The Company is an investment company (also known as a collective investment scheme) established under the UCITS Regulations which is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments (each such portfolio being a "Fund").

No person is authorised to give any information or make any representation other than those contained in this Prospectus and if given or made such information or representation may not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Company, its Directors or the Manager.

This Prospectus does not constitute an offer or solicitation to anyone in any jurisdiction in which such an offer or solicitation is not authorised or to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such an offer or solicitation. No person may treat this Prospectus as constituting an invitation to them unless in the relevant territory such an invitation could lawfully be made to them without compliance with any registration or other legal requirements. It is the responsibility of any person outside Ireland wishing to make an application hereunder to satisfy themselves as to full observance of the laws of the relevant territory in connection therewith, including the obtaining of any governmental or other consents which may be required or other formalities needing to be observed or transfer or other taxes requiring to be paid in such territory.

The Directors of the Company have taken all reasonable care to ensure that the facts stated herein are true and accurate in all material respects and that there are no other material facts the omission of which would make misleading any statement herein, whether of fact or of opinion.

Investor Responsibility

Investors should note that since Transferable Securities may depreciate as well as appreciate in value, no assurance can be given by the Company, the Directors or the Manager or any of the persons referred to in this Prospectus that the Company will attain its objectives. The price of Shares, in addition to the income there from, may decrease as well as increase. Accordingly, an investment should only be made where the investor is in a position to sustain any loss on their investment. In addition, the investor should be aware that on any Dealing Day the Subscription Price will be greater than the Redemption Price by an amount reflecting the subscription charge (if any) payable by an investor at the time of subscription. Accordingly, the difference at any one time between the Subscription Price and Redemption Price of Shares means that an investment should be regarded as medium to long term.

A redemption charge of up to 2% may be payable upon the redemption of Shares in certain Funds. Where applicable, information in relation to the redemption charge that may apply is set out in the Leaflet for the relevant Fund.

Investors should also note that a performance related investment management fee may be payable to the Investment Manager which is based on net realised and net unrealised gains and losses calculated in respect of twelve monthly performance periods. As a result such fees may be paid by the relevant Fund(s) on unrealised gains which may subsequently never be realised. Where applicable, information in relation to the performance related investment management fee that may apply is set out in Section 6G of the Prospectus and in the Leaflet for the relevant Fund.

Risk Factors

Investors' attention is drawn to Section 15 of this Prospectus entitled "Risk Factors".

1. OVERVIEW

Details of the investment objectives and policies of each of the Funds can be found in the relevant Leaflet for that Fund. Each Leaflet forms an integral part of, and should be read in conjunction with, this Prospectus.

2. THE SHARE CAPITAL

A. Structure

The Company is an investment company with variable capital which was first authorised by the Central Bank on 23 December 1994. The Company now comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations. Authorisation by the Central Bank does not constitute a warranty as to the performance of the Company and the Central Bank shall not be liable for the performance or default of the Company. The Company is organised as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds.

The Company was incorporated in Ireland as a public limited company on 21 December 1994 with registered number 226624 under the Act. It has an initial authorised capital of €39,000 divided into 30,000 Subscriber Shares of €1.30 each and 500,000,000 Shares of no par value. The 30,000 Subscriber Shares have been issued to the Manager or its nominees to comply with the requirements of the Act. As only Shares can represent an interest in Funds, the Subscriber Shares have no entitlement or interest in such Funds (for further details about Subscriber Shares, see section 2B.)

With the prior approval of the Central Bank, the Company from time to time may create an additional Fund or Funds, the investment policies and objectives for which shall be outlined in the relevant Leaflet.

The Manager will manage each Fund in a way which prudently reflects the risk implicit in a direct investment of a similar nature. Separate books and records will be maintained for each Fund. The assets, liabilities, income and expenditure allocated to each Fund will be separate from those of the other Funds. However, the Company as a whole will remain liable to third parties for all of the liabilities of the Company that are not attributable to a particular Fund.

With the prior approval of the Central Bank the Directors may create different Classes of Shares within each Fund. The Directors may differentiate between the different Classes of Shares within a Fund including, without limitation, as regards the rights, commission charges, currency, entry and exit prices or other characteristics. A separate pool of assets is not maintained for each Class of Share within a Fund. Details of the different Class of Shares within a Fund and the different characteristics applicable to each Class shall be set out in the relevant Leaflet in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank. The creation of further different Class of Shares within a Fund will be notified to, and cleared in advance by, the Central Bank.

B. Subscriber Shares

As the Subscriber Shares are not Shares (and as such do not represent any interest in a Fund) they do not entitle the holders thereof to participate in the dividends of any Fund. The 30,000 Subscriber Shares have been issued to the Manager and its nominees to comply with the requirements of the Act. Seven of these Subscriber Shares are fully paid up and the remaining 29,993 of these Subscriber Shares are paid up to the extent of one quarter of their par value (the Manager remains liable to pay the balance outstanding to the Company if called upon to do so) in order for the Company to receive a certificate to commence business from the Registrar of Companies pursuant to the Act.

The subscription monies in respect of the issue and allotment of Shares will be allocated, together with the relevant assets, liabilities, income and expenditure, to the Fund to which Shares are attributable. If assets or liabilities do not relate to any particular Fund they will generally be allocated to all Funds pro rata according to the Net Asset Value of each of them on the day of allocation.

4. INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES

The sole object for which the Company is established is the collective investment in Transferable Securities and/or other liquid financial assets of capital raised from the public, operating on the principle of risk-spreading. The Company aims to provide investors with the opportunity to invest in a variety of Funds investing in equities, equity related securities and debt securities (such as government and corporate bonds, treasury bills, commercial paper, promissory notes (which shall be freely transferable), fixed interest and floating rate and zero coupon notes and certificates of deposit), all of which are listed or traded on Recognised Markets, open-ended investment funds (as described in Section 5 below) and warrants.

Unless otherwise provided in the relevant Leaflet for a fund, it is intended that each Fund shall be permitted to invest up to 5% of its net assets in securities traded on Russian markets, and such locally traded Russian securities will only be listed or traded on the Moscow Exchange in Russia.

Unless otherwise provided in the relevant Leaflet for a Fund, it is intended that each Fund shall be permitted to invest up to 10% of its net assets in other Investment Funds.

A Fund may also invest in other sub-funds of the Company. Such investment is known as "cross-investment". A Fund may not, however, invest in shares of another sub-fund which itself holds shares in other sub-funds of the Company.

The Company may, within the conditions and limits laid down by the Central Bank, for the purpose of efficient portfolio management, enter into a variety of derivative instruments such as options, futures and forwards, details of which will be set out in the applicable Leaflet for the relevant Fund.

Funds may also utilise derivative instruments for investment purposes and details of such instruments used and the specific strategies for which such instruments are employed in this context will be set out in the applicable Leaflet for the relevant Fund.

"Efficient portfolio management", for these purposes, means an investment decision involving transactions that are entered into for one or more of the following specific aims:

- a reduction of risk;
- a reduction of cost; or
- the generation of additional capital or income for the Fund with an appropriate level of risk, taking into account the risk profile of the Fund and the general provisions of the UCITS Directive.

In the context of efficient portfolio management techniques and/or the use of FDI for hedging or investment purposes, collateral may be received from a counterparty for the benefit of the relevant Fund or posted to a counterparty by or on behalf of the relevant Fund. Any receipt or posting of collateral by the Fund will be conducted in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, the Central Bank Regulations and the terms of the Company's collateral policy outlined in Annex IV of Appendix 1.

The Manager shall ensure that all revenues arising from transactions relating to efficient portfolio management shall be returned to the relevant Fund following the deduction of any direct and indirect operational costs and fees arising from such transactions which shall be payable to the relevant counterparty. Details of the relevant counterparties and whether such counterparties are related to the Manager or the Depositary will be disclosed in the annual and interim financial reports for the Company. Such direct and indirect operational costs and fees will not include hidden revenue and will be at normal commercial rates together with VAT, if any, thereon, and will be borne by the Company or the relevant Fund.

The Company will employ a risk management process which will enable it to accurately measure, monitor and manage the various risks associated with derivative positions, and details of this process have been provided to the Central Bank. The Company will not utilise derivative positions which have not been included in the risk management process until such time as a revised risk management process has been submitted and approved by the Central Bank. The Company will provide on request to Shareholders supplementary information relating to the risk management methods employed by the Company including the quantitative limits that are applied and any recent developments in the risk and yield characteristics of the main categories of investments of the relevant Fund.

A sophisticated risk measurement technique called relative 'value-at-risk' (VaR) will be used to measure the market risk of the relevant Funds. In accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, the daily VaR of the relevant Fund may not exceed twice the daily VaR of a comparable derivative-free portfolio or benchmark.

Please see the relevant benchmark indices for VaR calculation purposes disclosed in Annex III of Appendix 1. The Manager may from time to time, in its discretion and subject to the Central Bank's requirements, amend the relevant benchmark index in respect of a Fund and Shareholders will be notified accordingly.

The following relative VaR quantitative standards are applicable in the context of the Company:

- (i) the confidence level must be at least 99%;

- (ii) the holding period is 10 days;
- (iii) the historical observation period must not be less than 1 year;
- (iv) stress tests are carried out monthly and the results are monitored by the Manager. Appropriate stress tests are used to measure any potential major depreciation of the Fund's value as a result of unexpected changes in the risk parameters, to analyse potential situations in which the use of derivative instruments would bring about a loss; and
- (v) back-testing of the Funds is carried out daily, to compare the potential market risk amount calculated by the model to the actual change in the value of the portfolio. The results are monitored by the Manager.

Details regarding anticipated levels of leverage in relation to a particular Fund will be set out in the Leaflet for such a Fund.

The general investment approach to be adopted in respect of the Funds will be to assess conditions within the permitted investment realm to decide market selection, optimum stock selection and timing.

Neither the material provisions of the investment policy nor the investment objectives of each Fund as disclosed in the Leaflet for each Fund may be altered by the Manager without approval on the basis of a majority of the votes cast at a general meeting of Shareholders. In the event of a change of investment objectives or policies a reasonable notification period shall be given to Shareholders by the Manager to enable them, if they choose to do so, to redeem their Shares in the Funds prior to implementation of these changes.

Details of the investment objectives and investment policy of each Fund shall be set out in the Leaflet issued in connection with each respective Fund.

This waiver is applicable only if in its investment policies the company from the non-Member State complies with the limits laid down in 5.2(c) to 5.2(k), 5.3(a), 5.3(b), 5.5(a), 5.5(b), 5.5(d), 5.5(e) and 5.5(f), and provided that where these limits are exceeded, paragraphs 5.5(e) and 5.5(f) below are observed;

The management fee is calculated by reference to the Net Asset Value of the relevant Fund and accrues daily at the Valuation Point and is payable quarterly in arrears. The Manager is entitled to be reimbursed out of the assets of the Company the expenses incurred by it in the performance of its duties as Manager of the Company.

The Manager may, from time to time, rebate a portion of its management fee to certain Shareholders at its discretion based on certain criteria including, but not limited to, the strategic importance of the Shareholder (e.g. seed investor) or the size of their investment in funds managed by the Manager.

The Company also bears the cost of any local taxes in connection with such registration in other jurisdictions.

G. Investment Research Charge

Following the implementation of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (2014/65/EU), the Investment Manager in respect of the relevant Fund operates a research payment account ("RPA") meaning that the relevant Fund will bear the costs and expenses associated with investment research required in connection with the operation of such Fund.

Details of any such charges shall be set out in the relevant Leaflet for each Fund. Any investment research charge, which is payable to brokers, is calculated by reference to the Net Asset Value of the relevant Fund and accrues daily at the Valuation Point. Upon receipt of an invoice the charge is paid into a research payment account (RPA) which is controlled by the Investment Manager appointed in respect of the relevant Fund.

H. Performance Fee

In accordance with the Schedule below, the Investment Manager may also be entitled to a performance related investment management fee (the "Performance Fee"). Such a Performance Fee, also referred to as "Outperformance Fee", is payable in respect of each Performance Period (as defined below), if the performance of the relevant Fund (or Class of Shares within the Fund) has relatively outperformed the applicable benchmark for that Fund (or Class) ("Benchmark"). Details of the applicable Benchmark are given in the schedule below, such relative outperformance, expressed as percentage points, being the "Outperformance". The payment/accrual of Performance Fees are subject to the conditions set out below.

Benchmark

Save as otherwise determined by the Directors, the Benchmark may commonly be a recognised index (e.g., a market index, market indices or a combination thereof) ("Index Benchmark") which will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

The Benchmark for each Fund for the Performance Period is set out in the schedule below and will be reviewed by the Manager, the Company and/or the relevant Investment Manager from time to time:

Fund name	Benchmark	Max % of outperformance payable (Participation)	% of outperformance payable (Participation)

		Rate)	Rate)
Metzler Eastern Europe (Class A Shares only)	MSCI EFM EUROPE and CIS IMI CUSTOM CAPPED NR Index	20%	15%
Metzler European Growth Sustainability (Class A Shares only)	MSCI Europe Growth net (NDUGE15)	20%	15%
Metzler European Smaller Companies Sustainability (Class A Shares only)	STOXX Europe Small 200 Index (SCXR)	20%	15%
Metzler Euro Corporates Short Term Sustainability (Class A Shares only)	ICE BofAML EMU Corporates Non-Financial 1-3 Yr (EN01)	20%	20%
Metzler Alternative Multi Strategy (Class A Shares only)	ICE BofAML Euro Currency 3-Month Deposit Bid Rate Index (L3EC)	15%	15%

Performance fee amounts payable and/or the constituents of a Fund portfolio may be calculated or otherwise determined by reference to an index or a combination of indices. Any such index may constitute a benchmark for the purposes of the Benchmarks Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/1011) (the "Benchmarks Regulation"). If any such index does constitute such a benchmark, the Fund Leaflet will indicate whether or not the benchmark is provided by an administrator included in the register of administrators and benchmarks established and maintained by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") pursuant to article 36 of the Benchmarks Regulation.

Transitional provisions in the Benchmarks Regulation may have the result that the administrator of a particular benchmark is not required to appear in the register of administrators and benchmarks at the date of the Fund Leaflet.

The Manager maintains a robust written plan setting out the actions to be taken in the event that a benchmark materially changes or ceases to be provided. This written plan nominates one or several alternative benchmarks that could be referenced to substitute the benchmarks no longer provided, indicating why such benchmarks would be suitable alternatives.

Performance Period

The Performance Period is a period during which the performance of a Fund (or Class) ("Fund Performance") is measured against the performance of the applicable Benchmark ("Benchmark Performance"). The Performance Period shall be a twelve month period and shall run from 1 October to 30 September to coincide with the financial year of the Company. However, the Performance Period may be shorter than the financial year in the following circumstances: (1) if there is a change in the Performance Period (for example, during the Performance Period which commenced on 1 January 2008 ended on 30 September 2008); (2) if there is a change of Benchmark during the financial year, in which case a new Performance Period will commence on the effective date of the change of Benchmark and the previous Performance Period will terminate; (3) if a new Fund is introduced during the fiscal year, in which case the Performance Period shall commence on the date of the launch of the Fund or such later date as may be agreed between the Manager, the Company and/or the relevant Investment Manager. Further, for the avoidance of doubt, a Performance Period will automatically terminate at the financial year end and a new Performance Period, where applicable/if relevant, will commence at the beginning of the new financial year.

If the Manager and the Company and/or the relevant Investment Manager agree on a change of the relevant Benchmark during the year, a new Performance Period will start on the effective date of such benchmark change and the previous Performance Period will terminate. Shareholders will be notified of any such change in Benchmark, in advance of such change taking place.

For technical reasons, the performance measurement is based on the NAV per share of the relevant Fund and the Benchmark on the last Business Day prior to the beginning and end dates of the relevant Performance Period. In relation to newly launched Funds, the initial offer price per share will be taken as the starting price for the relevant calculation.

Outperformance Calculation

The Outperformance of the relevant Fund is calculated as the relative performance between the Fund Performance and the Benchmark Performance, the method of such calculation is described by the following formula:

Relative Outperformance =

$$\text{i.e.} \quad \frac{(\text{the Fund Performance})}{(\text{the Benchmark Performance})} - 100$$

t_0 = NAV/Benchmark at end of the preceding Performance Period.

a. Fund Performance

The Fund Performance in respect of a Performance Period is the difference, expressed as a percentage, between the Net Asset Value per share of the relevant Fund at the beginning of the Performance Period, and the Net Asset Value per share of the relevant Fund on the end of the relevant Performance Period (adjusted for the performance fee accrual, if any, so that the calculation of Fund Performance is unaffected by Performance Fee accruals during the Performance Period).

The Net Asset Value per share, as adjusted for Performance Fee accruals of the relevant Fund at the end of the Performance Period, is also adjusted for any dividends distributed to Shareholders during the Performance Period, if any.

b. Benchmark Performance

In respect of a Performance Period, the Benchmark Performance is defined as set out below:

Benchmark Index means the difference between the level of the Benchmark at the beginning of the Performance Period and at the end of the Performance Period, expressed as a percentage.

Underperformance

No Performance Fee is payable if the Fund Performance is less than the Benchmark Performance during any Performance Period ("Underperformance"). The Underperformance is determined by the negative relative Outperformance as calculated in line with section "Outperformance Calculation" and expressed as percentage points. In addition to the methodology set out above, where a Fund uses a high water mark for the purposes of the Performance Fee calculation, further details of such high water mark will be set out in the relevant Leaflet.

Any Underperformance is carried forward to any future Performance Periods and no Performance Fee will become payable in any Performance Period until the Fund has recovered in full any such accumulated Underperformances for previous Performance Periods.

In the case of a change of the Benchmark, any (accumulated unrecovered) Underperformances at the time of the change of the Benchmark are carried forward to the subsequent Performance Period of the relevant Fund.

Performance Fee Base

The base for the calculation of the Performance Fee payable is the arithmetic average of daily Net Asset Values of the relative Fund during the relevant Performance Period as calculated by the Manager.

The Performance Fee is payable in the base currency of the relevant Fund.

Participation Rate

This is the maximum percentage of Outperformance on which a Performance Fee will be paid to the Investment Manager for a particular Fund (see schedule above).

Performance Fee

The Performance Fee payable is determined by the following formula:

Performance Fee = Relative Outperformance (%) times Participation Rate (%) times Performance Fee Base.

The Performance Fee is exclusive of value added tax (if any).

The performance measurement is based on the NAV per share of the relevant Fund and the Benchmark on the last Business Day prior to the beginning and end dates of the relevant Performance Period. The Performance Fee is payable annually in arrears in the respect of each Performance Period following the verification of the calculation of the Performance Fee by the Depositary following the end of the financial year of the Company.

The performance fee will be calculated and will accrue daily.

New Fund

Where a new Fund is established and a performance fee is payable in respect thereof, the relevant performance fee calculation will be as set out in this section 6G of the Prospectus, unless otherwise specifically provided for in the relevant Leaflet for that Fund.

