Objectives and investment policy

This Fund is actively managed with the goal to achieve capital growth by investing in Catastrophe bonds (cat bonds) in any currency over the medium- to long-term. The Fund promotes environmental, social and governance (ESG) characteristics (within the meaning of Article 8 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088) through a combination of different portfolio management techniques. Details are available in the prospectus and the ESG website disclosure of the fund. The Fund's portfolio consists of insurance-linked securities or cat bonds that are at risk of coupon and principal loss in the case of the occurrence of pre-defined insurance events, such as natural catastrophes. These securities are structured with typically a floating rate coupon, which protects the investor against changes in the level of interest rates, but can also exhibit a fixed or zero coupon structure. Cat bonds are issued either through special purpose vehicles (SPVs) to eliminate counterparty risk or directly by public, private and semi-private insurance and reinsurance companies, governments, supranational institutions or corporations. The Fund uses financial derivative instruments (FDIs) in the form of foreign exchange forwards to protect against movements in currencies. This Share Class makes regular distributions. The Fund shall bear the costs of standard charges incurred by the Fund through securities transactions in relation to the portfolio. These charges are not included in the "Charges" section of this document.

Risk and reward profile

Risk profile

The Fund's risk and reward profile shows the variations in value an investment in this Fund would have undergone over the past five years, whereby simulated performance data is used in the case of missing history. The Fund's risk rating may change in the future. Please note, higher possible gains generally also mean higher possible losses. The lowest risk category does not mean that the Fund is risk free.

Why is the Fund in the specific category?

The value of investments in insurance-linked securities is impacted by insurance loss events. The risk level of the Fund is the result of the frequency and severity of these impacts. The particularly active management of the Fund may lead to frequent changes of the Fund's risk profile.

Are there any other particular risks?

The Fund's risk and reward profile does not reflect the risk inherent in future circumstances that differ from what the Fund has experienced in the recent past. This includes the following events which are rare but can have a large impact.

- Credit risk: Issuers of assets held by the Fund may not pay income or repay capital when due. The Fund's investments generally have low credit risk.
- Liquidity risk: Assets cannot necessarily be sold at limited cost in an adequately short timeframe. The Fund's investments may be prone to limited liquidity. The Fund will endeavor to mitigate this risk by various measures.
- Valuation risk: The value of certain assets held by the Fund may be inherently difficult to establish and is potentially the subject of substantial uncertainty.
- Counterparty risk: Bankruptcy or insolvency of the Fund's derivative counterparties may lead to payment or delivery default. The Fund will endeavor to mitigate this risk by the receipt of financial collateral given as guarantees.
- Event risk: The investment amount may not be repaid in full at maturity if a predefined loss event occurs. An event can lead to delayed payments, a partial or even total default of the investment amount. The strategy is subject to the risk of insured events, which are in each case based on the probability of occurrence and claim amounts of insured events.
- Operational risk: Deficient processes, technical failures or catastrophic events may cause losses.
- Political and Legal risks: Investments are exposed to changes of rules and standards applied by a specific country. This includes restrictions on currency convertibility, the imposing of taxes or controls on transactions, the limitations of property rights or other legal risks. Investments in less developed financial markets may expose the Fund to increased operational, legal and political risk.
- Sustainability risks: Sustainability risks are environmental, social or governance events or conditions that can have a material negative effect on the return, depending on the relevant sector, industry and company exposure.
