Credit Suisse Investment Partners (Lux) Convert International Bond Fund

a subfund of CS Investment Funds 1 - Class A USD

Investment policy

The fund provides an actively managed exposure to global convertibles as a most efficient multi-asset class strategy involving equity, credit and volatility on a globally diversified basis, with the aim of achieving superior risk-adjusted returns. The risk profile is comparable to that of a classic balanced fund. The fund invests mainly in convertible securities issued by public and private issuers. Traditional bonds, equity and structured products may be held in complement. Investments are made globally with no restrictions as to country or currency.

The fund was originally launched on 29.06.1984 as the Credit Suisse (CH) Convert International Bond Fund. On 05.02.2021, investors of this fund were offered to exchange their shares into shares of the Credit Suisse Investment Partners (Lux) Convert International Bond Fund which was launched on 11.03.2021. The new fund is managed in accordance with the same investment guidelines and investment policies as the former fund.

¹⁾ The fund's risk and reward profile shows the variations in value an investment in this fund would have undergone over the past five years, whereby simulated performance data is used in the case of missing history. The fund's risk rating may change in the future. Please note, higher possible gains generally also mean higher possible losses. The lowest risk category does not mean that the fund is risk free.

²⁾ If the currency of a financial product and/or its costs is different from your reference currency, the return and cost may increase or decrease as a result of currency fluctuations.

Asset Allocation presented on this page may change over time.

Potential risks

The Fund's risk and reward profile does not reflect the risk inherent in future circumstances that differ from what the Fund has experienced in the recent past. This includes the following events which are rare but can have a large impact.

- Credit risk: Issuers of assets held by the Fund may not pay income or repay capital when due. Part of the Fund's investments may have considerable credit risk.
- Liquidity risk: Assets cannot necessarily be sold at limited cost in an adequately short timeframe. Part of the Fund's investments may be prone to limited liquidity. The Fund will endeavor to mitigate this risk by various measures.
- Counterparty risk: Bankruptcy or insolvency of the Fund's derivative counterparties may lead to payment or delivery default. The Subfund will endeavor to mitigate this risk by the receipt of financial collateral given as guarantees.
- Operational risk: Deficient processes, technical failures or catastrophic events may cause losses.
- Political and Legal risks: Investments are exposed to changes of rules and standards applied by a specific country. This includes restrictions on currency convertibility, the imposing of taxes or controls on transactions, the limitations of property rights or other legal risks.
- Sustainability risks: Sustainability risks are environmental, social or governance events or conditions can have a material negative effect on the return, depending on the relevant sector, industry and company exposure.