I. Subscription Charge

A subscription charge payable to the Manager or its agent to cover distribution costs of up to 5% of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Shares may be charged on subscription. The subscription charge for each Fund shall be specified in the Leaflet for such Fund.

J. Redemption Charge

A redemption charge payable to the Manager or its agent of up to 2% of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Shares may be charged on any redemption. At the date of this Prospectus the Manager does not provide for redemption charges in respect of any of the Funds. Details of any future redemption charges applicable to a Fund shall be specified in the Leaflet for such Fund.

K. Equalisation

All fees accrued by the Funds are subject to a daily equalisation computation. Equalisation is a process which ensures that during the fiscal year of the Fund the earnings per Share are not diluted by any new share creations nor are they always increased by redemptions. This is achieved by allocating a portion of subscription/reinvestment proceeds corresponding to the net earnings per Share already gained by the Fund to a so-called net earnings equalisation account and in the case of redemptions the redemption proceeds comprise both the redeemer's portion of the total net earnings gained by the Fund and the redeemer's portion of the capital of the Fund.

L. Distributor's Fees

Each Distributor shall be entitled to the full preliminary charge payable to the Manager on the subscription for Shares in the Company. However, such charge is only payable to the Distributor in respect of investors who have been introduced into the Company by the Distributor. Each Distributor shall also be entitled to be paid by the Manager a portion of the management fee, such amount to be agreed from time to time between the parties.

M. No Double Fees

If a Fund invests in the units of another Investment Fund, which:

- (a) the Manager or the Investment Manager manages itself either directly or indirectly; or
- (b) is managed by a company with which the Manager or the Investment Manager is related by virtue of:
 - (i) common management,
 - (ii) control, or
 - (iii) a direct or indirect interest of more than 10% of the capital or the votes, the Manager shall reduce the portion of the management fee to which the Manager would be entitled in respect of that portion of a Fund's assets invested in the Investment Fund. No issue or redemption fee will be charged.

Where a Fund cross-invests or invests in units of an Investment Fund managed by the same management company or by an associated or related company, the manager of the scheme in which the investment is being made must waive the preliminary/initial/redemption charge which it is entitled to charge for its own account.

In respect of any cross-investment, the Manager shall not charge that portion of the management fee to which the Manager would be entitled in respect of that portion of a Fund's assets invested in other sub-funds of the Company.

7. ISSUE AND REDEMPTION OF SHARES

A Form of Shares

Shares in each Fund will be issued in registered form. Written confirmation of entry in the Shareholder Register will be despatched to the Shareholder named in the application form or in the case of joint holdings to the Shareholder who is first named in the Shareholder Register. Share certificates shall not be issued.

B Issue of Shares

The Shares in each Fund will be available for subscription on any Dealing Day, except where there is a suspension of issues and redemptions.

All investors seeking to subscribe for Shares in a particular Fund must submit an application form to the Registrar and Transfer Agent either:

- directly; or
- through a Recognised Clearing System (for onward transmission to the Registrar and Transfer Agent).

In order to subscribe for Shares in a Fund, applicants must first open an account with the Registrar and Transfer Agent and in order to do so, applicants must complete the initial subscription application form (available from the Registrar and Transfer Agent or the Manager) and send it promptly by post, delivery or fax (with the original signed form and supporting documentation in relation to anti-money laundering checks to follow immediately) to the Registrar and Transfer Agent. An applicant's initial subscription will be effected on the next Dealing Day falling after the investor's account with the Registrar and Transfer Agent has been opened.

Following an investor's initial subscription for Shares, each Shareholder will be required to complete an additional subscription form (available from the Registrar and Transfer Agent or the Manager) for subsequent subscriptions for Shares, and send it promptly by post, delivery or fax (with the original signed form and supporting documentation in relation to anti-money laundering checks to follow immediately, if required) to the Registrar and Transfer Agent to be received no later than the Dealing Deadline.

Alternatively, subsequent subscriptions for Shares may also be posted by electronic dealing, such as SWIFT (an "Electronic Application"), without a requirement to submit original documentation, and subject to prior agreement with the Registrar and Transfer Agent, for onward transmission to the Registrar and Transfer Agent, but to the exclusion of unsecured or deemed unsecured media such as e-mail. Electronic Applications must be received by the Registrar and Transfer Agent by the Dealing Deadline in respect of the relevant Dealing Day as set out in the applicable Leaflet. Investors will not be obliged to deal by way of Electronic Application.

The Registrar and Transfer Agent or the Manager reserve the right to refuse any means of communication they would consider as not sufficiently secure or, alternatively, not technically feasible. Amendments to an investor's registration details and payment instructions will only be effected on receipt of original documentation or appropriately secure electronic instruction.

Applications not received or incorrectly completed applications received by the Registrar and Transfer Agent by the times stipulated above shall be automatically held over and applied on the next following applicable Dealing Day or until such time as a properly completed application form is received by the Registrar and Transfer Agent on the date on which it is processed. The Manager may, in exceptional circumstances, accept applications for Shares for a Dealing Day after the Dealing Deadline provided that such applications are received before the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day. The Manager will determine whether the circumstances are exceptional and the rationale for this decision will be documented.

Subscription monies must be received by the Registrar and Transfer Agent, for the account of the relevant Fund, by no later than, (a) in the case of a subscription being made during the initial offer period for a particular Share Class, the date on which the initial offer period closes, and (b) thereafter, once the initial offer period for the relevant Share Class has closed, within three Business Days of the relevant Dealing Deadline (or such longer period as the Manager may determine). Details in relation to the initial offer period and the Dealing Deadline for each Fund shall be set out in the applicable Leaflet.

If payment in full has not been received by the relevant times stipulated above, the Company and/or the Manager may cancel the allotment and the Shareholder shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company, the Manager, the Investment Manager, the Directors, the Registrar and Transfer Agent and the Depositary for any loss, cost or expense suffered by them as a result of a failure by the Shareholder to pay the subscription monies by the relevant time. In the event that the Manager and/or the Company is unable to recoup such amounts from the defaulting investor, the relevant Fund may incur losses or expenses in anticipation of receiving such amounts for which the relevant Fund, and consequently the Shareholders, may be liable.

Before subscribing for Shares, an applicant who is not Resident in Ireland or is an Exempt Irish Investor will be required to complete a declaration in a form prescribed by the Revenue Commissioners of Ireland. Such declaration will be included in the application form, which is available from the Registrar and Transfer Agent or the Manager.

Shareholders are required to notify the Registrar and Transfer Agent immediately of any change in information or their status with respect to the eligibility requirements described herein and in the application form and furnish the Registrar and Transfer Agent with whatever additional documents relating to such change as it may request.

The Manager may, in its discretion, reject any application for Shares in full or in part. Amounts paid to the Company in respect of subscription applications which are rejected (or, in the case of applications which are not accepted in full, the balance of the amount paid) will be returned to the applicant, subject to applicable law, at his/her own risk and expense without interest.

By submitting an application form to the Registrar and Transfer Agent, an investor makes an offer to subscribe for Shares which, once it is accepted, has the effect of a binding contract. Upon the issue of Shares, a prospective investor will become a Shareholder. Pursuant to its terms, the application form is governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of Ireland.

The Subscription Price is the Net Asset Value per Share, subject to the possible addition of the subscription charge referred to in Section 6I and a rounding (which may be upwards) of the resulting total by not more than 1%, at which the Shares will be allotted on the Dealing Day.

The minimum initial subscription that may apply in respect of each Share Class within each Fund is set out in the Leaflet for the relevant Fund. The minimum initial subscription amount shall not apply to an investment which has been made by the Manager, the Investment Manager or related group companies or any investment fund managed by the Manager, the Investment Manager or related group companies.

The relevant Net Asset Value per Share for these purposes is the Net Asset Value per Share calculated by the Manager as at the Valuation Point in respect of the relevant Dealing Day.

If the Manager and the Depositary are satisfied that the terms of an exchange are not such as are likely to result in any material prejudice to existing Shareholders, the Manager may, in their absolute discretion, allot Shares on terms providing for settlement to be made by the vesting in the Depositary on behalf of the Company of any securities, bonds or other assets of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situate that may be acquired by the Company in conformity with the UCITS Regulations and the investment objective and investment policy and any investment restrictions of each Fund as determined from time to time by the Manager. The value of the securities to be vested in the Company shall be determined by the Manager on the same basis as that provided for the Articles of Association for determining the Net Asset Value of a Fund. For the avoidance of doubt, Article 15(6)(a) of the Articles of Association provides that, in determining the number of Shares to be issued in exchange for the vesting in the Depositary on behalf of the Company of securities, bonds or other assets, the Subscription Price for such Shares shall be determined in accordance with the provisions setting out how the Subscription Price is determined generally. For the avoidance of doubt, the number of Shares issued shall not exceed the number that would have been issued for the cash equivalent.

Where any subscription monies are not an exact multiple of the Subscription Price per Share of the Fund applied for, a fraction of a Share may be issued at the discretion of the Registrar and Transfer Agent.

The issue of Shares may be suspended in the circumstances mentioned in Section 7F of this Prospectus.

Any reference in this Prospectus to the registered address of a Shareholder shall be to their address as shown in the Shareholder Register of the Company, or in the case of joint Shareholders, the address shown therein for the first named of such Shareholders.

Subscription Prices will be published in the manner described in Section 14 and will be available on request from the Manager, whose determination of the Subscription Price shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

In respect of subscription proceeds received in advance of the relevant Dealing Day and until such time as the Shares have been issued to the investor, in the event of the Company or the relevant Fund becoming insolvent, the investor will rank as a general unsecured creditor of the Company or relevant Fund in respect of such subscription proceeds.

Subscriptions via a Recognised Clearing System

This paragraph is relevant for investors who wish to subscribe for Shares in the Company through a Recognised Clearing System.

The Recognised Clearing System may provide a nominee service for investors purchasing Shares through them and investors may elect to make use of such service pursuant to which the nominee will hold Shares in its name for and on behalf of the investors.

Shares may be issued to and registered in the name of a Recognised Clearing System (or its nominee) nominated by or on behalf of an investor, or third party nominee service provider, as the case may be, that is recognised and accepted by the Manager.

Full instructions (regarding subscription and payments processes) in respect of subscriptions via a Recognised Clearing System may be obtained from the Recognised Clearing System. It is important to note that investors subscribing through a Recognised Clearing System shall be bound by the terms of the Prospectus.

C. Redemptions of Shares

Shares may be redeemed on any Dealing Day save in circumstances where the Directors have declared a temporary suspension of redemptions.

In order to redeem all or part of their holding of Shares, a Shareholder must deliver a request for redemption to the Registrar and Transfer Agent by the Dealing Deadline either:

- directly; or
- through a Recognised Clearing System (for onward transmission to the Registrar and Transfer Agent).

Redemption requests may be sent by post, delivery or fax (with the original to follow promptly) but redemption proceeds will not be remitted until the Registrar and Transfer Agent has received the original application form used for the initial subscription and any relevant anti-money laundering documentation. Redemption requests may also be submitted by way of Electronic Application, without a requirement to submit original documentation, and subject to prior agreement with the Registrar and Transfer Agent, for onward transmission to the Registrar and Transfer Agent, but to the exclusion of unsecured or deemed unsecured media such as e-mail.

Redemption requests must be received in advance of the relevant Dealing Deadline. Redemption requests received after the Dealing Deadline shall automatically be held over and applied on the next following applicable Dealing Day. The Manager may, in exceptional circumstances, accept redemption requests after the relevant Dealing Deadline provided that they are received before the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day in respect of the relevant Fund. The Manager will determine whether the circumstances are exceptional and the rationale for this decision will be documented.

A request for a partial redemption of Shares will be refused, or the holding may be redeemed in its entirety, if, as a result of such partial redemption, the aggregate net asset value of the Shares maintained by the Shareholder would be less than the Minimum Holding.

Settlement for redemptions will normally be made by telegraphic transfer or other form of bank transfer to the bank account of the Shareholder specified in the application form (at the Shareholder's risk), within ten Business Days of the relevant Dealing Deadline, provided the Registrar and Transfer Agent has received the correct redemption documentation, including all relevant anti-money laundering documentation. No payments to third parties will be effected.

Redemption proceeds will not be paid where an original signed application form and, where relevant, such other anti-money laundering documentation as is required in original format, has not been previously received from the investor. No redemption payment may be made from that holding until the original signed application form has been received from the Shareholder and all documentation required by the Registrar and Transfer Agent including any documents in connection with anti-money laundering procedures have been received and anti-money laundering procedures have been completed. Redemption requests will only be processed on receipt of faxed instructions where payment is made to a bank account on record. Where payment is to be made to a bank account not on record, the redemption request will be accepted by the Registrar and Transfer Agent if the redemption request is signed by an authorised signatory of the Shareholder. However, the redemption proceeds will not be released to the Shareholder until the bank account on record has been formally amended. Any amendments to an investor's registration details and payment instructions can only be effected upon receipt of original documentation. In addition, the Registrar and Transfer Agent or the Directors may refuse to process a redemption request unless proper information has been provided. The Registrar and Transfer Agent and the Directors shall be held harmless by the applicant against any loss arising as a result of such refusal. Any amendments to a Shareholder's registration details or payment instructions will only be effected upon receipt of original documentation by the Registrar and Transfer Agent.

In order for a request for redemption to be processed by the Registrar and Transfer Agent, a Shareholder will be required to acknowledge in the redemption request form that they understand that if they choose to give instructions by fax they do so at their own risk and that neither the Company (for and on behalf of the relevant Fund) nor any of its agents (including the Investment Manager and the Registrar and Transfer Agent) shall be under any obligation to verify the authenticity of any deal instructions sent by fax. The Shareholder will be required to indemnify the Company (for and on behalf of the relevant Fund) and its agents (including the Investment Manager and the Registrar and Transfer Agent) against all losses, costs, demands, expenses, actions, proceedings and claims incurred by any such persons or entities as a result of acting on such fax which they reasonably believed to be a valid instruction.

The Company and the Registrar and Transfer Agent will be required to withhold tax on redemption monies at the applicable rate unless it has received from the Shareholder a declaration as to status and residency in the form prescribed by the Revenue Commissioners of Ireland confirming that the Shareholder is either (i) not an Irish Resident, or (ii) an Exempt Irish Resident, in each case in respect of whom/which it is not necessary to deduct tax.

The Redemption Price is the Net Asset Value per Share, subject to the possible deduction from the resulting amount of a redemption charge referred to in Section 6J and a rounding (which may be downwards) of this amount by not more than 1%, at which the Shares will be redeemed on the Dealing Day.

The relevant Net Asset Value per Share for these purposes is the Net Asset Value per Share calculated by the Manager as at the Valuation Point in respect of the relevant Dealing Day.

The Manager is not bound to redeem on any Dealing Day more than 10% of the Net Asset Value of any one Fund. If the number of requests received exceeds that limit, the requests may be reduced proportionately.

Any request not redeemed in full on the first applicable Dealing Day following its receipt by the Registrar and Transfer Agent will be carried forward for redemption to each succeeding Dealing Day and will be treated pro rata with any requests received thereafter (i.e. the Company shall treat such requests as if they were received on each subsequent Dealing Day until all of the Shares to which the original request related have been redeemed).

If a Shareholder requests the redemption of part only of their holding of Shares in any Fund and such redemption would, if carried out, leave the Shareholder with less than the Minimum Holding in that Fund the Manager may, if it deems fit, redeem the whole of that Shareholder's holding of Shares in that Fund.

The Redemption Price of such Shares may be satisfied by the Company paying cash or, provided that the Directors or the Manager are satisfied that the terms of any exchange shall not be such as are likely to result in any material prejudice to any remaining Shareholders and with the agreement of the relevant Shareholder, by the Company making an in specie distribution, on such terms and conditions as the Directors and the Manager may specify, to such Shareholder of securities equalling the aggregate Redemption Price (or together with such cash payments when aggregated with the value of the securities being distributed as are equal to such Redemption Price). Where redemption of Shares is to be satisfied by an in specie distribution of securities held by the Company, the Depositary shall transfer such securities as the Manager or its authorised agents shall direct to the Shareholder as soon as practicable after the relevant Dealing Day. All costs and risks of such distribution shall be borne by such Shareholders. For the avoidance of doubt, the number of Shares distributed must not exceed the number that would have been distributed for the cash equivalent.

In respect of redemption proceeds that are unable to be paid and until such time as the redemption proceeds have been released to the investor, in the event of the Company or the relevant Fund becoming insolvent, the investor will rank as a general unsecured creditor of the Company or relevant Fund in respect of such redemption proceeds.

Redemption Prices will be published in the manner described in Section 14 and will be available on request from the Manager, whose determination of the Redemption Price shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

Redemptions via a Recognised Clearing System

Full instructions (regarding redemption and settlement processes) in respect of redemptions via a Recognised Clearing System may be obtained from a Recognised Clearing System.

D. Compulsory Redemption of Shares

The circumstances in which Shares may be compulsorily redeemed or transferred are set out below:

- (i) Shares may be compulsorily redeemed or transferred if it comes to the notice of the Manager that those Shares are being owned directly or beneficially by:

- (A) any person who is in breach of any law or requirement of any country or governmental authority; or
- (B) any person who shall belong to or be comprised within any class of persons from time to time determined by the Directors; or in circumstances where the status, standing or tax residence of the Company or the Fund is or may be prejudiced or the Company or the Fund may suffer any pecuniary disadvantage which it would not otherwise have suffered.

- (ii) The Directors may compulsorily redeem any holding of Shares in any Fund which falls below the Minimum Holding.
- (iii) The Directors shall have the power upon 30 days' notice to Shareholders of a Fund (or Share Class) to terminate that Fund (or Share Class) on any Dealing Day (i) if the Net Asset Value of the Fund falls to a level that, in the absolute discretion of the Directors, makes the Fund (or Share Class) cease to be economically viable or (ii) for any other reason that the Directors determine, in their absolute discretion, is in the best interests of the Shareholders of a particular Fund (or Share Class) as a whole. The Directors are also entitled to terminate any Fund (or Share Class) with the sanction of a special resolution of the holders of the Shares relating to that Fund (or Share Class).

E. Conversion of Shares

Shareholders may on any Dealing Day, convert all or part of their holding of Shares of any Class (the "Original Class") into Shares of another Class (the "New Class") by submitting a request to the Registrar and Transfer Agent in such form as the Registrar and Transfer Agent may require by no later than the Dealing Deadline that applies to the Shares being redeemed. Conversions will only be accepted where cleared funds and completed application forms (including any documents required in connection with anti-money laundering procedures) have been received in respect of the original subscriptions.

A Shareholder is not required to submit a new application form for the purchase of Shares in connection with a conversion.

$$NSH = \frac{OSH \times RP}{SP}$$

where NSH is the number of Shares of the New Class;
 OSH is the number of Shares of the Original Class specified in the conversion notice;
 RP is the Redemption Price of a Share of the Original Class;
 SP is the Subscription Price of a Share of the New Class.

