have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities under those ethical requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other information

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information stated in the annual report but does not include the financial statements and our report of "Réviseur d'Entreprises agréé" thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report this fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors of the Fund for the financial statements

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements, and for such internal control as the Board of Directors of the Fund determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for assessing the Fund's and each of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors of the Fund either intends to liquidate the Fund or any of its sub-funds or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Responsibilities of the “Réviseur d'Entreprises agréé” for the audit of the financial statements

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue a report of “Réviseur d'Entreprises agréé” that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors of the Fund.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors of the Fund's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's or any of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our report of the “Réviseur d'Entreprises agréé” to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our report of the “Réviseur d'Entreprises agréé”. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund or any of its sub-funds to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

a) Valuation of investment securities

Investment securities, including zero-coupon bonds and money market instruments, quoted on an official stock exchange or on another regulated market are valued according to the last available price on 31 December 2019 and, in the event of being quoted on several markets, according to the last known price of the principal market.

The value of each investment in open-ended funds, either listed or not, is based on the last known Net Asset Value on 31 December 2019.

b) Net realised profit / (loss) on sale of investments

Realised profits or losses made on the sales of investments are calculated according to the average cost.

The following Subsequent Events took place between the end of the reporting period and the date of approval of this report by the Board of Directors: Class I of the Sub-Fund Credicorp Capital Latin American Equity Fund has been fully redeemed as of 17/01/2020.

Impact of COVID 19

Beginning in January 2020, global financial markets have experienced and may continue to experience significant volatility resulting from the spread of a novel coronavirus known as COVID-19. The outbreak of COVID-19 has resulted in travel and border restrictions, quarantines, supply chain disruptions, lower consumer demand and general market uncertainty. The effects of COVID-19 have and may continue to adversely affect the global economy, the economies of certain nations and individual issuers, all of which may negatively impact the Fund['s/s'] performance.

The ultimate impacts on the different sub-funds remain uncertain and can be expected to vary according to country, asset class, industry sector and individual securities in which they are invested. The investment manager's report on page 9 of this annual report details the impact of the financial crisis linked to Covid-19 on the sub-funds until March 2020.

The Coronavirus (COVID-19) has undoubtedly been the main source of disruption and the largest generator of volatility in the markets worldwide. Additional volatility has come from the price war in the oil market, as a result of the breakdown of the agreement between OPEC and Russia. This has fueled an outstanding return on safe haven assets and a marked pullback on higher risk assets.
