Objectives and investment policy

OBJECTIVE

To increase the value of your investment.

REFERENCE INDEX

ICE LIBOR USD 3M (USD). Used for performance measurement.

PORTFOLIO ASSETS

The Compartment mainly gains exposure, directly or indirectly, to equities, bonds, money market instruments, commodities (including precious metals), real estate and currencies from emerging markets, including Mainland China. The Compartment can invest across any currency, credit quality and economic sector. The Compartment may gain exposure to portfolio assets by investing in funds, which may incur a duplication of certain fees, and derivatives.

DERIVATIVES AND STRUCTURED PRODUCTS

The Compartment may use derivatives to reduce various risks (hedging) and for efficient portfolio management, and may use derivatives and structured products to gain exposure to portfolio assets.

INVESTMENT PROCESS

In actively managing the Compartment, the investment manager uses a risk-managed approach to seek additional performance opportunities, and pursues a flexible asset allocation strategy. The investment manager may invest in issuers with any environmental, social, and governance (ESG) profile. It methodically exercises voting rights and may engage with issuers in order to positively influence ESG practices, SFDR product category Article 6. The Compartment is not constrained by the benchmark and the similarity of its performance to the benchmark may vary.

Terms to understand

Bonds Securities that represent an obligation to repay a debt, along with interest.

Derivatives Financial instruments whose value is linked to one or more rates, indexes, share prices or other values.

Emerging markets Markets of less economically developed nations, such as some nations in Asia, Africa, Eastern Europe and Latin America.

Equities Securities that represent a share in the business results of a company.

Money market instruments Financial instruments designed to provide stable value, interest and a very low risk of loss, as well as being readily convertible into cash.

Structured products Securities similar to derivatives, but with defined risk or performance characteristics.

Other characteristics

Designed for Investors who understand the risks of this Compartment and plan to invest for 5 years or more. This is an accumulation share class, meaning any income earned is retained in the share price. It is also a hedged share class, which means that it is designed to reduce, but not cancel out, the currency risk between the Compartment currency and the Share Class currency. Orders to buy, switch or redeem shares are ordinarily processed on any day that is a full bank business day in Luxembourg.

The Share Class is assigned to this risk category because of the price variations resulting from its currency and the nature of the Compartment's investments and strategy. The risk category shown is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication for the future risk profile of the Share Class. It is not a target or a guarantee and may change over time. The lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment. The Compartment offers no capital guarantee or asset protection measures.

The Compartment may be exposed to the following risks which are not adequately captured by the synthetic risk indicator and may negatively impact its value:

- Financial Derivatives risk: the leverage resulting from derivatives amplifies losses in certain market conditions.
- Liquidity risk: markets with low volumes result in difficulties valuing and/or trading some assets.
- Counterparty risk: losses occur when a counterparty does not honour its obligations related to contracts such as over-the-counter derivatives.
- Credit risk: sudden losses may occur when issuers of debt securities default on their payment obligations.
- Investments in emerging markets are generally more sensitive to risk events, such as changes in the economic, political, fiscal and legal environment, as well as fraud.
- Investments in Mainland China may be subject to capital restrictions and trading quotas (e.g. QFII and RQFII regimes). The Compartment may encounter difficulties or delays in enforcing its rights in the event of disputes.
- Chinese "Stock Connect" trading programmes may be subject to additional risks related to ownership rights, clearing & settlement, trading quotas and operational issues.
- Sukuk investments may lead to losses because of the lack of uniform regulatory standards and weak legal frameworks for settling disputes and defaults, among other risks.
- Contingent Convertible ("CoCo") investments may result in losses when regulatory or issuer-motivated triggering events cause a total loss of the investment or a conversion to equity.
- Operational risk: losses resulting from human errors, system failures, incorrect valuation and safekeeping of assets.
- Investing in distressed securities The recovery of investments in distressed or defaulted debt securities is subject to uncertainty related to court orderings and corporate reorganisations among other things. Companies which issued the debt that has defaulted may also be liquidated.
- Sustainability risk: ESG related risk events or conditions could cause a material negative impact on the value of the investment if they were to occur.

Further information can be found in the prospectus.

Charges

The charges you pay are used to cover the costs of running the Compartment, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.

The entry, conversion and exit charges shown are maximum figures. In some cases you may pay less. You can find this out from your financial adviser or fund distributor.

The ongoing charges shown here are an estimate of future charges. This figure may vary from year to year. It excludes performance fees and portfolio transaction costs, except in the case of an entry/exit charge paid by the Compartment when buying or selling units/shares in another collective investment undertaking.

For more information on charges, please refer to the "Fund Expenses" section of the Fund's prospectus available on assetmanagement.pictet