The right to convert may be suspended in the circumstances mentioned in Section 7F below, and is conditional on the Company having sufficient available unissued share capital to enable the conversion to be implemented in the manner determined by the Directors.

If compliance with a request for the conversion of part only of a holding of Shares would leave the Shareholder with less than the Minimum Holding in respect of Shares of the Original Class or the New Class, the Directors may, if they think fit, refuse the request for conversion or convert the whole of that Shareholder's holding of Shares of the Original Class.

Where a Shareholder converts from one Fund to a different Fund and the Shares in the different Fund are designated as Shares of different Classes, Shares in the different Fund will be issued as Shares of the relevant Class, as applicable (whether or not the Shares in the original Fund were designated as Shares of different Classes). Where the Shares of the original Fund are designated as Shares of different Classes, and the Shareholder converts to a different Fund (the Shares of which are not designated as Shares of different Classes) the Shares will be issued of the single Class in the New Fund.

No charge shall be levied by the Company upon the Shareholder for any conversion of all or part of such Shareholder's holding of Shares of the Original Class into Shares of another Class.

F. Suspension of Issues, Redemptions and Conversions

The Directors may at any time declare a temporary suspension of issues, redemption or purchases and conversions of Shares or of any one or more Classes of Shares:

- (a) during any period when any Recognised Market on which a substantial part of the investments of the relevant Fund are quoted, listed or dealt in is closed otherwise than for ordinary holidays;
- (b) during any period when dealings on any such Recognised Market are restricted or suspended;
- (c) during the existence of any state of affairs as a result of which disposal of the investments or other assets of the relevant Fund cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be effected normally or without seriously prejudicing the interests of the holders of that Class of Shares;
- (d) during any breakdown in the means of communication normally employed in determining the value of net assets of the relevant Fund or when, for any other reason, the value of any assets of the relevant Fund cannot be promptly and accurately ascertained; or
- (e) during any period during which the Depositary is unable to repatriate funds required for making payments due on redemption of Shares or during which the realisation of investments or other assets or the transfer of funds involved in such realisation cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be effected at normal prices or normal rates of exchange.

Forthwith after the commencement of any suspension the Directors shall immediately and in any event within the same Business Day notify in writing the Central Bank and the competent authorities in the Member States in which the Company markets its Shares that such a suspension has been made.

Notice of any such suspension in respect of any Class of Shares will be given to any Shareholder tendering their Shares for redemption and will also if possible be published in such publication(s) as the Company has caused Subscription Prices and Redemption Prices to be published during the preceding six months, and notice will be similarly given upon the termination of such suspension.

Unless withdrawn, applications for subscription, redemption and conversion will be considered on the first Dealing Day following the termination of a suspension.

G. Settlement of Transactions through Euroclear/Clearstream, Luxembourg

Any transaction involving Shares referred to in this paragraph 7 may be effected through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, provided that any such transaction shall also conform to the rules and procedures for the time being of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, respectively.

H. Prevention of money laundering

Measures aimed at the prevention of money laundering will require an applicant to provide verification of identity, verification of address and source of funds to the Registrar and Transfer Agent.

The Registrar and Transfer Agent reserves the right to request such information as is necessary to verify the identity, address and source of funds of the applicant. This information may also include details as to the tax residency of an applicant together with relevant documentary evidence. Depending on the circumstances of each application, a detailed verification of the source of funds might not be required where (i) the investor makes payment from an account held in the investor's name at a recognised financial institution or (ii) the application is made through a recognised intermediary. These exceptions will only apply if the financial institution or intermediary referred to above is located within a country recognised in Ireland as having equivalent anti-money laundering regulations or satisfies other applicable conditions. In the event of delay or failure by the applicant to produce any information required for verification purposes, the Registrar and Transfer Agent may refuse to accept the application and all subscription monies. The Registrar and Transfer Agent may also refuse to process a redemption or pay out redemption proceeds if any requested information in original form is not received.

The Registrar and Transfer Agent will notify applicants if additional proof of identity is required. By way of example, an individual may be required to produce a copy of a current passport or national identification card (which should show the signature and date of birth of the individual applicant) together with evidence of the applicant's address, such as a copy of a utility bill or bank statement (no more than six months old). In the case of corporate applicants, this may require production of copies of all documentation including the certificate of incorporation (and any change of name), bye-laws, memorandum and articles of association (or equivalent), and authorised signatories list together with the names, occupations, residential and business addresses and dates of birth of all directors and beneficial owners. Detailed verification of directors' and substantial beneficial owners' identity and address may also be required.

Shares will not be issued until such time as the Registrar and Transfer Agent is satisfied with all the information and documentation (including all anti-money laundering verifications) that it has received from the applicant. This may result in Shares being issued on a Dealing Day subsequent to the Dealing Day on which an applicant initially wished to have Shares issued to him/her. It is further acknowledged that the Registrar and Transfer Agent shall be held harmless by the applicant against any loss arising as a result of the failure to process the subscription or pay out redemption proceeds if such information as has been requested by the Registrar and Transfer Agent has not been provided by the applicant. In addition, the Registrar and Transfer Agent will not pay out redemption proceeds until such time as the original of the application form used on initial subscription and any other documentation required by the Registrar and Transfer Agent, including all anti-money laundering documentation, is received by the Registrar and Transfer Agent and all anti-money laundering procedures have been completed. All such documentation must be received by the Registrar and Transfer Agent promptly.

8. VALUATIONS OF FUNDS

The Net Asset Value of Shares of each Fund (or each Class within that Fund, where applicable) will be determined, in the currency of designation of that Fund (or Class within that Fund, where applicable), by the Manager in accordance with the Articles of Association, and as summarised below, as at the Valuation Point for such Business Day. In order to determine the Net Asset Value per Share, the value of all securities and other assets held in the relevant Fund, as adjusted to take account of accrued income, less all the liabilities and accruals attributable to that Fund, will be divided by the total number of Shares of that Class in issue at the Valuation Point.

- (1) The Net Asset Values for each Fund (or attributable to each Class within that Fund) shall be determined separately by reference to the Fund appertaining to that Class of Shares and to each such determination the following provisions shall apply.
- (2) In respect of each Dealing Day the Net Asset Value of each Fund (and any Class within such Fund) shall be determined and shall be equal to the value as at the Valuation Point in respect of that Dealing Day of all the assets, less all the liabilities, of that Fund. The Net Asset Value attributable to each Class of Share of a Fund is divided by the number of Shares of such Class in issue to give the Net Asset Value attributable to each Share of such Class in that Fund.
- (3) The assets of a Fund shall be deemed to include:
 - (a) all cash in hand or on deposit, or on call including any interest accrued thereon;
 - (b) all bills, demand notes, promissory notes and accounts receivables;

- (c) all bonds, certificates of deposit, shares, stock, units in investment funds, debentures, debentures stock, subscription rights, warrants, options and other investments and securities owned and contracted for, (other than rights and securities issued by the Company);
 - (d) all stock and cash dividends and cash distributions which the Directors consider will be received by the Company in respect of the Fund but which have not yet been received by it but have been declared payable to stockholders of record on a date before the day as of which the assets are being valued;
 - (e) all interest accrued on any interest bearing securities forming part of the Fund; and
 - (f) all prepaid expenses relating to that Fund and a proportion of any prepaid expenses relating to the Company generally, such prepaid expenses to be valued and defined from time to time by the Directors.
- (4) Subject to the Act any expense or liability of the Company may be amortised over such period as the Manager (with the approval of the Auditors) may determine (and the Manager may at any time and from time to time determine with the approval of the Auditors to lengthen or shorten any such period), and the unamortised amount thereof at any time shall also be deemed to be an asset of the Company.
- (5) Assets shall be valued by the Manager as follows:
- (a) cash shall be valued at face value (plus accrued interest to the relevant Valuation Point) unless, in the opinion of the Manager, any adjustment is necessary in order to reflect the fair value thereof;
 - (b) save as otherwise herein provided, listed securities quoted or dealt in on a Recognised Market shall be valued: (i) in the case of bonds, at the closing mid-market price; and, (ii) in the case of equities, at the official closing price or, if the official closing price is not available, the last traded price; in each case on the Recognised Market on which these assets are traded or admitted for trading (being the Recognised Market which is the sole or in the opinion of the Manager the principal Recognised Market on which the investment in question is listed, quoted or dealt in). If such securities are dealt in on more than one Recognised Market, the relevant Recognised Market will be, in the sole opinion of the Manager, the main Recognised Market on which such securities in question are listed, quoted or dealt in or the Recognised Market the Manager determines provides the fairest criteria in a value of the relevant security. If, in the sole opinion of the Manager, the dealing price for the securities, calculated as at the Valuation Point is unavailable or not representative of the value of the securities, or in the context of unlisted securities or securities that are not quoted or dealt in on a Recognised Market, the value will be the probable realisation value, estimated with care and in good faith by the Manager or such competent person(s) as may be appointed by the Manager and approved for the purpose by the Depositary.

For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that activity occurs in any Recognised Market on which substantial assets (as determined by the Manager) of any Fund are listed, quoted or dealt in on a weekday or weekdays falling between the date of any Dealing Deadline and the relevant Dealing Day then the closing mid-market / official closing price or if not available the last traded price to be applied in determining the Net Asset Value of such assets shall be such closing mid-market / official closing price or if not available the last traded price at the Valuation Point in respect of the first weekday following the Dealing Deadline on which activity occurs in the Recognised Market in question;

- (c) forward foreign exchange contracts will be valued in accordance with paragraph (f) below, or, alternatively by reference to freely available market quotations. If such freely available market quotations are used, there is no requirement to have such prices independently verified or reconciled to the counterparty valuation on a monthly basis. As foreign exchange hedging may be utilised for the benefit of a particular Class of Shares within a Fund, its costs and related liabilities and/or benefits will be reflected in the Net Asset Value per Class for Shares of such Class;
- (d) exchange traded futures and options contracts (including index futures) shall be valued at the settlement price as determined by the market in question. If such market price is not available, the value shall be the probable realisation value estimated with care and in good faith by the Manager or such other competent person appointed by the Manager approved for the purpose by the Depositary;
- (e) derivative instruments dealt in on a market shall be calculated at the settlement price as determined by the market in question, provided that where it is not the practice of the relevant market to quote a settlement price or if such settlement price is not available for any reason, such value shall be the probable realisation value estimated with care and in good faith by the Manager or a competent person approved for the purpose by the Depositary;
- (f) where derivative instruments are not dealt in on a market, their value shall be the daily quotation from the counterparty and which will be verified on a weekly basis by a party independent of the counterparty and approved for the purpose by the Depositary. In accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, such contracts may also be valued using an alternative valuation, such value determined using an alternative valuation methodology which will be provided by the Company or a competent person appointed by the Company and approved by the Depositary. Where such contracts will be valued using an alternative valuation:
 - (i) the alternative valuation will be produced on a daily basis;
 - (ii) the Manager will follow international best practice and adhere to the principles on valuation of OTC instruments established by bodies such as IOSCO and AIMA;
 - (iii) the alternative valuation is that provided by a competent person appointed by the Manager and approved for the purpose by the Depositary, or a valuation by any other means provided that the value is approved by the Depositary; and

- (iv) the alternative valuation must be reconciled to the counterparty valuation on at least a monthly basis. Where significant differences arise these must be promptly investigated and explained.
 - (g) at any time when prices are not available in respect of assets listed, quoted or dealt in on a Recognised Market in each case on the Recognised Market on which these assets are traded or admitted for trading (being the Recognised Market which is the sole or in the opinion of the Manager the principal Recognised Market on which the investment in question is listed, quoted or dealt in), the value of the assets will be the probable realisation value estimated with care and in good faith by such competent person as may be appointed by the Manager and approved for the purpose by the Depositary;
 - (h) any investments or assets not listed, quoted or dealt in on a Recognised Market shall be valued at the probable realisation value as estimated with care and in good faith by such competent persons as may be appointed by the Manager and approved for the purpose by the Depositary;
 - (i) securities listed or traded on a Recognised Market but acquired or traded at a premium or at a discount outside or off the relevant market may be valued, taking into account the level of premium or discount at the date of the valuation with the approval of a competent person (approved for the purpose by the Depositary). The competent person (having been approved for the purpose by the Depositary) shall ensure that the adoption of such a procedure is justifiable in the context of establishing the probable realisation value of the security;
 - (j) the value of units or shares or other similar participation in any investment fund shall be valued at the latest bid price or, if unavailable, the last available net asset value as published by the investment fund;
 - (k) notwithstanding the foregoing the Manager may permit some other method of valuation to be used for any particular asset if they consider that such valuation better reflects the fair value of that asset, such other method to be approved for such purpose by the Depositary;
 - (l) the value of an asset may be adjusted by the Manager where such an adjustment is considered necessary to reflect the fair value in the context of currency, marketability, dealing costs and/or such other considerations which are deemed relevant.
- (6) Currencies or values in currencies other than in the currency of designation of a particular Fund shall be converted into the currency of designation of such Fund at the rate which the Manager, after consulting with, or in accordance with a method approved by, the Depositary, deems appropriate in the circumstances.

- (7) For the purpose of valuing the Company's assets as aforesaid the Manager may rely upon the opinions of any person(s) who appear to them to be competent to value assets by reason of any appropriate professional qualification or of experience of any relevant market. Such persons must be approved for the purpose by the Depositary.
- (8) The liabilities of a Fund shall be deemed to include all liabilities (including charges incurred on the acquisition and realisation of investments and such operating expenses referred to in Article 20(5)(c) of the Articles of Association that the Directors consider to be attributable to a particular Fund, and such amount as the Manager determines to provide in respect of contingent liabilities) of whatsoever kind and nature except liabilities represented by Shares in the Company. In determining the amount of such liabilities the Directors may calculate any liabilities on an estimated figure for yearly or other periods in advance and accrue the same in equal proportions over any such period. Where the Manager has created different Classes of Shares within a Fund and have determined that each Class will incur different levels of fees (the details of which shall be set out in a Leaflet to this Prospectus), the Net Asset Value per Class shall be adjusted in order to reflect such different levels of fees payable in respect of each Class.
- (9) Where Classes of Participating Shares denominated in different currencies are created within a Fund and currency hedging transactions are entered into in order to hedge any relevant currency exposure, such transactions will be clearly attributable to the relevant Class of Participating Shares and any costs and gains/losses of the hedging transactions will accrue solely to that Class of Shares. While it is not intended, overhedged or under-hedged positions may arise due to factors outside the control of the Company. If such circumstances do arise, the Company will keep positions under review to ensure that the leverage in respect of the relevant Fund does not exceed the limits set out in the relevant Leaflet for the Fund. Furthermore, the Manager will ensure that materially over-hedged or under-hedged positions will not be carried forward month to month. This strategy may substantially limit Shareholders of a Class of Participating Shares from benefiting if the currency in which that Class of Shares is denominated falls against the base currency of the relevant Fund and/or the currency in which the assets of the Fund are denominated.
- (10) The Net Asset Value of each Fund calculated pursuant to the Articles of Association, may be certified by the Manager or by any other person authorised to give such certificate by the Manager and any such certificate shall be binding and conclusive as to the Net Asset Value of such Fund in the absence of manifest error.

9. DIVIDENDS

The Accounting Date of the Company is 30 September in each year. Once the accounts for the period ending on the relevant Accounting Date have been finalised, the Directors will determine whether and to what extent dividends shall be paid in respect of each Fund and relevant proposals will be made to the annual general meeting of the Company. The Directors also have the power under the Articles of Association to declare interim dividends. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to there being distributable profits available, interim dividends declared and paid by the Fund may be in respect of previous financial years.

The dividend for any particular Class of Shares in a Fund shall be payable out of profits of that Fund available for distribution relating to those Classes designated as distribution share Classes. Profits, for these purposes, may be comprised of net income (income less expenditure) and net realised and unrealised gains (realised and unrealised gains less realised and unrealised losses) attributable to such share Classes. However, the Directors may elect to pay dividends out of net income only and shall not take net gains into account when determining any dividend that might be declared. Income for these purposes shall include, without limitation, interest income and dividend income and any other amounts treated as income in accordance with the accounting policies of the Company laid down from time to time.

Where the Directors determine that a dividend is payable, it will be payable in respect of those Classes of Shares within a Fund that have been designated as distributing Share Classes.

Dividends, when declared, will be paid within four months after the relevant Accounting Date by bank transfer to the Shareholders. Any dividend unclaimed after six years from the date when it first became payable shall be forfeited automatically and will revert to the relevant Fund without the necessity for any declaration or other action by the Company.

In respect of dividend amounts that are unable to be paid and until such time as such dividend amount has been paid to the Shareholder, in the event of the Company or the relevant Fund becoming insolvent, the Shareholder will rank as a general unsecured creditor of the Company or relevant Fund in respect of such a dividend amount.

10. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The Manager, the Investment Managers, the Depositary, the Registrar and Transfer Agent, and their affiliates, officers and shareholders (collectively the "Parties") are or may be involved in other financial investment and professional activities which will on occasion cause conflict of interest with the management of this Company. This includes the management of other funds, purchases and sales of securities, investment management counselling, brokerage services and serving as directors, officers, advisers, or agents of other funds or other companies, including companies in which the Company may invest. In particular, it is envisaged that the Manager and the Investment Managers may be involved in managing and/or advising other investment funds and accounts which may have similar or overlapping investment objectives to or with the Company. In addition, it is envisaged that the Investment Managers may, from time to time, be requested to provide valuations in respect of certain of the Company's assets in the calculation of the Net Asset Value of the Company. It should be noted that any fees payable to the Investment Managers will increase as the value of the Company increases. Each of the Parties and the Directors of the Company will respectively ensure that the performance of their respective duties will not be impaired by any such involvement that they may have and that any conflicts which may arise including the allocation of investment opportunities will be resolved fairly.

Any transaction carried out with the Company by the Manager, the Investment Managers, the Depositary, the Registrar and Transfer Agent, and/or associated or group companies of these will be carried out as if effected on normal commercial terms negotiated at arm's length. Transactions will be in the best interests of the Shareholders.

Transactions permitted will be subject to:

- (a) certified valuation by a person approved by the Depositary as independent and competent; or
- (b) execution on best terms on organised investment exchanges under their rules; or
- (c) where (a) and (b) are not practical, execution on terms which the Depositary is satisfied conform to the principle outlined in the previous paragraph.

The Depositary (or in the case of a transaction involving the Depositary, by the Directors) shall document how it complies with paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above. Where transactions are conducted in accordance with paragraph (c) above, the Depositary (or in the case of a transaction involving the Depositary, by the Directors) shall document its rationale for being satisfied that the transaction conforms with the requirements set out at paragraph (c) above.

11. TAXATION

The following is a summary of Irish tax matters relevant to investors, subscribing for, purchasing, holding, switching or disposing of Shares in the Company and is based on Irish law and the published practices of the Revenue Commissioners of Ireland at the date of this Prospectus. This summary does not consider all aspects of taxation which may be relevant to a prospective Shareholder in light of that particular Shareholder's circumstances. The information given does not constitute legal or tax advice and prospective investors should consult their own professional advisers as to the implications of their subscribing for, purchasing, holding, switching or disposing of Shares under the laws of the jurisdictions in which they may be subject to tax.

