Simplified Prospectus

Robeco Capital Growth Funds - Robeco Consumer Trends Equities¹

Important information	This simplified prospectus contains key information about the Sub-fund. If you would like more information before you invest, please consult the most recent full prospectus (hereinafter the "Full Prospectus"). Unless defined in this document, defined terms shall bear the same meaning as in the Full Prospectus. For details about the Sub-fund's holdings, please see the most recent report. Robeco Capital Growth Funds – Robeco Consumer Trends Equities¹ (hereinafter the "Sub-fund") is a sub-fund of Robeco Capital Growth Funds (hereinafter the "Company"). The Company is a Luxembourg investment company with multiple compartments organised as a "société anonyme" incorporated on 2 May 1997. The Company is organised under Part I (UCITS) of the Luxembourg law of 20 December 2002 (as amended) as a "Société d'Investissement à Capital Variable", for an unlimited period. It comprises several sub-funds which are described in the Full Prospectus. The rights and duties of the investor as well as the legal relationship with the Company are laid down in the Full Prospectus and the articles of incorporation of the Company. The Full Prospectus and the periodical reports may be obtained free of charge from the Company.
Investment objective and policy	The aim of the Sub-fund is to provide long term capital growth by taking exposure of at least two-thirds of its total assets to equities of companies all over the world which benefit from the expected increase in consumer spending. The Sub-fund may hold the major part of its investments in companies domiciled in emerging markets or in companies that derive the majority of their revenues from emerging countries. The Sub-fund's strategy allows also for the expression of both positive and negative views on companies by taking long and short positions. These short positions will always be established through the use of financial derivative instruments. The taking of these additional short synthetic positions is an additional tool for the management of the portfolio and may reach at the discretion of the Investment (Sub-)adviser maximum one-third of the NAV. It is expected that short positions will under normal circumstances be met by equivalent long positions although this may not be achievable under extreme market circumstance such as severe intraday volatility (in which case the Investment Adviser will seek to cover the short positions by the equivalent long positions so far as possible). Where a strong, negative view on a given issuer is held, financial derivative instruments will be used to create such a short position. Exchange traded and over-the-counter derivatives are permitted, including but not limited to futures, swaps, options, contracts for differences and currency forwards. Investors should be aware that the use of derivatives may result in increased volatility of the price of the shares. With due consideration given to the investment restrictions and to the extent permitted by the applicable legislation, the Sub-fund may invest its remaining assets in convertible bonds, bonds, money market instruments and derivatives such as options, swaps, warrants on securities, contracts for differences and futures.

	The investment risk will be measured using quantitative techniques. The investment risk of using derivatives is also incorporated in these quantitative techniques. For more information, please consult Appendix III "Risk Management" in the Full Prospectus. The Sub-fund aims to obtain an optimal investment result in the currency in which it is denominated. For this purpose the Sub-fund has an active currency management. Efficient portfolio management may include currency hedges. If liquid instruments to hedge the currencies are not available, the relevant Sub-fund may, for purposes of efficient portfolio management, hedge other currencies as detailed in Appendix IV "Financial Derivative Instruments and Techniques and Instruments" in the Full Prospectus. The active currency policy may cause the Sub-fund's currency positions to deviate from the weights of the respective currencies in the relevant benchmark. The Investment Adviser is allowed to take active currency positions resulting in positive or negative currency exposures. Further details are provided in the Full Prospectus.
Sub-fund's risk profile	In emerging and less developed markets the legal, judicial and regulatory infrastructure is still developing and there may be legal uncertainty both for local market participants and their overseas counterparts. Some markets may carry higher risks for investors who should therefore ensure that, before investing, they understand the risks involved and are satisfied that despite the substantial risk of loss of investment, their investment is suitable as part of their portfolio. Also, the investments in equity of companies may involve risks (for example linked to transferable securities and stock markets), such as exchange rates and volatility risks. The Sub-fund's investments are subject to market fluctuations. No assurance can, therefore, be given that the Sub-fund's investment objective will be achieved. It cannot be guaranteed either that the value of a share in the Sub-fund will not fall below its value at the time of acquisition. Risk considerations for the Sub-fund Investors should note that, in addition to the above mentioned risks, the investment strategy and risks inherent to the Sub-fund are not typically encountered in traditional equity long only funds. The Sub-fund may use derivatives as part of its investment strategy and such investments are inherently volatile and the Sub-fund could potentially be exposed to additional risks and costs should the market move against it. The Sub-fund may also use derivatives to take short positions in some investments. Should the value of such investment increase, it will have a negative effect on the Sub-fund's value. In extreme market conditions, the Sub-fund may be faced with the theoretically unlimited losses. Such extreme market conditions could mean that investors could, in certain circumstances, face minimal or no returns, or may even suffer a loss on such investments. For further details, please consult the Full Prospectus.

Performance disclaimer	Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. Investors may not get back the full amount invested, as prices of shares and the income from them may fall as well as rise. Investors should note that the investment policy of the Sub-fund has been changed on 30 November 2009 and that it was previously named Robeco Capital Growth Funds – Robeco Consumer Goods Equities. Due to a substantial modification of the investment policy, the historical performance until 29 November 2009 is not representative of the new investment policy of the Sub-fund.
Profile of the typical investor	This Sub-fund is suitable for investors who are highly interested in specialised capital markets, and who are aware of their chances and risks. The investor must have experiences with volatile products. The investor must be able to accept significant volatility, thus this Sub-fund is suitable for investors who can afford to set aside the capital for at least 7 years. It is designed for the investment objective of seizing market opportunities. In a widely diversified investor's portfolio, it is suitable as an investment intermixture. Class "D EUR" and "D USD" shares are available for all investors. Class "B EUR", "E EUR" and "M EUR" shares are available in certain countries, subject to the relevant regulatory approval, through specific distributors, selected by the board of directors of the Company. Class "I EUR" and "I USD" shares are available for institutional investors as defined from time to time by the Luxembourg supervisory authority. Class "Z EUR" shares will only be available for (i) institutional investors who are (in)directly wholly or partly owned by Robeco Groep N.V. ("Members of the Robeco Group"); (ii) institutional investors which consist of Investment Fund(s) and/or investment structure(s) which are (co-) managed and/or (sub)advised by Members of the Robeco Group; (iii) institutional investors who are institutional clients of Members of the Robeco Group and are as such subject to separate (management, advisory or other) fees payable to such Members of the Robeco Group.
Treatment of income	With respect to Class "B EUR" shares, after the end of the financial year, the Company can recommend what distribution shall be made from the net investment income and net capital gains attributable to such Class "B EUR" shares. The annual general meeting of shareholders will determine the dividend payment. The board of directors of the Company may decide to distribute interim dividends, in accordance with Luxembourg law. For Classes "D EUR", "D USD", "I EUR", "I USD", "M EUR" and "Z EUR" shares, no dividends will be distributed and all income will remain invested in the relevant Class, and will thus contribute to a further increase in value of the total net assets. With respect to Class "E EUR" shares, investors will be entitled to an appropriation of the annual distribution of the net proceeds. "Net proceeds" should be understood as being all revenues earned in relation to Class "E EUR" shares, minus fees, commissions and costs attendant to the said shares. After the end of the financial year, the annual general meeting of Shareholders will determine the dividend payment. The board of directors of the Company may decide to distribute interim dividends, in accordance with Luxembourg law.
