Franklin Intelligent Machines Fund

Class A (acc) EUR-H1 • ISIN LU2441052623 • A sub-fund of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds

The management company is Franklin Templeton International Services S.à r.l.

Objectives and Investment Policy

Franklin Intelligent Machines Fund (the "Fund") aims to increase the value of its investments over the medium to long term.

The Fund pursues an actively managed investment strategy and invests mainly in:

- equity securities issued by companies of any size and located anywhere in the world (including in emerging markets) which represent the next phase of technological evolution, such as companies that develop, produce, manufacture, design, maintain and deliver products or services with new capabilities previously unavailable in the marketplace

The Fund may from time to time hold a greater amount of cash or cash equivalent where the manager believes that the markets or economic conditions are unfavourable for investors.

The Fund can invest to a lesser extent in:

- debt securities of any maturity or quality issued by companies of any size located in any country
- units of other mutual funds and exchange-traded funds (limited to 10% of assets)

Companies relevant to the Fund's investment theme of intelligent machines are those that the investment team believes are substantially focused on and/or are expected to substantially benefit from the ongoing technology-driven transformation of products, software, systems and machinery as well as product design, manufacture, logistics, distribution and maintenance, including through developments in artificial intelligence. The Fund may have a substantial part of its portfolio invested in companies located or traded in the US.

The benchmark of the Fund is the MSCI All Country World Index-NR. The benchmark is used solely as a reference for Investors to compare against the Fund's performance and the benchmark is neither used as a constraint on how the Fund's portfolio is to be constructed nor set as a target for the Fund's performance to beat. The Fund can deviate from the benchmark.

You may request the sale of your shares on any Luxembourg business day.

The income received from the Fund's investments is accumulated with the result of increasing the value of the shares.

For further information on the Objectives and Investment Policy of the Fund, please refer to the section "Fund Information, Objectives and Investment Policies" of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.

Terms to Understand

Debt securities: Securities representing the issuer's obligation to repay a loan at a specified date and to pay interest.

Equity securities: Securities that represent an ownership stake in a company.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does this indicator mean and what are its limits?

This indicator is designed to provide you with a measure of the price movement of this share class based on historical behavior.

Historical data may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.

As the share class has no sufficient historical data available, simulated data based on a representative portfolio model or benchmark have been used instead.

Why is the Fund in this specific category?

The Fund invests in equity securities of companies in the technology sector. Such securities have historically been subject to significant price movements that may occur suddenly due to market or company-specific factors. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate significantly over relatively short time periods.

Risks materially relevant not adequately captured by the indicator:

Concentration risk: the risk that arises when a fund invests in relatively few holdings, few sectors or a restricted geographic area. Performance may be more volatile than a fund with a greater number of securities.

Equity risk: prices of equities may be affected by factors such as economic, political, market, and issuer-specific changes. Such changes may adversely affect the value of the equities regardless of company-specific performance.

For a full discussion of all the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the "Risk Considerations" section of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.