A. Taxation of the Company

The Directors have been advised that for as long as the Company is Resident in Ireland for taxation purposes the taxation of the Company is as set out below.

Residence of Company

The Company will be regarded as Resident in Ireland if its central and effective management and control is exercised in Ireland. The Directors of the Company will make every effort to ensure that the business of the Company will be conducted in such a manner as to ensure that it is Resident in Ireland.

Exemption from tax on income and gains

As an Investment Undertaking, the Company is not chargeable to Irish tax on income or gains arising to the Company save as described below in connection with gains arising on chargeable events.

Tax on chargeable events

Tax can arise on the happening of a “chargeable event” in relation to the Company. A chargeable event in relation to the Company includes the making of any payment on Shares to a Shareholder by the Company in respect of any distribution, encashment, redemption or repurchase, the appropriation or cancellation of Shares of a Shareholder by the Company, the transfer of Shares by a Shareholder, or the ending of a Relevant Period with respect to Shares held by a Shareholder.

A chargeable event does not include:

- an exchange by a Shareholder, effected by way of an arm’s length bargain where no payment is made to the Shareholder, of Shares in the Company for other Shares in the Company;
- an exchange by a Shareholder, effected by way of an arm’s length bargain where no payment is made to the Shareholder, of Shares representing one Fund for another Fund of the Company
- any transactions (which might otherwise be a chargeable event) in relation to Shares held in a Recognised Clearing System;
- A transfer by a Shareholder of the entitlement to a Share where the transfer is between spouses or civil partners and former spouses or civil partners, subject to certain conditions;
- the cancellation of Shares arising on a scheme of reconstruction or amalgamation within the meaning of section 739H(1) of the Taxes Act or a scheme of amalgamation within the meaning of section 739HA(1) of the Taxes Act of the Company or other Investment Undertaking(s) subject to certain conditions being fulfilled.

The Company will have no obligation to account for tax in relation to a chargeable event where:

- (i) the chargeable event occurs solely on account of an exchange of Shares arising on a “scheme of amalgamation” within the meaning of section 739D (8C) of the Taxes Act, subject to certain conditions being fulfilled;
- (ii) the chargeable event occurs solely on account of an exchange of Shares arising on a “scheme of migration and amalgamation” within the meaning of section 739D(8D) of the Taxes Act, subject to certain conditions being fulfilled; or
- (iii) the chargeable event occurs solely on account of a “scheme of migration” within the meaning of section 739D(8E) of the Taxes Act, subject to certain conditions being fulfilled;
- (iv) the chargeable event occurs in respect of a Shareholder who is :
 - (A) an Exempt Non-Resident Investor; or
 - (B) an Exempt Irish Investorat the time of the chargeable event;

(v) the chargeable event is the ending of a Relevant Period and:

- (A) immediately before the chargeable event the value of the number of Shares in the Company, in respect of which any gains arising would be treated as arising to the Company, on the happening of a chargeable event is less than 10% of the value of the total number of Shares in the Company at that time; and
- (B) the Company has made an election, in writing, to the Revenue Commissioners that it will make in respect of each year of assessment a statement (including where it is the case, a statement with a nil amount) to the Revenue Commissioners in electronic format approved by them, on or before 31 March in the year following the year of assessment, which specifies in respect of each Shareholder;
 - (1) the name and address of the Shareholder;
 - (2) the value at the end of the year of assessment of the Shares to which the Shareholder is entitled at that time; and
 - (3) such other information as the Revenue Commissioners may require.

The Company is obliged to notify the Shareholders concerned, in writing, if such an election has been made. Where a Shareholder receives such a notification, that Shareholder is deemed to be a chargeable person for the purposes of sections 951 and 1084 of the Taxes Act and is required to prepare and deliver to the Revenue Commissioners a return of income on or before the specified return date for that chargeable period. The return of income shall include the following details:

- (i) the name and address of the Company; and
- (ii) the gains arising on the chargeable event.

Where none of the relieving provisions outlined above have application, the Company is liable to account for Irish tax on gains arising on chargeable events as follows;

- (i) where the chargeable event relates to a Share held by a Shareholder that is a company and that company has made a declaration to the Company that it is a company and that declaration contains the Irish corporation tax reference number with respect to the company, Irish tax is payable at a rate of 25%; and
- (ii) where (i) above does not apply, Irish tax is payable at the rate of 41%.

To the extent that any tax is paid on a gain arising on a chargeable event that occurs solely as a consequence of the ending of a Relevant Period, such tax will be allowed as a credit or paid by the Company to the Shareholder on the happening of a subsequent chargeable event in connection with the relevant Shares in accordance with the provisions of section 739E of the Taxes Act.

If the Company becomes liable to account for tax if a chargeable event occurs, the Company shall be entitled to deduct from the payment arising on a chargeable event an amount equal to the appropriate tax and/or where applicable (including circumstances where no actual payment is made to a Shareholder, for example upon the ending of a Relevant Period), to appropriate or cancel such number of Shares held by the Shareholder or the beneficial owner of the Shares as are required to meet the amount of tax payable by that Shareholder. The relevant Shareholder shall indemnify and keep the Company indemnified against loss arising to the Company by reason of the Company becoming liable to account for tax on the happening of a chargeable event if no such deduction, appropriation or cancellation has been made.

Please see the “Taxation of Shareholders” section below dealing with the tax consequences for the Shareholders of chargeable events in respect of:

- (a) Shareholders who are neither Resident in Ireland nor Ordinarily Resident in Ireland; and
- (b) Shareholders who are either Resident in Ireland or Ordinarily Resident in Ireland.

Dividend Withholding Tax

Dividends received by the Company from companies that are Resident in Ireland may be subject to Irish dividend withholding tax, the current rate of which is set out in Annex II hereto. However, as an Investment Undertaking, the Company can make a declaration to the payer of the dividend in a prescribed form so as to enjoy exemption from this withholding tax.

As an Investment Undertaking, the Company is not required to deduct dividend withholding tax from dividend payments made to Shareholders.

Dividends received by the Company on shares issued by companies that are not Resident in Ireland may be subject to foreign withholding tax. Although Directors of the Company will make every effort to ensure that the business of the Company will be conducted in such a manner as to ensure that it is Resident in Ireland and the Company may therefore be treated as a resident of Ireland for the purposes of certain double taxation treaties to which Ireland is a party, there can be no assurance that treaty benefits will be granted to the Company so as to exempt or relieve foreign tax.

If the position changes in the future and the application of a lower rate results in a repayment to the Company the Net Asset Value will not be re-stated and the benefit will be allocated to the existing Shareholders rateably at the time of the repayment.

Stamp Duty

As an Investment Undertaking, no liability in respect of Irish stamp duty will arise in respect of the issue, redemption, sale, conversion, transfer or reissue of Shares in the Company. Where any subscription for or redemption of Shares is satisfied by the in specie transfer of Irish securities or other Irish property, Irish stamp duty may arise on the transfer of such securities or property.

Generally, no Irish stamp duty will be payable by the Company on the conveyance or transfer of stock or marketable securities provided that the stock or marketable securities in question have not been issued by a company incorporated in Ireland and provided that the conveyance or transfer does not relate to any immovable property situated in Ireland or any right over or interest in such property or to any stocks or marketable securities of a company (other than a company which is an Investment Undertaking or a Qualifying Company) which is incorporated in Ireland.

B. Taxation of the Shareholders

Capital Acquisitions Tax

A disposition of Shares may be subject to Irish capital acquisitions tax. However, as the Company is an Investment Undertaking, a disposition of Shares by a Shareholder is not liable to capital acquisitions tax provided that (a) at the date of the gift or inheritance, the donee or successor is neither domiciled nor ordinarily resident in Ireland for capital acquisitions tax purposes; (b) at the date of the disposition, either the Shareholder disposing of the Shares is neither domiciled nor ordinarily resident in Ireland for capital acquisitions tax purposes or the disposition is not subject to Irish law; and (c) the Shares are comprised in the gift or inheritance at the date of such gift or inheritance and at the valuation date.

A non-Irish domiciled donee or disponent will be treated as not resident or ordinarily resident in Ireland for the purpose of capital acquisitions tax at the relevant date unless that person has been Resident in Ireland for 5 consecutive years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment in which the date of the gift or inheritance falls and that person is either Resident in Ireland or Ordinarily Resident in Ireland on that date.

Shareholders who are neither Resident in Ireland nor Ordinarily Resident in Ireland

The Company will not have to deduct tax on the occasion of a chargeable event in respect of a Shareholder that is an Exempt Non-Resident Investor.

To the extent that a Shareholder is acting as an Intermediary on behalf of persons who are neither Resident in Ireland nor Ordinarily Resident in Ireland no tax will have to be deducted by the Company on the occasion of a chargeable event provided that the Intermediary has made a Relevant Declaration that they are acting on behalf of such persons and the Company is not in possession of any information which would reasonably suggest that the information contained therein is no longer materially correct.

Shareholders who are Exempt Non-Resident Investors will not generally be liable to Irish tax in respect of income from their Shares and gains made on the disposal of their Shares. However, a corporate Shareholder that holds Shares in connection with a trading branch or agency of that Shareholder in Ireland may be liable to Irish corporation tax on income from their Shares or gains made on disposals of the Shares.

Where tax is withheld by the Company, for example, because no Relevant Declaration has been filed with the Company by the Shareholder, Irish legislation does not provide for a refund of tax to a Shareholder other than in the following circumstances:

- (a) where the Company, within one year of the making of the return, obtains the Relevant Declaration and can prove to the satisfaction of the Revenue Commissioners that it is just and reasonable for such tax which has been paid, to be repaid to the Company; or
- (b) where a claim is made for a refund of Irish tax under section 189, 189A and 192 of the Taxes Act (relieving provisions relating to incapacitated persons, trusts in relation thereto and persons incapacitated as a result of drugs containing thalidomide).

Shareholders who are Resident in Ireland or Ordinarily Resident in Ireland

Exempt Irish Investors

The Company will not have to deduct tax on the occasion of a chargeable event in respect of a Shareholder that is an Exempt Irish Investor (provided that the Company is not in possession of any information which would reasonably suggest that the information contained in the Relevant Declaration is no longer materially correct).

Shareholders who are Exempt Irish Investors will not be subject to Irish tax on income from their Shares or gains made on the disposal of their Shares.

Courts Service

Additionally, where Shares are held by the courts service no tax is deducted by the Company on payments made to the courts service. The courts service will be required to operate the tax on payments to it by the Company when they allocate those payments to the beneficial owners.

Investors who are neither Exempt Non-Resident Investors nor Exempt Irish Investors

The Company will have to deduct tax on the occasion of a chargeable event in respect of a Shareholder that is neither an Exempt Non-Resident Investor nor an Exempt Irish Investor.

Where a Shareholder receives a payment from which appropriate tax has been deducted and that payment is correctly included in that Shareholder's tax return, no further tax is due.

Where a Shareholder is not a corporate body, is Resident in Ireland and receives a payment in respect of Shares from which tax has not been deducted, the income arising will be taxable at a rate of 41 per cent provided it is correctly included in that Shareholder's tax return.

Where a Shareholder is not a corporate body, is not Resident in Ireland but is Ordinarily Resident in Ireland and receives a payment in respect of Shares from which tax has not been deducted, the income arising may be taxable, and if so, at a rate of 41 per cent provided it is correctly included in that Shareholder's tax return.

Where a Shareholder is a corporate body that is Resident in Ireland and receives a payment in respect of Shares from which tax has not been deducted the income arising will generally be taxable at a rate of 25 per cent.

However,

- (a) where a Shareholder earns the income in the course of carrying on a trade in Ireland the Shareholder will be taxable on such income or gains as part of that trade, currently at a rate of 12.5 per cent with a set-off against that Shareholder's corporation tax liability for any tax deducted by the Company; and
- (b) where a Shareholder earns the income in the course of carrying on its business as a Qualifying Company the Shareholder will be taxable on such income as part of that business, currently at a rate of 25 per cent with a set-off against that Shareholder's corporation tax liability for any tax deducted by the Company.

Where a currency gain is made by a Shareholder on the disposal of their Shares, such Shareholder may be liable to capital gains tax in the year of assessment in which the Shares are disposed.

C. Shareholder Reporting

Pursuant to the provisions of section 891C of the Taxes Act and the Return of Values (Investment Undertakings) Regulations 2013, the Company is required to provide certain information to the Revenue Commissioners in relation to Shareholders other than "excepted unitholders" within the meaning of the relevant Regulations ("Excepted Shareholders").

The information to be provided to the Revenue Commissioners is in relation only to Shareholders other than Excepted Shareholders and includes:

- (a) the name, registered address, contact details and tax reference number of the Company;
- (b) the name, address, tax reference number and date of birth (if applicable) of each Shareholder that is not an Excepted Shareholder; and
- (c) the investment number and the value of the investment held by each Shareholder that is not an Excepted Shareholder.

Exempt Irish Investors and Exempt Non-Resident Investors would be Excepted Shareholders for this purpose.

Automatic Exchange of Information for Tax Purposes

Council Directive 2011/16/EU on Administrative Cooperation in the field of Taxation (as amended by Council Directive 2014/107/EU) ("DAC2") provides for the implementation among Member States (and certain third countries that have entered into information exchange agreements) of the automatic exchange of information in respect of various categories of income and capital and broadly encompasses the regime known as the Common Reporting Standard ("CRS") proposed by the OECD as a new global standard for the automatic exchange of information between tax authorities in participating jurisdictions.

Under the CRS, governments of participating jurisdictions are required to collect detailed information to be shared with other jurisdictions annually.

CRS is implemented in Ireland pursuant to the Returns of Certain Information by Reporting Financial Institutions Regulations 2015, S.I. 583 of 2015, made under Section 891F of the Taxes Act.

DAC2 is implemented in Ireland pursuant to the Mandatory Automatic Exchange of Information in the Field of Taxation Regulations of 2015, S.I. No. 609 of 2015 made under Section 891G of the Taxes Act.

Pursuant to these Regulations, the Company is required to obtain and report to the Revenue Commissioners annually certain financial account and other information for all non-Irish and non-U.S. new and existing accountholders in respect of their Shares. Such returns are required to be submitted to the Revenue Commissioners with respect to a calendar year on or before the following 30 June. The information includes amongst other things, details of the name, address, taxpayer identification number ("TIN"), place of residence and, in the case of accountholders who are individuals, the date and place of birth, together with details relating to payments made to accountholders and their holdings. This information may be shared with tax authorities in other Member States and jurisdictions which implement the CRS.

FATCA Implementation in Ireland

The FATCA provisions of the US Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act were enacted to identify US persons either directly investing outside the US or indirectly earning income inside or outside the US by using foreign entities.

The obligations of Irish financial institutions under FATCA are covered by the provisions of the Ireland/US Intergovernmental Agreement ("IGA") and the Financial Accounts Reporting (United States of America) Regulations 2014, as amended (the "Regulations"). Under the IGA and the Regulations, Irish financial institutions (as defined in the IGA) are required to report annually to the Revenue Commissioners details of its US account holders including the name, address and TIN and certain other details. The Company, in conjunction with assistance from its service providers where necessary, will endeavour to ensure that it satisfies any obligations imposed on it under the IGA and the Regulations.

The Company's ability to satisfy its obligations under the Regulations will depend on each Shareholder in the Company providing the Company with any information, including information concerning the direct or indirect owners of such Shareholders, that the Company determines is necessary to satisfy such obligations. Each Shareholder will agree in its application form to provide such information upon request from the Company. If the Company fails to satisfy its obligations under the Regulations, it may, in certain circumstances, be treated as a Non-Participating Financial Institution by the US Tax Authorities and therefore subject to a 30% withholding on its US source income and any proceeds from the sale of property that could give rise to US source income. Shareholders are encouraged to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the possible implications of FATCA on their interest in the Company.

12. MEETINGS AND REPORTS

Holders of Shares are entitled to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company. The Annual General Meeting will normally be held in Ireland within six months of the end of the financial year of the Company. Other general meetings may be held at such time and place as the Directors may determine.

Each financial period of the Company ends on 30 September in each year. Copies of the annual report containing the audited financial statements of the Company in respect of the preceding financial year will normally be sent at least 21 days prior to the Annual General Meeting to the registered address of each holder of registered Shares. Copies of the unaudited half-yearly reports for the period to 31 March in each year will also be available to each Shareholder upon request.

Annual accounts will be submitted to the Central Bank within four months of the end of the financial period to which it relates. Half-yearly accounts will be submitted within two months of the end of the financial period to which it relates.

On a show of hands, every holder of Shares who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote and, on a poll, every holder of Shares who is present in person or by proxy shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each Share held by them.

13. WINDING UP

The Company may be wound up by a special resolution of the Company passed at a general meeting of the Company. A special resolution requires at least 75% of the votes cast at the meeting to be voted in favour of the resolution in question. The winding up would be governed by the applicable provisions of the Act. The assets available for distribution among the holders of the Shares would be distributed in a winding up in accordance with their respective interests in the respective Funds. The Liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution, divide among the Shareholders in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, if the special resolution referred to above is passed, each Shareholder is entitled to elect on winding-up whether or not they wish to receive a distribution in specie or a distribution in cash. However, in the absence of a Shareholder electing to receive a distribution in specie on winding-up, such Shareholder shall receive their relevant distribution in cash in accordance with their respective interests in the relevant Funds.

14. PUBLICATION OF PRICES

Subscription and Redemption Prices shall be published on <https://fondsfinder.universal-investment.com> on each Dealing Day and may be published on Reuters or Bloomberg, www.Fundinfo.com in Switzerland and in such other publication(s) or such electronic media, as the Manager may from time to time consider appropriate and notify in advance to Shareholders, and will be available on request from the Manager, whose determination of the Subscription and Redemption Prices shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

Details of the other electronic media which may be used can be obtained from the Manager or its agent. Where Subscription and Redemption Prices are published by way of electronic media, such Subscription and Redemption Prices shall be kept up to date.

15. UMBRELLA FUND CASH ACCOUNTS

In connection with the processing of subscriptions, redemptions, distributions or other relevant payments to or from investors or Shareholders, the Company may establish or operate one or more umbrella fund cash accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank. Any balances on such accounts shall belong to the Company or the relevant Fund and are not held on trust on behalf of any investors or Shareholders or any other persons.

Cash subscriptions received in advance of the relevant Dealing Day will be treated as an asset of the relevant Fund in cash in an umbrella fund cash account until the relevant Dealing Day, at which time the Shares will be issued and the investor will become a Shareholder in the relevant Fund. In respect of such subscription proceeds received in advance of the relevant Dealing Day and until such time as the Shares have been issued to the investor, in the event of the Company or the relevant Fund becoming insolvent, the investor will rank as a general unsecured creditor of the Company or relevant Fund in respect of such subscription proceeds.

