Significant risk(s) for the Fund not taken into account in this indicator include the following:

Counterparty risk: The use of over-the-counter derivatives exposes the Fund to a risk that the counterparty to the transactions will fully or partially fail to honour its contractual obligations. This may result in a financial loss for the Fund.

Credit risk: The Fund invests in bonds, cash or other money market instruments. There is a risk that the issuer may default. The likelihood of this happening will depend on the credit-worthiness of the issuer. The risk of default is usually greatest with bonds that are rated as sub-investment grade.

Currency risk: The Fund invests in overseas markets. It can be affected by changes in exchange rates which may cause the value of your investment to decrease or increase.

Emerging countries risk: The Fund invests in overseas countries which carry a higher risk than investing in larger established countries. Investments in Emerging countries are likely to experience greater rises and falls in value and may suffer trading problems. A Fund which invests in Emerging countries rather than more developed countries may encounter difficulties when buying and selling investments. Emerging countries are also more likely to experience political uncertainty and investments held in these countries may not have the same protection as those held in more developed countries.

Liquidity risk: Liquidity risk exists when particular investments are difficult to purchase or sell. This can reduce the Fund's returns because the Fund may be unable to trade at advantageous times or prices.

Full details of risks are disclosed in the chapter "Risk Factors" in the prospectus.
