Objectives and investment policy

This actively managed sub-fund aims to achieve attractive investment returns in USD.

- The sub-fund primarily invests in fixed income instruments with up to 25% in convertible bonds and warrant bonds, up to 20% in contingent convertible bonds (CoCo-Bonds), up to 20% in asset-backed or mortgage-backed securities (ABS/MBS) and up to 30% in non-rated bonds. It invests up to 100% in the high yield sector as well as up to 10% in distressed securities. Up to 33% may be invested in asset classes or instruments outside the aforementioned investment universe. It may hold cash up to 33% of its net assets.
- The sub-fund's investments are mainly denominated in hard currencies and issued or guaranteed by corporate or government, government-related and supra-national issuers domiciled in, having their business activity in or exposed to Asia. "Hard currency" means currencies of economically developed and politically stable countries that are OECD members. "Asia" in connection with this sub-fund are all countries considered as such by the World Bank, the International Finance Corporation or the United Nations or that are included in the J.P. Morgan Asia Credit Index (JACI) Diversified.

- The sub-fund may use derivatives to achieve the investment objective and for hedging purposes. Currency, credit and interest rate risks may be actively managed through the use of derivative financial instruments.
- The currency of this class is continually hedged against the sub-fund's main currency. This hedging does not necessarily cover all currency risks. It entails costs which in turn reduce the share class' return.
- The sub-fund is managed with reference to a benchmark. The portfolio manager has full investment discretion within the predefined investment limits.
- Any income generated will be reinvested and included in the value of your shares.
- Buying and selling securities entails transaction costs payable in addition to the charges listed.
- Redemption of shares: daily when banks in Luxembourg are open for normal business (see prospectus for details and exceptions).
- HI (hedged) shares are exclusively reserved for institutional investors.

Risk and reward profile

- The indicator above does not signal the risk of a potential loss, but indicates the fluctuations in the sub-fund's share price in the past.
- The share class is assigned to this category because its share price can fluctuate moderately due to the investment policy applied.
 - The historical data used to calculate the profile cannot be used as a reliable guide to the future risk profile of the sub-fund.
 - The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change.
 - Even the lowest risk category is not entirely free of risk.

When assigning a sub-fund's share class to a risk category, it may be the case that not all risks are taken into account. Such risks include risks in connection with exceptional market events, operational errors, legal and political events. You can find a detailed list of the risks in the "Notice regarding special risks" section in the general part of the sales

- prospectus. The following risks have no direct influence on this category, but may still be important:
- Securities with a lower credit quality means a higher risk that an issuer may fail to meet its obligations. The investment value may fall if an issuer's credit rating is downgraded.
 - Using derivatives generally creates leverage and entails valuation risks and operational risks. Leverage magnifies gains but also losses. Over-the-counter derivatives involve corresponding counterparty risks.
 - Asset-backed and mortgage-backed securities and their underlying receivables are often non-transparent. The sub-fund may also be subject to a higher credit and/or prepayment risk.
 - CoCo-Bonds may entail significant risks such as coupon cancellation risk, capital structure inversion risk, call extension risk.
 - Distressed securities have a high credit and liquidity risk as well as a potential restructuring and litigation risk. In the worst case, a total loss may result.
 - Investments in emerging markets entail increased liquidity and operational risks as these markets tend to be underdeveloped and more exposed to political, legal, tax and foreign exchange control risks.