Should the Company be unable to issue Shares to an investor who has paid the requisite subscription amount to the Company but has yet to provide the Company or the Registrar and Transfer Agent with all requisite information or documentation in order to verify the investor's identity, the Depositary shall ensure that in the event that such subscription proceeds cannot be applied, it will return such subscription proceeds to the relevant investor within five working days.

The Company may temporarily borrow an amount equal to a subscription amount, subject to a Fund's borrowing limits as set out in this Prospectus, and invest the amount borrowed in accordance with the investment objective and policies of the Fund. Once the required subscription monies have been received, the Company will use this to repay the borrowings. In the event of any delay in the settlement of the investor's subscription monies, the Company reserves the right to charge that Shareholder for any interest or other costs incurred by the Company as a result of this borrowing. If the Shareholder fails to reimburse the Company for those charges, the Company will have the right to sell all or part of the investor's holdings of Shares in the Fund in order to meet those charges and/or to pursue that Shareholder for such charges.

In respect of a dividend payment declared and owing to a Shareholder that is unable to be paid for any reason whatsoever, such as, for example, if the relevant Shareholder has not provided the requisite information or documentation to the Company or the Registrar and Transfer Agent, such distribution amount will be treated as an asset of the relevant Fund in cash in an umbrella fund cash account until such time as the reason for the Company or the Registrar and Transfer Agent being unable to pay the distribution amount to the relevant Shareholder has been addressed, at which point the Company or the Registrar and Transfer Agent shall pay the distribution amount to the Shareholder. In this regard, the relevant Shareholder should seek to promptly address the reason for the Company or the Registrar and Transfer Agent being unable to pay the distribution amount to the relevant Shareholder. In respect of such distribution amounts that are unable to be paid and until such time as such distribution amount has been paid to the Shareholder, in the event of the Company or the relevant Fund becoming insolvent, the Shareholder will rank as a general unsecured creditor of the Company or relevant Fund in respect of such a distribution amount.

In respect of a redemption request, the Company or the Registrar and Transfer Agent may refuse to remit the redemption proceeds until such time as the Shareholder has provided the requisite information or documentation to the Company or the Registrar and Transfer Agent, as requested by the Company or the Registrar and Transfer Agent from time to time. In such circumstances, the Registrar and Transfer Agent will process the redemption request received by the Shareholder, at which point in time the Shareholder will no longer be considered a Shareholder of the relevant Fund and the proceeds of that redemption shall be treated as an asset of the relevant Fund in cash in an umbrella fund cash account until such time as the Company or the Registrar and Transfer Agent has received all requisite information or documentation and has verified the Shareholder's identity to its satisfaction, following which the redemption proceeds will be released. In this regard, the relevant Shareholder should seek to promptly address the reason for the Company or the Registrar and Transfer Agent being unable to pay the redemption proceeds to the relevant Shareholder. In respect of such redemption proceeds that are unable to be paid and until such time as the redemption proceeds have been released to the investor, in the event of the Company or the relevant Fund becoming insolvent, the investor will rank as a general unsecured creditor of the Company or relevant Fund in respect of such redemption proceeds.

For information on the risks associated with umbrella fund cash accounts, see "Risks Associated with Umbrella Fund Cash Accounts" in the section entitled "Risk Factors" below.

16. RISK FACTORS

General

The investments in the Funds are subject to normal market fluctuations and other risks inherent in investing in securities. The value of investments and the income from them and therefore the value of, and income from, the Shares in the Funds may go down as well as up and an investor may not get back the amount they invest. An investor who redeems Shares after a short period may, in addition, not realise the amount originally invested in view of any subscription charge or redemption charge made on the issue or redemption of Shares and accordingly the investment should be viewed as medium to long term.

Currency Risks

Each Fund's assets may, unless otherwise noted, be invested in securities denominated in currencies other than the relevant currency of such Fund and any income received by such Fund from its investments will be received in the currencies of such investments, some of which may fall in value against the relevant currency of such Fund. Each Fund will compute its Net Asset Value and make any distributions in the denomination of the Shares; there is therefore a currency exchange risk which may affect the value of the Shares to the extent that the Fund makes investments in currencies other than the relevant currency of the Fund.

Default Risk

Investments in fixed income securities, specifically those which are rated below Investment Grade, are subject to the risk that the issuer could default on its obligations and a Fund could sustain losses on such investments. Each Fund will seek to limit such risks by in-depth credit research and careful securities selection but there can be no assurance that a Fund will not acquire securities with respect to which the issuer subsequently defaults.

Below Investment Grade debt securities are speculative and involve a greater risk of default and price changes due to changes in the issuer's creditworthiness. The market prices of these debt securities fluctuate more than Investment Grade debt securities and may decline significantly in periods of general economic difficulty.

The value of a Fund's assets may be affected by uncertainties such as changes in government policies, taxation, currency repatriation restrictions and other developments in the law or regulations of the countries in which a Fund may invest. Legal risk is the risk of loss due to the unexpected application of a law or regulation, or because contracts are not legally enforceable or documented correctly.

Derivatives Risk

A Fund may employ various investment techniques, such as futures, forwards and options (together "derivatives") in order to afford the protection of capital or the enhancement of investment returns. These derivative positions may be executed either on-exchange or over-the-counter. The primary risks associated with the use of such derivatives are (i) failure to predict accurately the direction of the market movements; (ii) market risks, for example, lack of liquidity or lack of correlation between the change in the value of the underlying asset and that of the value of the Fund's derivatives; and (iii) to the extent that a Fund may invest in over-the-counter derivatives transactions, credit risk with regard to parties with whom it trades and the risk of settlement default. These techniques may not always be possible or effective in enhancing returns or mitigating risk.

A Fund's investments in over-the-counter derivatives are subject to the risk of counterparty default. In addition, a Fund may have to transact with counterparties on standard terms which it may not be able to negotiate. A Fund's investments in derivatives may also be subject to legal risk. Legal risk is the risk of loss due to the unexpected application of a law or regulation, or because contracts are not legally enforceable or documented correctly.

Furthermore, investors should be aware of the following particular risks which arise as a result of a Fund's investment policy with respect to employing FDIs:

Counterparty Risk

Many of the markets in which the Investment Manager may effect its transactions in respect of a Fund are "over-the-counter" or "inter-dealer" markets. The participants in such markets are typically not subject to credit evaluation and regulatory oversight as are members of "exchange-based" markets. This exposes the relevant Fund to the risk that a counterparty will not settle a transaction due to a credit or liquidity problem, thus causing the Fund to suffer a loss. In addition, in the case of a default, the Fund could become subject to adverse market movements while replacement transactions are executed. Such "counterparty risk" is accentuated for contracts with longer maturities where events may intervene to prevent settlement, or where the Investment Manager has concentrated their transactions with a single counterparty or small group of counterparties. Other than as disclosed herein and in compliance with the UCITS Regulations, the Investment Manager is not restricted from dealing with any particular counterparty or from concentrating any or all of its transactions with one counterparty. Moreover, the Investment Manager has a limited internal credit function which evaluates the creditworthiness of its counterparties. The ability of the Investment Manager to transact business with any one or more counterparties and the absence of a regulated market to facilitate settlement may increase the potential for losses by the Fund.

Where a Fund delivers collateral to its trading counterparties under the terms of its ISDA master agreements and other trading master agreements, either by posting initial margin or on a daily mark-to-market basis, circumstances may arise where a counterparty may be over-collateralized and/or the Fund may from time to time have uncollateralized mark-to-market exposure to a counterparty in relation to its rights to receive securities and cash. In both circumstances, although counterparty risk with respect to the Fund will be monitored and measured in accordance with the UCITS Regulations, the Fund will be exposed to the creditworthiness of any such counterparty and, in the event of the insolvency of a trading counterparty, the Fund will rank as an unsecured creditor in relation to amounts equivalent to any such over-collateralization and any uncollateralized exposure to such trading counterparty. In such circumstances it is likely that the Fund will not be able to recover any debt in full, or at all.

A Fund may trigger events of default or termination events under various counterparty agreements due to, among other things, reductions in Net Asset Value. If the Fund is unable to obtain waivers from the relevant counterparties, such counterparties could exercise numerous remedies under the affected agreements, including of posted collateral and termination of outstanding trades.

Options

A Fund may buy or sell (write) both call options and put options. The relevant Fund's option transactions may be part of a hedging strategy or a form of leverage, in which the Fund has the right to benefit from price movements in a large number of securities with a small commitment of capital. These activities involve risks that can be substantial, depending on the circumstances. In options trading, the buyer of a call option assumes the risk of losing the premium invested in the option, and the buyer of a put option assumes the risk of losing the premium paid to purchase the put option. When the Fund buys an option, a decrease (or inadequate increase) in the price of the underlying security in the case of a call, or an increase (or inadequate decrease) in the price of the underlying security in the case of a put, could result in a total loss of the Fund's investment in the option (including commissions). The Fund could mitigate those losses by selling short, or buying puts on, the securities as to which it holds call options, or by taking a long position in securities underlying put options. If the option is on a future, the purchaser will acquire a futures position with associated liabilities for margin.

Selling ("writing" or "granting") an option generally entails considerably greater risk than purchasing options. Although the premium received by the seller is fixed, the seller may sustain a loss well in excess of that amount. The seller will be liable for additional margin to maintain the position if the market moves unfavourably. The seller will also be exposed to the risk of the purchaser exercising the option, and, upon such exercise, the seller will be obligated to either settle the option in cash or to acquire or deliver the underlying interest, depending on the terms of the option. If the option is on a future, upon exercise by the purchaser of the option, the seller will acquire a position in a future with associated liabilities for margin. In the case of an option on a future, certain exchanges in some jurisdictions permit deferred payment of the option premium, exposing the purchaser to liability for margin payments not exceeding the amount of the premium. The purchaser is still subject to the risk of losing the premium and transaction costs. When the option is exercised or expires, the purchaser is responsible for any unpaid premium outstanding at that time.

The options markets have the authority to prohibit the exercise of particular options, which if imposed when trading in the option has also been halted, would lock buyers and writers of that option into their positions until one of the two restrictions has been lifted.

Futures Trading

A Fund may utilise futures contracts and options thereon. Futures prices are highly volatile, with price movements being influenced by a multitude of factors such as supply and demand relationships, government trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control policies, political and economic events in the marketplace. Futures markets are subject to comprehensive statutes, regulations and margin requirements. Further, futures trading may be illiquid as a result of daily limits on movements of prices, while the Fund's futures trading could be adversely affected by speculative position limits.

A Fund may open a futures position by placing with a futures commission merchant an initial margin that is small relative to the value of the futures contract, making the transaction "leveraged". If the market moves against the Fund's position or margin levels are increased, the Fund may be called upon to pay substantial additional funds on short notice to maintain its position. If the Fund were to fail to make such payments, its position could be liquidated at a loss, and the Fund would be liable for any resulting deficit in its account.

Forward Contracts

A Fund may trade forward contracts in the interbank currency market. Such forward contracts are not traded on exchanges; rather, banks and dealers act as principals in these markets, negotiating each transaction on an individual basis.

In general, governmental authorities do not regulate trading in forward contracts; there is no limitation on daily price movements and speculative position limits are not applicable. The principals who deal in the forward markets are not required to continue to make markets in the currencies or commodities they trade and these markets can experience periods of illiquidity, sometimes of significant duration. There have been periods during which certain participants in these markets have refused to quote prices for certain currencies or commodities or have quoted prices with an unusually wide spread between the price at which they were prepared to buy and that at which they were prepared to sell. Disruptions can occur in any market traded by the Fund due to unusually high trading volume, political intervention or other factors. The imposition of controls by governmental authorities might also limit such forward trading to less than that which the Investment Manager would otherwise recommend, to the possible detriment of the Fund. Market illiquidity or disruption could result in major losses to the Fund.

Highly Volatile Derivative Instruments

The prices of derivative instruments, including options, are highly volatile. Price movements of forward contracts and other derivative contracts in which a Fund's assets may be invested are influenced by, among other things, interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programs and policies of governments, and national and international political and economic events and policies. In addition, governments from time to time intervene, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly those in currencies and financial instrument options. The relevant Fund is also subject to the risk of the failure of any of the exchanges on which its positions trade or of their clearing houses.

Leverage Risk

A Fund's use of leverage and derivative instruments can result in certain additional risks. Leveraged investments, by their nature, increase the potential loss to investors resulting from any depreciation in the value of such investments. Consequently, a relatively small price movement in the security underlying a leveraged instrument may result in a substantial loss to the Fund.

Liquidity Risk

It is likely that below Investment Grade securities may offer less liquidity than Investment Grade securities. Accordingly, there may be no readily available market for the timely liquidation of certain investments made by the Funds in such investments.

Yield and Market Risk

Investments in fixed income securities entail certain risks including adverse income fluctuation associated with general economic conditions affecting the fixed income securities market, as well as adverse interest rate changes and volatility of yields. When interest rates decline, the market value of a Fund's fixed income securities can be expected to rise. Conversely, when interest rates rise, the market value of a Fund's fixed income securities can be expected to decline.

Cross Liability between Funds

The Company is established as a segregated portfolio company. As a matter of Irish law, the assets of one Fund will not be available to satisfy the liabilities of another. However, the Company is a single legal entity which may operate or have assets held on its behalf or be subject to claims in other jurisdictions which may not necessarily recognise such segregation. There is no guarantee that the courts of any jurisdiction outside Ireland will respect the limitations on liability associated with segregated portfolio companies nor is there any guarantee that the creditors of one Fund will not seek to enforce such Fund's obligations against another Fund.

Risks Associated with Umbrella Fund Cash Accounts

An umbrella fund cash account will operate in respect of the Company rather than a relevant Fund and the segregation of investor monies from the liabilities of Funds other than the relevant Fund to which the investor monies relate is dependent upon, among other things, the correct recording of the assets and liabilities attributable to individual Funds by or on behalf of the Company.

In the event of an insolvency of a Fund, there is no guarantee that the Fund will have sufficient monies to pay unsecured creditors (including the investors entitled to investor monies) in full.

Monies attributable to other Funds will also be held in the umbrella fund cash accounts. In the event of the insolvency of a Fund (an "Insolvent Fund"), the recovery of any amounts to which another Fund (the "Beneficiary Fund") is entitled, but which may have transferred in error to the Insolvent Fund as a result of the operation of the umbrella fund cash account, will be subject to applicable law and the operational procedures for the umbrella fund cash account. There may be delays in effecting, and/or disputes as to the recovery of, such amounts, and the Insolvent Fund may have insufficient funds to repay amounts due to the Beneficiary Fund.

In the event that an investor fails to provide the subscription monies and all requisite documentation associated with its subscription application within the timeframe stipulated in the applicable Leaflet, the investor will be required to indemnify the Fund against the liabilities that may be incurred by it. The Directors may cancel any Shares that have been issued to the investor and charge the investor interest and other expenses incurred by the relevant Fund. In the event that the Company is unable to recoup such amounts from the defaulting investor, the relevant Fund may incur losses or expenses in anticipation of receiving such amounts, for which the relevant Fund, and consequently its Shareholders, may be liable.

It is not expected that any interest will be paid on the amounts held in the umbrella fund cash account. Any interest earned on the monies in the umbrella fund cash account will be for the benefit of the relevant Fund and will be allocated to the Fund on a periodic basis for the benefit of the Shareholders at the time of the allocation.

Cyber Security Risk

Cyber security breaches may occur allowing an unauthorised party to gain access to assets of the Funds, the Shareholder data, or proprietary information, or may cause the Company, the Investment Manager, the Depositary or the Registrar and Transfer Agent to suffer data corruption or lose operational functionality.

The Funds may be affected by intentional cyber security breaches which include unauthorised access to systems, networks, or devices (such as through “hacking” activity); infection from computer viruses or other malicious software code; and attacks that shut down, disable, slow, or otherwise disrupt operations, business processes, or website access or functionality. In addition, unintentional incidents can occur, such as the inadvertent release of confidential information (possibly resulting in the violation of applicable privacy laws). A cyber security breach could result in the loss or theft of Shareholder data (including information in relation to identity) or funds, the inability to access electronic systems, loss or theft of proprietary information or corporate data, physical damage to a computer or network system, or costs associated with system repairs. Such incidents could cause the Company, the Investment Manager, the Depositary, the Registrar and Transfer Agent or other service providers to incur regulatory penalties, reputational damage, additional compliance costs, or financial loss. Consequently, such incidents could have a material adverse effect on a Fund. In addition, such incidents could affect issuers in which a Fund invests, and thereby cause a Fund’s investments to lose value, as a result of which investors, including the relevant Fund and its Shareholders, could potentially lose all or a portion of their investment with that issuer.

Data Protection Risk

In order to maintain security and to prevent processing in infringement of Data Protection Law, the Manager, the Company and the Registrar and Transfer Agent where acting as a “data controller” are each required to evaluate the risks inherent in the processing and implement measures to mitigate those risks, such as encryption. Such measures are required to ensure an appropriate level of security, including confidentiality, taking into account the state of the art and the costs of implementation in relation to the risks and the nature of the personal data to be protected. Potential investors and Shareholders should be aware that certain data security risks can arise by processing of personal data, such as accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data transmitted, stored or otherwise processed which may in particular lead to physical, material or non-material damage. There may be instances where processing operations by Manager, the Company and/or the Registrar and Transfer Agent are likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of potential investors or shareholders, however, the relevant data controller will be responsible for the carrying out of a data protection impact assessment to evaluate, in particular, the origin, nature, particularity and severity of any such risk. A personal data breach may, if not addressed in an appropriate and timely manner, result in physical, material or non-material damage to potential investors or Shareholders such as loss of control over their personal data or limitation of their rights, discrimination, identity theft or fraud, financial loss, damage to reputation, loss of confidentiality of personal data protected by professional secrecy or any other significant economic or social disadvantage to the natural person concerned and/or to the Company.

Changes in the UK Political Environment

The terms of any withdrawal of the UK's membership from the European Union (also known as 'Brexit') and the on-going relationship between the UK and the European Union post-Brexit remains uncertain and this uncertainty may impact on the Company and/or the financial markets within which it operates.

Brexit has led to political, legal, tax and economic uncertainty. This may impact on the general economic conditions in the UK and various other countries. It is not yet clear whether and to what extent EU regulations may remain applicable or may be replaced by different UK regulations with respect to the activities of any UK service provider or counterparty utilised by the Company following Brexit or what legal or cooperation arrangements the UK may put in place with the European Union as a result of Brexit. Investors should be aware that Brexit and any associated arrangements, negotiations and notifications and any associated changes to legislation or regulation may introduce potentially significant new uncertainties and instabilities in the financial markets. These uncertainties and instabilities could have an adverse impact on the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Company and certain of its service providers and counterparties, and could therefore also be detrimental to Shareholders.

Brexit may also adversely affect the ability of UK service providers or UK counterparties to access markets, make investments or enter into agreements (on either their own behalf or on behalf of the Company or a Fund), or continue to work with non-UK counterparties and service providers, all of which may result in increased costs to the Company and/or a Fund. It is possible that UK investors in the Company may be subject to fewer regulatory protections than would otherwise be the case post-Brexit and UK based investors may no longer be allowed to invest in a Fund or may suffer negative consequences from an investment in a Fund.

MiFID II

The package of European Union market infrastructure reforms known as "MiFID II" (Markets in Financial Instruments Directive 2014/65/EU), which entered into effect on 3 January 2018, increases regulation of trading platforms and firms providing investment services, including the Investment Managers.

Among its many reforms, MiFID II has brought in significant changes to pre- and post-trade transparency obligations in respect of financial instruments admitted to trading on EU trading venues, including a new transparency regime for non-equity financial instruments; an obligation to execute transactions in shares and derivatives on a regulated trading venue; and a new focus on regulation of algorithmic and high frequency trading. These reforms may lead to a reduction in liquidity in certain financial instruments, as some of the sources of liquidity exit European markets, and an increase in transaction costs, and, as a consequence, may have an adverse impact on the ability of the Investment Managers to execute the investment program effectively.

New rules requiring unbundling the costs of research and other services from dealing commission and further restrictions on the Investment Manager's ability to receive certain types of goods and services from brokers may result in an increase in the investment-related expenditure of the Company and/or negatively impact the Investment Manager's ability to access investment research.

Pandemic could result in adverse performance of the Funds

A new strain of coronavirus, COVID-19, has quickly spread, resulting in severe illness and, in some cases, death. The spread of COVID-19 has adversely affected markets and world economies. Continued proliferation of COVID-19 may adversely affect the Funds and/or the Unitholders, which could be more or less adverse depending on, among other things: geographical range, infection rates, severity and mortality of the virus; the types of measures taken by governments and private organisations to prevent the spread of the virus; the timing and efficacy of a vaccine; and the effect of the virus on global markets and interest rates. Early responses have included quarantines or bans on public events, each of which can adversely affect commerce, spending, local economies and businesses dependent on transportation and personal interaction. COVID-19 has been declared a pandemic by The World Health Organisation and U.S. Center for Disease Control which could lead to unforeseeable negative consequences to the Funds, including the suspension of the Net Asset Value calculation of the Funds and the suspension of subscriptions, redemptions and/or switches in respect of the Funds.

EMERGING MARKETS' RISK FACTORS

The Company wishes to draw attention to the following risk factors associated with investment in Emerging Markets.

A. Political Risk

Investment by the Company in the Emerging Markets may be adversely affected by requirements for approvals, which may be delayed or denied, restrictions on investment and repatriation of investment proceeds, and changes in government policies, regulation, and taxation.

B. Regulation and Reporting Risks

Government regulation and supervision of stock markets, brokers and listed enterprises in certain of the Emerging Markets may not be as extensive as in the countries of the world's leading stock markets.

Furthermore, accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards, practices and disclosure requirements in such countries are not comparable to those applicable to companies quoted on the world's leading stock markets.

C. Currency Risks

Investments in the Emerging Markets may be made in a variety of currencies, whereas the Net Asset Value of the Company at any time will be computed in Euro. Accordingly, the value of these investments may be affected favourably or unfavourably by currency exchange rates and exchange control regulations, although the Company may seek to minimise exposure to currency fluctuation to the extent practicable.

D. Market Risks

Trading volumes in stock markets in the Emerging Markets can be significantly lower than on the world's leading stock markets and settlement and custody practices in such markets may not be comparable to those of the world's leading stock markets, which may result in fluctuations in the price of Shares in the Company. Also, liquidity may be less than in the world's leading stock markets, resulting in the possibility of delays in the acquisition and disposal of some investments or settlement of such transactions at unfavourable prices.

E. Liquidity Risks

It is unlikely that stock exchanges in the Emerging Markets will, in the foreseeable future, offer the liquidity available in more developed securities markets. Accordingly, there may be no readily available market for the timely liquidation of investments made by the Company.

F. Settlement Risks

The Company will be exposed to a credit risk on parties with whom it trades in the Emerging Markets. There can be no guarantee of the operation or performance of settlement, clearing and registration of transactions in the Emerging Markets. Where organised securities markets and banking and telecommunications systems are underdeveloped, concerns inevitably arise in relation to settlement, clearing and registration of transactions in securities where these are acquired other than as direct investments. Furthermore, due to local postal and banking systems, no guarantee can be given that all entitlements attaching to quoted and over-the counter traded securities acquired by the Company, including those related to dividends, can be realised.

G. Custodial Risks

As the Company may invest in markets where custodial and/or settlement systems are not fully developed, the assets of the Company which are traded in such markets and which have been entrusted to sub-custodians, in circumstances where the use of such sub-custodians is necessary, may be exposed to risk in circumstances whereby the Depositary would have no liability. The Depositary has a sub-custodian network in all of the countries listed in the definition of "Recognised Market". Accordingly, the Company has agreed that it will not invest in securities issued or corporations located in other emerging countries until the Depositary is satisfied that it has sub-custodian arrangements in place in respect of such countries. Where the Depositary puts new sub-custodian arrangements in place, such countries will be listed in a revised prospectus.

H. Foreign Investment Risks

While the Company will only invest in markets which provide for the freedom of nationalisation and expropriation, such freedoms may be curtailed unexpectedly upon a change of government or when such nationalisation or expropriation is deemed to be in the public interest. The Company will seek, whenever such freedoms are curtailed, to obtain adequate compensation.

RUSSIAN MARKETS' RISK FACTORS

The Company wishes to draw attention to the risk factors, associated with investment in Russian markets, which could adversely affect investments made by the Manager in these markets.

Russian markets require consideration of matters not usually associated with investing in securities of issuers in developed capital markets. Russian markets may present different economic and political conditions from those in western markets, and less social, political and economic stability. The absence, until relatively recently, of any move towards capital markets structures or to a free market economy means investing in Russian markets is more risky than investing in western markets.

The Net Asset Value of a Fund that invests in Russian markets may be affected by uncertainties such as political or diplomatic developments, social instability and religious differences, changes in government policies, taxation and interest rates, currency conversion and repatriation and other political and economic developments in law or regulations in Russian markets and, in particular, the risks of expropriation, nationalisation, confiscation or other taking of assets, debt moratoria and/or debt defaults and changes in legislation relating to the level of foreign ownership in certain sectors of the economy.

There are also other risks associated with investment in Russia. Such risks include a potentially low level of investor protection; poor or opaque corporate governance; legislative risk (that laws may be changed with retrospective and/or immediate effect); and political risk (that the interpretation or method of enforcement of laws may be changed with a consequent and adverse effect on a Fund that invests in Russian markets).

Since investment in Russia carries a high degree of risk, investment in a Fund that invests in Russian markets is only suitable for investors who are aware of the risks of investing in Russia. In particular, it should be appreciated that the legislation, regulations, foreign exchange controls, and tax laws applicable to holders of Russian securities, and their interpretation and application by the relevant authorities, is evolving and may change in the future, and that political or economic change and instability may be more likely to occur and have greater effect on the economics and markets of Russia. Adverse government policies, taxation, restrictions on foreign investment and on currency convertibility and repatriation, currency fluctuations and other expropriation, nationalisation or other confiscation could also result in a loss to a Fund that invests in Russian markets.

By comparison with more developed securities markets, Russian securities markets are comparatively small, less liquid and more volatile. In addition settlement, clearing and registration procedures may be under-developed enhancing the risks of error, fraud and/or default. Furthermore, the legal infrastructure and accounting, auditing and reporting standards in Russian markets may not provide the same degree of investor information or protection as would generally apply to major markets.

As a consequence of the risk factors set out above, the Company is unable to provide any guarantee, assurance or warranty to investors as to the performance of any of the Funds.

17. APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applicants for Shares are advised that applications are considered and Shares are issued subject to the terms and conditions of application set out in the application form and the provisions of the Constitution of the Company.

To subscribe for Shares an applicant must complete and execute a subscription application form. Subscription application forms shall be in such form as may be prescribed from time to time by the Manager or its agent and shall be available upon request from the Registrar and Transfer Agent, the Manager or its agent.

Any amount thus returned will be without interest and will be sent at the risk of the applicant.

A written confirmation of entry in the Shareholder Register will be despatched to the Shareholder or their nominated agent by post and at the Shareholder's risk within 6 weeks of receipt of the Shareholder's request in writing for its issue.

18. REDEMPTION PROCEDURE

To redeem all or part of a holding of Shares, a Shareholder must deliver a request for redemption to the Registrar and Transfer Agent as described in Section 7C of this Prospectus.

19. CONVERSION PROCEDURE

To convert all or part of a holding of Shares, a Shareholder must deliver a request for conversion to the Registrar and Transfer Agent as described in Section 7E of this Prospectus.

Annex IV

Collateral Policy

The types of collateral acceptable for a Fund shall include but not be limited to: (i) cash; (ii) government or other public securities; (iii) certificates of deposit issued by relevant institutions; (iv) bonds/commercial paper issued by relevant institutions or by non-bank issuers; and (v) equity securities traded on certain stock exchanges.

The Company or its delegate will liaise with the Depositary and/or any other collateral management service provider as may be appointed from time to time in order to manage all aspects of the counterparty collateral process. Any fees charged by such collateral management service provider shall be payable out of the assets of the relevant Fund and shall be charged at normal commercial rates. Risks linked to the management of collateral, such as operational and legal risks, shall be identified, managed and mitigated by the Company's risk management process.

Collateral – Received by the Fund

Collateral posted by a counterparty for the benefit of a Fund may be taken into account as reducing the exposure to such counterparty. The Fund will require receipt of the necessary level of collateral so as to ensure counterparty exposure limits set out in the UCITS Regulations or the Central Bank Regulations are not breached. Counterparty risk may be reduced by an amount equivalent to the value of the collateral received after taking into account appropriate discounts.

If the relevant Fund receives collateral for at least 30% of its Net Asset Value it will put in place an appropriate stress testing policy to ensure regular stress tests are carried out under normal and exceptional liquidity conditions to enable the relevant Fund to assess the liquidity risk attached to the collateral. The liquidity stress testing policy will at least prescribe the following:

- (i) Design of stress test scenario analysis including calibration, certification and sensitivity analysis;
- (ii) Empirical approach to impact assessment, including back-testing of liquidity risk estimates;
- (iii) Reporting frequency and limit/loss tolerance thresholds; and
- (iv) Mitigation actions to reduce loss including haircut policy and gap risk protection.

Non-Cash Collateral

Non-Cash collateral received must, at all times, meet with the following criteria:

- (i) Liquidity: Collateral received other than cash should be highly liquid and traded on a regulated market or multilateral trading facility with transparent pricing in order that it can be sold quickly at a price that is close to pre-sale valuation.

(ii) Valuation: Collateral received should be valued on at least a daily basis and assets that exhibit high price volatility should not be accepted as collateral unless suitably conservative haircuts are in place.

(iii) Issuer credit quality: Collateral received should be of high quality.

(iv) Correlation: Collateral received should be issued by an entity that is independent from the counterparty and is not expected to display a high correlation with the performance of the counterparty.

(v) Diversification (asset concentration): Collateral should be sufficiently diversified in terms of country, markets and issuers with a maximum exposure to a given issuer of 20% of the Fund's Net Asset Value. When the Fund is exposed to different counterparties, the different baskets of collateral should be aggregated to calculate the 20% limit of exposure to a single issuer.

(vi) Immediately available: Collateral received should be capable of being fully enforced by the Fund at any time without reference to or approval from the counterparty.

(vii) Safe-keeping: Collateral received on a title transfer basis should be held by the Depositary or its agent. For other types of collateral arrangement, the collateral can be held by a third party depositary which is subject to prudential supervision, and which is unrelated to the provider of the collateral.

(viii) Haircuts: The Company (or its delegate), on behalf of the Fund, shall apply suitably conservative haircuts or discounts to the market value of assets being received as collateral where appropriate on the basis of an assessment of the characteristics of the assets such as the credit standing or the price volatility, as well as the outcome of any stress tests performed as referred to above. The Company has determined that generally if issuer or issue credit quality of the collateral is not of a very high quality or the collateral carries a significant level of price volatility, a conservative haircut must be applied in accordance with the Company's haircut policy. However, the application of such a haircut will be determined on a case by case basis. The Company, in its discretion, may accept certain collateral with more conservative, less conservative or no haircuts applied in accordance with its haircut policy.

Non-cash collateral cannot be sold, pledged or re-invested.

Cash Collateral

Cash collateral received by a Fund may not be invested other than in the following:

- (i) deposits with relevant institutions;
- (ii) high-quality government bonds;
- (iii) short-term money market funds as defined in the ESMA Guidelines on a Common Definition of European Money Market Funds (ref CESR/10-049).

Collateral – Posted by the Fund

Collateral posted to a counterparty by or on behalf of the Fund must be taken into account when calculating counterparty risk exposure. Collateral posted to a counterparty and collateral received by such counterparty may be taken into account on a net basis provided the Fund is able to legally enforce netting arrangements with the counterparty.

For the purpose of providing margin or collateral in respect of transactions in techniques and instruments, the Fund may transfer, mortgage, pledge, charge or encumber any assets or cash forming part of the Fund in accordance with normal market practice and the requirements outlined in the Central Bank Regulations.

Non-cash collateral posted to a counterparty cannot be re-used, pledged or re-invested by the counterparty.

For this purpose, each of the above Funds invests at least 50% of its gross assets on a continuous basis directly (i.e. not by holding Equities (as defined below) via an intermediate company in the legal form of a partnership) into Equities (the 'Equity Fund Capital Participation Threshold', as defined for the purposes of eligibility for the partial exemption tax regime for Equity Funds, according to sections 2 and 20 of GITA 2018). In order to be recognised as Equities for purposes of the Equity Fund Capital Participation Threshold, the Equities need to be owned ("assigned" for German tax purposes) by the relevant Fund (in the case of a securities lending arrangement or swap agreement, for example, the relevant Fund may lose tax ownership of those Equities for German tax purposes if they are subject to such agreements). The gross assets of the Fund are determined by using the value of the assets of the Fund without taking into account liabilities of the Fund.

The Fund is entitled, but not obligated, to utilise simplification rules or rules for equitable relief established by the German tax authorities which are applicable for purposes of the GITA 2018.

Passive violations of the Equity Fund Capital Participation Threshold defined above, caused for instance by unrealized changes in the value of the assets of the Fund, do not result in the loss of the tax status of an Equity Fund, if the Fund undertakes immediately after being informed about this violation feasible and reasonable measures to restore the Equity Fund Capital Participation Threshold.

At the point in time, where the relevant Fund materially violates the investment restrictions described above and hereby falls below the Equity Fund Capital Participation Threshold or chooses to remove the investment restrictions for an Equity Fund, as defined in the GITA 2018, from this Prospectus, the Fund loses its tax classification as an Equity Fund for the purposes of GITA 2018, as amended. In such a scenario, where the Fund no longer qualifies as an Equity Fund, Shares held by a German tax-resident investor are deemed to be sold and furthermore deemed to be reacquired by such investor on the following dealing day. Taxation of the resulting gain from the fictitious sale of the Shares at investor level is postponed to the date of effective subsequent sale / redemption of Shares held by a German tax-resident investor.

For purposes of the above Equity Fund Capital Participation Threshold, "Equities" mean:

1. Shares of a corporation which are admitted to official trading on a stock exchange or included in an organised market (which is a recognised market and open to the public and which operates in a due and proper manner),
2. Shares of a corporation, which is not a real estate company and which:
 - a. is resident in a Member State of the European Union or a member state of the European Economic Area (EEA) and is subject to income taxation for corporations in that state and is not exempt from such taxation; or
 - b. is resident in any other state and is subject to an income taxation for corporations in that state at a rate of at least 15% and is not exempt from such taxation,
3. Fund units of an Equity Fund (being a fund that invests at least 50% of its gross assets on a continuous basis directly into Equities according to its constitution or prospectus), with 51% of the Equity Fund units' value being taken into account as Equities, or

4. Fund units of a Mixed Fund (being a fund that invests at least 25% of its gross assets on a continuous basis directly into Equities according to its constitution or prospectus), with 25% of the Mixed Fund units' value being taken into account as Equities.

If the Equity Fund Capital Participation Threshold of an Equity Fund or the Mixed Fund Capital Participation Threshold of a Mixed Fund (both as defined for the purposes of eligibility for the partial exemption tax regime for Equity Funds and for Mixed Funds, according to sections 2 and 20 of GITA 2018), used as a target fund and laid out with binding legal effect for those target funds and for all of their investors in their constitution or prospectus, define a percentage of more than 51 per cent (in case of an Equity Fund) or more than 25 per cent (in case of a Mixed Fund) of its gross assets for the continuous investment into Equities, then differing from paragraphs 3 and 4 above, the Equity Fund or the Mixed Fund, used as a target fund, qualify as an Equity participation by the amount of this higher percentage.

If the relevant Fund invests into units or shares of a target fund, the Fund processes at their level (consolidates) the equity participation ratios of these target funds which are being published in the valuation frequency of each target fund. This consolidation method is only applicable to such target funds which produce a valuation at least once a week.

The equity participation ratios of the Funds are published on each Dealing Day on www.wmdata.de, and may be published on www.metzler.com and in such other publication(s) or such electronic media, as the Manager may from time to time consider appropriate.

Due to the fact that the legal situation and / or the opinion of the German fiscal authorities might change, possibly with retrospective effect, between the publication of this Prospectus and any investment decision taken by a German tax resident investor, it is for the German investor to consider the financial consequences of such changes to an investment into the Fund and to consult, if necessary, a qualified tax professional before the investment in the shares of the Fund is made. This information is not exhaustive and does not constitute legal or tax advice.

A company will be Resident in Ireland if its central management and control is exercised in Ireland irrespective of where it is incorporated. For Ireland to be treated as the location for central management and control this typically means that Ireland is the location where all fundamental policy decisions of the Company are made. Otherwise, a company incorporated in Ireland prior to 1 January 2015 which does not have its central management and control in Ireland is resident in Ireland except where:-

- the company or a related company (as described in section 23A of the Taxes Act) carries on a trade in Ireland, and either the company is ultimately controlled by persons resident in EU member states or, resident in territories with which Ireland has a double taxation treaty (a "taxation treaty territory"), and the company is not ultimately controlled by persons who are not so resident, or the principal class of shares of the company or a related company is substantially and regularly traded on one or more recognised stock exchanges in the EU or in a taxation treaty territory; or
- as is generally the case, pursuant to the terms of a double taxation treaty between Ireland and another territory, a company is regarded as a resident of a territory other than Ireland and as not resident of Ireland.

It should be noted that the determination of a company's residence for tax purposes can be complex in certain cases and declarants are referred to the specific legislative provisions which are contained in section 23A of the Taxes Act.

Trust

A trust will be Resident in Ireland and Ordinarily Resident in Ireland for the purposes of Irish capital gains tax unless the general administration of the trust is ordinarily carried on outside Ireland and the trustees (being a single and continuing body of persons) or a majority of them for the time being are not Resident in Ireland or Ordinarily Resident in Ireland.

Action taken by a UCITS to ensure that the stock exchange value of its units does not vary significantly from their net asset value shall be regarded as equivalent to such repurchase or redemption. Other liquid financial assets include cash deposits, financial derivative instruments, other collective investment undertakings, index tracking funds and Money Market Instruments.

This Leaflet should be read in the context of, and in conjunction with, the most recent version of the Prospectus for the Company (which can be obtained, free of charge, from the Manager). Investors should read the risk factors set out in Section 15 of the Prospectus and those Risk Factors relevant to the Fund set out in this Leaflet. In addition to those Risk Factors, investors in the Fund should be aware that the Fund may not be suitable for all investors because of the potential gains and losses from an investment in the Fund, the volatility of such investments and the inherent losses. The recommended investment horizon of investors in the Fund is a minimum of 5-10 years and investors must be able to bear longer term losses.

As a consequence of the risk factors set out in Section 15 of the Prospectus, the Company is unable to provide any guarantee, assurance or warranty to investors as to the performance of the Fund.

The Directors of the Company, whose names appear in the Prospectus, accept responsibility for the information contained in this Leaflet. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Directors (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case) the information contained in this Leaflet is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

Unless otherwise stated, all capitalised terms shall have the same meaning herein as in the Prospectus.

The issue or distribution of the Prospectus in the United Kingdom is being made only to: (i) or directed only at, persons who are investment professionals within the meaning of Article 19 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005 (the "FP Order") or Article 14 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001 (the "PCISE Order"); (ii) or directed only at, persons who are high net worth companies and certain other entities falling within Article 49 of the FP Order or Article 22 of the PCISE Order; (iii) persons who qualify as certified sophisticated investors for the purposes of Article 50 of the FP Order or Article 23 of the PCISE Order; (iv) associations, or members of associations, the membership of which the person communicating this Prospectus believes on reasonable grounds comprises wholly or predominantly persons who are high net worth persons falling within Article 49 of the FP Order or Article 22 of the PCISE Order, and/or certified sophisticated investors within the meaning of Article 50 of the FP Order or Article 23 of the PCISE Order; or (v) any other persons to whom the Company may lawfully be promoted in accordance with Section 4.12 of the FCA's Conduct of Business Sourcebook (the persons in (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) together, the "relevant persons").

The content of this Prospectus has not been approved by an authorised person and such approval is, save where this Prospectus is directed at or issued to the types of person referred to above, required by section 21 of FSMA where the person communicating this Prospectus is not an FCA authorised person.

Reliance on this Prospectus for the purpose of engaging in any investment activity, including without limitation purchasing shares in the Company, may expose a person to a significant risk of losing all of the property invested or of incurring additional liability. INTRODUCTION

Metzler European Smaller Companies Sustainability is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

Seven Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as further described on page 13.

In addition to the provisions contained in the Prospectus and the UCITS Regulations the following shall, in particular, apply in respect of the Fund.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy

The investment objective will be attained by investing in European equities and equity related securities (including warrants), that are listed or traded on Recognised Markets. The selection of equities will be carried out in such a way that medium to small companies, measured by market capitalisation, will form the main focus of the portfolio. The Fund is actively managed.

It is the intention that at least 75% of the Fund's net assets will be invested in equities listed on a Recognised Market.

In addition, the Fund may invest in fixed and floating rate bonds and debentures issued by corporates, governments or government-like entities (i.e., agency, supranational, government guaranteed, federal state, local authority) each having an Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating, and listed or traded on Recognised Markets.

The Fund can invest up to a maximum of 10% of its net assets in other Investment Funds. The investment policy of such Investment Funds will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

An investment in a fund which invests in warrants should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors.

Environmental and Social Characteristics promoted by the Fund

The Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and invests in companies that apply good corporate governance. In order to achieve this, the Fund pursues the following approaches in the investment process via exclusions, Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") integration and engagement.

No Sustainable Investment Objective

The Fund does not have as its objective sustainable investment within the meaning of Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the “Disclosure Regulation”).

Investment Strategy

The following procedures are implemented in the investment process on a continuous basis:

(a) Exclusions

The criterion of sustainability is defined by exclusion criteria in addition to ESG key performance indicators. The issuers of a security are considered to be unsustainable if they violate one of over 100 internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact (the “UN Global Compact”) or the UN Guiding Principles on Business & Human Rights. These ten principles of the UN Global Compact promote sustainable and responsible corporate development in order to make globalisation more social and ecological. They fall into the categories of human rights, labour standards, environmental and corruption prevention. Securities of issuers that are engaged in the following controversial business areas, beyond a defined threshold, are also considered unsustainable: (a) coal energy: companies which generate more than 30 percent of their turnover from the generation of electricity from thermal coal are considered to have committed an infringement; (b) coal mining: the infringement concerns companies which derive more than 30 percent of their turnover from the extraction of thermal coal; (c) fossil fuels: companies are considered to be infringing if they generate more than 5 percent of their turnover from the extraction of oil and gas by non-conventional methods (fracking, oil sands); (d) armour: companies which derive more than 10 percent of their turnover from the production of and trade in defence equipment are considered to have committed an infringement. Also excluded are companies which produce and/or distribute controversial weapons, such as landmines and ABC weapons; (e) tobacco: producers and trading companies which achieve more than 5 percent of their turnover with end products such as cigarettes or cigars are considered to have committed an infringement.

(b) ESG Integration

The aim of ESG integration is to improve the risk/return profile of the Fund by integrating sustainability aspects into the traditional investment analysis process. The assessment of an issuer's sustainability is carried out by the Investment Manager using published information from the issuers.

The Investment Manager evaluates the economic impact of the following aspects on a company's business success:

All issuers of equities and/or corporate bonds are subject to sustainability analysis before their securities are purchased. This includes key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption. The Investment Manager's analysis covers the following topics: (a) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact; (b) management of sustainability risks: in addition to ESG ratings and scores, several key performance indicators are taken into account, e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled; (c) a climate rating for measuring the transition to a low-carbon economy; and (d) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

In addition, the Investment Manager may also rely on the sustainability assessment of external providers to evaluate the above criteria. External data providers collect information from companies or issuers on how they deal with the above-mentioned sustainability issues and generally also assess these and make this information available to the company. With regard to a violation of the ten principles of the UN Global Compact, the Investment Manager generally refers to the information in the sustainability assessments of external data providers.

(c) Engagement

Engagement will involve discussions regarding business-relevant ESG challenges related to the underlying companies. An automated ESG reporting allows for an ex-post analysis of key sustainability factors. The reporting measures relevant ESG characteristics of the Fund. It includes information on the active dialogue with companies (engagement) and execution of voting rights.

Compliance with the environmental and social characteristics is monitored on a regular basis.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

As part of its investment process, the Fund includes all relevant financial risks in its investment decision and evaluates these on an ongoing basis. In doing so, all relevant sustainability risks, including environmental, social or governance events or conditions that could have a principal adverse impact on the investment, including those that could have a significant negative impact on the return of an investment, are also taken into account, as well as the most important negative effects of an investment decision on sustainability factors. Sustainability factors include environmental, social and employee concerns, respect for human rights and the fight against corruption and bribery. Investment decisions may cause, contribute to or be directly related to a negative impact or likely to lead to a significant impact on sustainability factors. The Investment Manager's analysis of the management of sustainability risks incorporates governance analysis sourced by external data providers. It covers the boards' independence, experience and effectiveness, executive pay practices, ownership structure and reliability of reported financials. The Investment Manager engages with underlying companies via dialogue and voting rights. The Investment Manager has mandated Bank of Montreal Global Asset Management ("BMO") to exercise voting rights. The governance guidelines establish a consistent philosophy and approach to corporate governance and the exercising of voting rights.

Sustainability Indicators

The sustainability indicators used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund include:

- (a) key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption;

- (b) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact;
- (c) management of sustainability risks: in addition to ESG ratings and scores, several key performance indicators are taken into account, e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled; and
- (d) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

Use of Derivatives

The Fund will, if possible, give preference to transactions with derivatives that serve to fulfil the environmental or social characteristics of the Fund.

Further Information

Product related information as well as information on the integration of sustainability risks into the Fund's investment processes, including aspects of the organisation, risk management and governance of such processes can be found on the Manager's website at <https://www.universal-investment.com/en/permanent/profile/ireland>. The extent to which sustainability risks can influence the performance of the financial product shall be disclosed in either qualitative or quantitative terms.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities, nor are they made in economic activities that contribute to an environmental objective, within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088. Therefore, the investments are not subject to a "do no significant harm" test.

Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded equity future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has an equity index or an individual equity as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to equity markets.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or options contracts and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

It is not anticipated that the Fund will be significantly leveraged through the use of financial derivative instruments. The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

At any time the leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 250% of its net asset value. It is not anticipated that the Fund's investment in long positions will exceed 250% and in short positions 200% of its net asset value respectively.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 5-10 years and who are prepared to accept a medium to high level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of the Disclosure Regulation are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Environmental, social and governance strategies may take risks or eliminate exposures found in other strategies or broad market benchmarks that may cause performance to diverge from the performance of these other strategies or market benchmarks. These effects may have an impact on the Fund's return, on the assets, financial and earnings position of the Fund and on the reputation of the Company. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types. Environmental, social and governance strategies will be subject to the risks associated with their underlying investments' asset classes. Further, the demand within certain markets or sectors, that an environmental, social or governance strategy targets, may not develop as forecasted or may develop more slowly than anticipated.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler European Growth Sustainability is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

Seven Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as further described on page 13.

In addition to the provisions contained in the Prospectus and the UCITS Regulations the following shall, in particular, apply in respect of the Fund.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy

The investment objective will be attained by investing in European equities and equity related securities (including warrants), that are listed or traded on Recognised Markets. The investments will be selected in such a way that companies of growth sectors will be the main focus of the investment portfolio. The Fund is actively managed.

It is the intention that at least 75% of the Fund's net assets will be invested in equities listed on a Recognised Market.

The Fund may invest in fixed and floating rate bonds and debentures issued by corporates, governments or government-like entities (i.e., agency, supranational, government guaranteed, federal state, local authority) each having an Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating, and listed or traded on Recognised Markets.

The Fund may also invest up to a maximum of 10% of its net assets in other Investment Funds. The investment policy of such Investment Funds will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

An investment in a fund which invests in warrants should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors.

Environmental and Social Characteristics promoted by the Fund

The Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and invests in companies that apply good corporate governance. In order to achieve this, the Fund pursues the following approaches in the investment process via exclusions, Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") integration and engagement.

No Sustainable Investment Objective

The Fund does not have as its objective sustainable investment within the meaning of Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27

November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the “Disclosure Regulation”).

Investment Strategy

The following procedures are implemented in the investment process on a continuous basis:

(a) Exclusions

The criterion of sustainability is defined by exclusion criteria in addition to ESG key performance indicators. The issuers of a security are considered to be unsustainable if they violate one of over 100 internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact (the “UN Global Compact”) or the UN Guiding Principles on Business & Human Rights. These ten principles of the UN Global Compact promote sustainable and responsible corporate development in order to make globalisation more social and ecological. They fall into the categories of human rights, labour standards, environmental and corruption prevention. Securities of issuers that are engaged in the following controversial business areas, beyond a defined threshold, are also considered unsustainable: (a) coal energy: companies which generate more than 30 percent of their turnover from the generation of electricity from thermal coal are considered to have committed an infringement; (b) coal mining: the infringement concerns companies which derive more than 30 percent of their turnover from the extraction of thermal coal; (c) fossil fuels: companies are considered to be infringing if they generate more than 5 percent of their turnover from the extraction of oil and gas by non-conventional methods (fracking, oil sands); (d) armour: companies which derive more than 10 percent of their turnover from the production of and trade in defence equipment are considered to have committed an infringement. Also excluded are companies which produce and/or distribute controversial weapons, such as landmines and ABC weapons; (e) tobacco: producers and trading companies which achieve more than 5 percent of their turnover with end products such as cigarettes or cigars are considered to have committed an infringement.

(b) ESG Integration

The aim of ESG integration is to improve the risk/return profile of the Fund by integrating sustainability aspects into the traditional investment analysis process. The assessment of an issuer's sustainability is carried out by the Investment Manager using published information from the issuers.

The Investment Manager evaluates the economic impact of the following aspects on a company's business success:

All issuers of equities and/or corporate bonds are subject to sustainability analysis before their securities are purchased. This includes key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption. The Investment Manager's analysis covers the following topics: (a) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact; (b) management of sustainability risks: in addition to ESG ratings and scores, several key performance indicators are taken into account, e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled; (c) a climate rating for measuring the transition to a low-carbon economy; and (d) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris

Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

In addition, the Investment Manager may also rely on the sustainability assessment of external providers to evaluate the above criteria. External data providers collect information from companies or issuers on how they deal with the above-mentioned sustainability issues and generally also assess these and make this information available to the company. With regard to a violation of the ten principles of the UN Global Compact, the Investment Manager generally refers to the information in the sustainability assessments of external data providers.

(c) Engagement

Engagement will involve discussions regarding business-relevant ESG challenges related to the underlying companies. An automated ESG reporting allows for an ex-post analysis of key sustainability factors. The reporting measures relevant ESG characteristics of the Fund. It includes information on the active dialogue with companies (engagement) and execution of voting rights.

Compliance with the environmental and social characteristics is monitored on a regular basis.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

As part of its investment process, the Fund includes all relevant financial risks in its investment decision and evaluates these on an ongoing basis. In doing so, all relevant sustainability risks, including environmental, social or governance events or conditions that could have a principal adverse impact on the investment, including those that could have a significant negative impact on the return of an investment, are also taken into account, as well as the most important negative effects of an investment decision on sustainability factors. Sustainability factors include environmental, social and employee concerns, respect for human rights and the fight against corruption and bribery. Investment decisions may cause, contribute to or be directly related to a negative impact or likely to lead to a significant impact on sustainability factors. The Investment Manager's analysis of the management of sustainability risks incorporates governance analysis sourced by external data providers. It covers the boards' independence, experience and effectiveness, executive pay practices, ownership structure and reliability of reported financials. The Investment Manager engages with underlying companies via dialogue and voting rights. The Investment Manager has mandated Bank of Montreal Global Asset Management ("BMO") to exercise voting rights. The governance guidelines establish a consistent philosophy and approach to corporate governance and the exercising of voting rights.

Sustainability Indicators

The sustainability indicators used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund include:

- (a) key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption;
- (b) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact;

- (c) management of sustainability risks: in addition to ESG ratings and scores, several key performance indicators are taken into account, e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled; and
- (d) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

Use of Derivatives

The Fund will, if possible, give preference to transactions with derivatives that serve to fulfil the environmental or social characteristics of the Fund.

Further Information

Product related information as well as information on the integration of sustainability risks into the Fund's investment processes, including aspects of the organisation, risk management and governance of such processes can be found on the Manager's website at <https://www.universal-investment.com/en/permanent/profile/ireland>. The extent to which sustainability risks can influence the performance of the financial product shall be disclosed in either qualitative or quantitative terms.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities, nor are they made in economic activities that contribute to an environmental objective, within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088. Therefore, the investments are not subject to a "do no significant harm" test.

Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded equity future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has an equity index or an individual equity as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to equity markets.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or options contracts and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

It is not anticipated that the Fund will be significantly leveraged through the use of financial derivative instruments. The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

At any time the leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 250% of its net asset value. It is not anticipated that the Fund's investment in long positions will exceed 250% and in short positions 200% of its net asset value respectively.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 5-10 years and who are prepared to accept a medium to high level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of the Disclosure Regulation are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Environmental, social and governance strategies may take risks or eliminate exposures found in other strategies or broad market benchmarks that may cause performance to diverge from the performance of these other strategies or market benchmarks. These effects may have an impact on the Fund's return, on the assets, financial and earnings position of the Fund and on the reputation of the Company. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types. Environmental, social and governance strategies will be subject to the risks associated with their underlying investments' asset classes. Further, the demand within certain markets or sectors that an environmental, social or governance strategy targets may not develop as forecasted or may develop more slowly than anticipated.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler Japanese Equity Sustainability Fund is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

Classes of Shares

Four Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as described further on page 12.

In addition to the provisions contained in the Prospectus and the UCITS Regulations the following shall, in particular, apply in respect of the Fund.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy

The investment objective will be obtained by investing predominantly in equities of companies located in Japan, constituted in the Tokyo Stock Price Index (TOPIX). It is the intention that at least 51% of the Fund's net assets will be invested in equities listed on a Recognised Market. The Fund is actively managed.

In addition, the Fund may invest in equities and equity related securities (including warrants) of other Japanese companies, in government and corporate bonds and debentures each having an Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating. Equity investments of the Fund may at any time include Value Stocks. All investments must be listed or traded on a Recognised Market. Investments in warrants shall not exceed 10% of the Funds assets.

An investment in a fund which invests in warrants should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors.

The Fund can invest up to a maximum of 10% of its net assets in other Investment Funds. The investment policy of such Investment Funds will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Environmental and Social Characteristics promoted by the Fund

The Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and invests in companies that apply good corporate governance. In order to achieve this, the Fund pursues the following approaches in the investment process via exclusions, Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") integration and engagement.

No Sustainable Investment Objective

The Fund does not have as its objective sustainable investment within the meaning of Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the “Disclosure Regulation”).

Investment Strategy

The following procedures are implemented in the investment process on a continuous basis:

(a) Exclusions

The criterion of sustainability is defined by exclusion criteria in addition to ESG key performance indicators. The issuers of a security are considered to be unsustainable if they violate the ten principles of the United Nations Global Compact (the “UN Global Compact”). These ten principles of the UN Global Compact promote sustainable and responsible corporate development in order to make globalisation more social and ecological. They fall into the categories of human rights, labour standards, environmental and corruption prevention. Securities of issuers that are engaged in the following controversial business areas, beyond a defined threshold, are also considered unsustainable: (a) coal energy: companies which generate more than 30 percent of their turnover from the generation of electricity from thermal coal are considered to have committed an infringement; (b) coal mining: the infringement concerns companies which derive more than 30 percent of their turnover from the extraction of thermal coal; (c) fossil fuels: companies are considered to be infringing if they generate more than 5 percent of their turnover from the extraction of oil and gas by non-conventional methods (fracking, oil sands); (d) armour: companies which derive more than 10 percent of their turnover from the production of and trade in defence equipment are considered to have committed an infringement. Also excluded are companies which produce and/or distribute controversial weapons, such as landmines and ABC weapons; (e) tobacco: producers and trading companies which achieve more than 5 percent of their turnover with end products such as cigarettes or cigars are considered to have committed an infringement.

(b) ESG Integration

The aim of ESG integration is to improve the risk/return profile of the Fund by integrating sustainability aspects into the traditional investment analysis process. The assessment of an issuer's sustainability is carried out by the Investment Manager using published information from the issuers.

The Investment Manager evaluates the economic impact of the following aspects on a company's business success:

- i. All issuers of equities and/or corporate bonds are subject to sustainability analysis before their securities are purchased.
- ii. A top-down screening and bottom-up research on sectors and stocks by using ESG factors is applied. The in-house developed ESG framework is specific for various sectors.
- iii. External data providers collect information from companies or issuers on how they deal with sustainability issues and generally also assess these and make this information available to the company. When considering a possible violation of the ten principles of the UN Global Compact, the Investment Manager generally refers to the information in the sustainability assessments of external data providers.

(c) Engagement

Engagement will involve discussions regarding business-relevant ESG challenges related to the underlying companies. An automated ESG reporting allows for an ex-post analysis of key sustainability factors. The reporting measures relevant ESG characteristics of the Fund. It includes information on the active dialogue with companies (engagement) and execution of voting rights.

Compliance with the environmental and social characteristics is monitored on a regular basis.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

As part of its investment process, the Fund includes all relevant financial risks in its investment decision and evaluates these on an ongoing basis. In doing so, all relevant sustainability risks, including environmental, social or governance events or conditions that could have a principal adverse impact on the investment, including those that could have a significant negative impact on the return of an investment, are also taken into account, as well as the most important negative effects of an investment decision on sustainability factors. Sustainability factors include environmental, social and employee concerns, respect for human rights and the fight against corruption and bribery. Investment decisions may cause, contribute to or be directly related to a negative impact or likely to lead to a significant impact on sustainability factors. The Investment Manager engages with underlying companies via dialogue and voting rights.

Sustainability Indicators

The sustainability indicators used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund include:

- a) key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption;
- b) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact; and
- c) management of sustainability risks: several key performance indicators are taken into account (e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled).

Index

The methodology for calculating the TOPIX index is described on the following website: www.jpx.co.jp. Due to the large number of securities which make up the TOPIX index, the entire index is not consistent with the environmental and social characteristics of the Fund.

Further Information

Product related information as well as information on the integration of sustainability risks into the Fund's investment processes, including aspects of the organisation, risk management and governance of such processes can be found on the Manager's website at <https://www.universal-investment.com/en/permanent/profile/ireland>. The extent to which sustainability risks can influence the performance of the financial product shall be disclosed in either qualitative or quantitative terms.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities, nor are they made in economic activities that contribute to an environmental objective, within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088. Therefore, the investments are not subject to a "do no significant harm" test.

The Tokyo Stock Price Index

The Tokyo Stock Price Index is the index of the Tokyo Stock Exchange which was launched on 1 July 1969. It is a capitalisation-weighted index of all the companies listed on the first section of the Stock Exchange. The index is supplemented by the sub-indices of the 33 industry sectors and developed with a base index value of 100 as of 4 January 1968. It reflects growth of the market against this base aggregate market value of 100. The index calculation excludes temporary issues and preferred stock.

In order to spread the risk inherent to the management of the Fund the Manager may appoint investment managers from time to time. Criteria for such appointments will include proven track record in portfolio management, specialist skills in particular markets and instruments, good reputation and an adherence to best market practices in line with the general investment objectives of the Fund.

As at the date of this Leaflet, TOPIX is included in the register of administrators and benchmarks established and maintained by the European Securities and Markets Authority pursuant to Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/1011).

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

It is not intended that the Fund will use financial derivative instruments, therefore the Fund will not be leveraged through the use of derivative instruments.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 5-10 years and who are prepared to accept a medium to high level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of the Disclosure Regulation are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Environmental, social and governance strategies may take risks or eliminate exposures found in other strategies or broad market benchmarks that may cause performance to diverge from the performance of these other strategies or market benchmarks. These effects may have an impact on the Fund's return, on the assets, financial and earnings position of the Fund and on the reputation of the Company. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types. Environmental, social and governance strategies will be subject to the risks associated with their underlying investments' asset classes. Further, the demand within certain markets or sectors, that an environmental, social or governance strategy targets, may not develop as forecasted or may develop more slowly than anticipated.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler NEXT Portfolio is a sub-fund of the Company. NEXT stands for Nachhaltig (Sustainability), Engagiert (Engagement) and Transparent (Transparency), all characteristics of the stock selection policy pursued by the Investment Manager in adhering to the SFDR Article 8 classification of the Fund.

The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

Two Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as further described on page 13.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy

The investment objective of the Fund will be obtained by predominantly gaining exposure to global equity markets. The Fund will gain this exposure by investing in equities, equity related securities (including common stocks, preferred stocks and securities convertible into or exchangeable for such equity securities) and Investment Funds (including exchange traded funds) that are listed or traded on Recognised Markets. For the avoidance of doubt, the Fund allows for exposure to Emerging Market equities. It is the intention that the Fund's investments in Emerging Markets will be limited to a maximum of 30% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund. The Fund is actively managed.

As described in more detail below under the heading 'Environmental and Social Characteristics Promoted by the Fund', the Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and invests in companies that apply good corporate governance.

The Investment Manager will utilise top-down macro analysis methodologies to evaluate the general attractiveness of asset types, regions, countries and investment styles. The analysis is based on a set of fundamental and financial indicators (e.g., indicators for monetary conditions, expected regional and individual country growth rates, corporate earnings, valuation and relative strength) and is aimed to determine net equity exposure and weight regions and/or countries and/or investment styles (e.g., smaller cap exposure versus large cap exposure) within the portfolio. The Investment Manager then will use bottom-up selection analysis (i.e., individual asset analysis) to select assets to hold in the portfolio with exposure to the selected regions and/or countries and/or styles in pursuance of the investment objective.

The investment selection process is not primarily based on market capitalisation and therefore may exhibit strong deviations from cap-weighted equity benchmark indices. The Fund will have no industry or market capitalisation focus.

The Fund may invest up to 100% of its net assets in Investment Funds in accordance with the conditions set down by the Central Bank. The investment policy of such Investment Funds, for the most part, will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund, however the Fund may also invest in Investment Funds with exposure to bonds and/or currencies. The maximum level of management fees that may be charged to the Investment Funds in which the Fund invests is 2% of net assets. The types of Investment Funds in which the Fund may invest are as follows: -

- UCITS
- schemes established in Guernsey and authorised as Class A Schemes;
- schemes established in Jersey as Recognised Funds;
- schemes established in the Isle of Man as Authorised Schemes;
- Retail Investor AIFs authorised by the Central Bank provided such investment fund complies in all material respects with the provisions of the UCITS Regulations and the Central Bank Regulations; and
- AIFs authorised in a Member State of the EEA¹, the US, Jersey, Guernsey or the Isle of Man and which comply, in all material respects, with the provisions of the UCITS Regulations and the Central Bank Regulations.

The Fund may also invest in other Funds of the Company. Such investment is known as “cross-investment”. The Fund may not, however, invest in shares of another Fund which itself holds shares in other Funds of the Company. Furthermore, the Fund may invest in Investment Funds managed by an affiliate of the Manager.

It is the intention that at least 51% of the Fund’s net assets will be invested directly in equities listed on a Recognised Market or indirectly via Investment Funds that invest in equities listed on a Recognised Market.

The Investment Manager may invest up to 10% of the Fund’s net assets in Exchange Traded Commodities (ETC) that are listed or traded on Recognised Markets. Exchange Traded Commodity securities, or ‘ETCs’, are transferable securities issued by any issuer globally (including, for example, corporations and trusts) which reflect the performance of an underlying commodity or commodity index. ETCs enable investors to gain exposure to commodities without trading futures or taking physical delivery. The Fund may invest in ETCs providing indirect exposure to commodities and commodity indices in the precious metals sector. The ETCs will not embed any derivatives. The Fund’s investment in ETCs will be limited to ETCs which are eligible under the UCITS Regulations (i.e., amongst other things, ETCs will be transferable, sufficiently liquid and negotiable, can be reliably valued and have risks which can be assessed on an on-going basis by the Fund).

In addition, the Fund may invest in fixed and floating rate bonds and debentures issued by corporates, governments or government like entities (i.e., agency, supranational, government guaranteed, federal state, local authority) each having an Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating that are listed or traded on Recognised Markets.

¹ In accordance with the “Notice of Intention: Investment by UCITS and Retail Investor AIFs in UK Investment Funds; Counterparties to OTC derivative instruments entered into by UCITS and Retail AIFs” issued by the Central Bank on 7 March 2019 and subject to any further guidance issued by the Central Bank, the Central Bank does not propose adopting a default position which would treat UK AIFs as an ineligible category of investment fund in which UCITS may invest.

In addition, the Fund may use financial derivative instruments as set out in more detail below in the section entitled 'Financial Derivative Instruments'.

The Investment Manager of the Fund may, at any time and in its absolute discretion, increase the cash position of the Fund where it considers this prudent or necessary, for example, due to prevailing market conditions.

An investment in a fund which invests in warrants should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors.

It is the intention of the Fund to adhere to the investment policy referred to above as much as possible, however, market circumstances (e.g., exceptional market circumstances outside the control of the Investment Manager) may lead to temporary deviations from this policy.

No Sustainable Investment Objective

The Fund does not have as its objective sustainable investment within the meaning of Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the "Disclosure Regulation").

Environmental and Social Characteristics promoted by the Fund

The Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and invests in companies that apply good corporate governance.

The environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund consist of:

- (a) investing in underlying companies which engage in environmentally sustainable practices, including through the underlying company's management of environmental risks and capturing of opportunities (for example the development of climate friendly products), and excluding investment in underlying companies which do not meet the Investment Manager's sustainability criteria as further detailed below. In meeting these environmental characteristics, the Investment Manager may consider an underlying company's energy use and carbon emissions, waste, pollution, any biodiversity risks an underlying company might face and consideration of how that underlying company is managing those risks;
- (b) investing in underlying companies which have in place sound management structures and good relationships with employees, suppliers, customers and the communities in which the underlying company operates, and excluding investment in underlying companies which do not meet the Investment Manager's sustainability criteria as further detailed below. In meeting these social characteristics, the Investment Manager may consider an underlying company's management of human capital, employees' health and safety and product liability. In certain sectors, the Investment Manager may take into account social opportunities such as opportunities in nutrition and health; and

- (c) in respect of investment in bonds issued by governments or government like entities, investing in bonds issued by countries with a low level of corruption, low frequency of money laundering cases and a positive peace status, as further detailed below.

In order to meet the environmental and social characteristics described above, the Investment Manager integrates the following procedures in its investment process, via the application of exclusions, Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") integration and engagement.

Investment Strategy

The following procedures are implemented in the investment process on a continuous basis in order to meet the environmental and social characteristics described above:

(a) Exclusions

The criterion of sustainability is defined by exclusion criteria in addition to ESG key performance indicators. The issuers of a security are considered to be unsustainable if they violate one of over 100 internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact (the "UN Global Compact") or the UN Guiding Principles on Business & Human Rights. These ten principles of the UN Global Compact promote sustainable and responsible corporate development in order to make globalisation more social and ecological. They fall into the categories of human rights, labour standards, environmental and corruption prevention. Securities of issuers that are engaged in the following controversial business areas, beyond a defined threshold, are also considered unsustainable: (a) coal energy: companies which generate more than 30 percent of their turnover from the generation of electricity from thermal coal are considered to have committed an infringement; (b) coal mining: the infringement concerns companies which derive more than 30 percent of their turnover from the extraction of thermal coal; (c) fossil fuels: companies are considered to be infringing if they generate more than 5 percent of their turnover from the extraction of oil and gas by non-conventional methods (fracking, oil sands); (d) armour: companies which derive more than 10 percent of their turnover from the production of and trade in defence equipment are considered to have committed an infringement. Also excluded are companies which produce and/or distribute controversial weapons, such as landmines and ABC weapons; (e) tobacco: producers and trading companies which achieve more than 5 percent of their turnover with end products such as cigarettes or cigars are considered to have committed an infringement.

(b) ESG Integration

The aim of ESG integration is to improve the risk/return profile of the Fund by integrating sustainability aspects into the traditional investment analysis process. The assessment of an issuer's sustainability is carried out by the Investment Manager using published information from the issuers.

The Investment Manager evaluates the economic impact of the following aspects of a company's business:

All issuers of equities and/or corporate bonds are subject to sustainability analysis before their securities are purchased. This includes key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption. The Investment Manager's analysis covers the following topics:

(a) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact; (b) management of sustainability risks: in addition to ESG ratings and scores, several key performance indicators are taken into account, e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled; (c) a climate rating for measuring the transition to a low-carbon economy; and (d) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

In addition, the Investment Manager may also rely on the sustainability assessment of external providers to evaluate the above criteria. External data providers collect information from companies or issuers on how they deal with the above-mentioned sustainability issues and generally also assess these and make this information available to the company. With regard to a violation of the ten principles of the UN Global Compact, the Investment Manager generally refers to the information in the sustainability assessments of external data providers. When considering sovereign debt investments, the Investment Manager assesses a country's exposure to and management of ESG risk factors affecting its value creation process. The assessment is based on the MSCI ESG Government Ratings.

(c) Engagement

Engagement will involve discussions regarding business-relevant ESG challenges related to the underlying companies. An automated ESG reporting allows for an ex-post analysis of key sustainability factors. The reporting measures relevant ESG characteristics of the Fund. It includes information on the active dialogue with companies (engagement).

Compliance with the environmental and social characteristics is monitored on a regular basis.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

As part of its investment process, the Fund includes all relevant financial risks in its investment decision and evaluates these on an ongoing basis. In doing so, all relevant sustainability risks, including environmental, social or governance events or conditions that could have a principal adverse impact on the investment, including those that could have a significant negative impact on the return of an investment, are also taken into account, as well as the most important negative effects of an investment decision on sustainability factors. Sustainability factors include environmental, social and employee concerns, respect for human rights and the fight against corruption and bribery. Investment decisions may cause, contribute to or be directly related to a negative impact or likely to lead to a significant impact on sustainability factors. The ESG scores published by MSCI ESG Research, an independent provider of ESG data, reports and ratings based on published methodologies, are also considered as one of the relevant perspectives for investment decisions. The Investment Manager engages with underlying companies via dialogue.

Sustainability Indicators

The sustainability indicators used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund include:

- (a) key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption;
- (b) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact;

- (c) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change;
- (d) for sovereign debt investments, that country's: (i) record on political rights and civil liberties classified according to the non-governmental organisation Freedom House in its annual "Freedom in the World" report; (ii) the level of corruption as classified by Transparency International's Corruption Perceptions Index; (iii) the peace status of the country, classified according to the Global Peace Index produced by the Institute for Economics and Peace; and (iv) its frequency of money laundering cases and its MSCI ESG Government Rating ascertained from the annual Basel Anti-Money Laundering Index published by the Basel Institute on Governance.

Use of Derivatives

The Fund will, if possible, give preference to transactions with derivatives that serve to fulfil the environmental or social characteristics of the Fund. Further detail in relation to the Financial Derivative Instruments that might be utilised by the Fund are set out on page 13 below.

Further Information

Product related information as well as information on the integration of sustainability risks into the Fund's investment processes, including aspects of the organisation, risk management and governance of such processes can be found on the Manager's website at <https://www.universal-investment.com/en/permanent/profile/ireland>. The extent to which sustainability risks can influence the performance of the financial product shall be disclosed in either qualitative or quantitative terms.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities, nor are they made in economic activities that contribute to an environmental objective, within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088. Therefore, the investments are not subject to a "do no significant harm" test.

Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded equity future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has an equity index or an individual equity as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to equity markets.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or options contracts and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

It is not anticipated that the Fund will be significantly leveraged through the use of financial derivative instruments. The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

At any time the leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 250% of its net asset value. It is not anticipated that the Fund's investment in long positions will exceed 250% and in short positions 200% of its net asset value respectively.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 5-10 years and who are prepared to accept a medium to high level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus including the Emerging Market Risk Factors on pages 60 to 61.

Derivatives – General

The primary risks associated with the use of financial derivative instruments for investment purposes are (i) failure to predict accurately the direction of the market movements; (ii) market risks, for example, lack of liquidity or lack of correlation between the change in the value of the underlying asset and that of the value of the Fund's derivatives; and (iii) to the extent that a Fund may invest in over-the-counter derivatives transactions, credit risk with regard to parties with whom it trades and the risk of settlement default and the risk that the legal documentation of the contract may not accurately reflect the intention of the parties. In addition, a Fund may have to transact with counterparties on standard terms which it may not be able to negotiate.

Other derivative risks which may affect the Fund include the following:

Highly Volatile Markets

The prices of derivative instruments, including futures and options prices, are highly volatile. Price movements of forward contracts, futures contracts and other derivative contracts in which the Fund's assets may invest are influenced by, among other things, interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments, and national and international political and economic events and policies. In addition, governments from time to time intervene, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly those in currencies and interest rate related futures and options. Such intervention often is intended directly to influence prices and may, together with other factors, cause all of such markets to move rapidly in the same direction because of, among other things, interest rate fluctuations.

In relation to particular derivative instruments, the following risk factors should also be noted:

Currency Forwards

Currency forwards have the risk of the currency exposure in the same way as a regular currency spot transaction. Currency forwards are OTC traded and therefore have counterparty risk. Forward contracts also carry roll risk, which is the risk that when a forward contract expires, a new forward to replace the expired one cannot be put into place at the same cost or on the same hedge basis. This may occur due to changes in market liquidity or interest rates, resulting in a potential slippage or loss in the hedge position due to the contract expiration and roll.

Equity Index Futures and Equity Index Options

The Fund may utilise exchange traded Equity Index Futures and Equity Index Options to seek to hedge against market risk or gain exposure to an underlying equity market. Hedging against a decline in the value of a position does not eliminate fluctuations in the values of positions or prevent losses if the values of such positions decline, but establishes other positions designed to gain from those same developments, thus moderating the decline in the positions' value. Such hedging transactions also limit the opportunity for gain if the value of the portfolio position should increase. Futures prices are highly volatile, with price movements being influenced by a multitude of factors such as supply and demand relationships, government trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control policies, political and economic events and emotions in the marketplace. Futures markets are subject to comprehensive statutes, regulations and margin requirements. Further, futures trading may be illiquid as a result of daily limits on movements of prices, while the Fund's futures trading could be adversely affected by speculative position limits.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of the Disclosure Regulation are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Environmental, social and governance strategies may take risks or eliminate exposures found in other strategies or broad market benchmarks that may cause performance to diverge from the performance of these other strategies or market benchmarks. These effects may have an impact on the Fund's returns, on the assets, financial and earnings position of the Fund and on the reputation of the Company. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types. Environmental, social and governance strategies will be subject to the risks associated with their underlying investments' asset classes. Further, the demand within certain markets or sectors, that an environmental, social or governance strategy targets, may not develop as forecasted or may develop more slowly than anticipated.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler Global Equities Sustainability is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

In addition to the provisions contained in the Prospectus and the UCITS Regulations the following shall, in particular, apply in respect of the Fund.

Classes of Shares

Four Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as described further on page 13.

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy

The Fund aims to achieve its investment objective by investing predominantly in equities, as outlined below. The Fund may achieve the desired exposure by direct investment in equities and equity related securities (including warrants) of global companies that are listed or traded on Recognised Markets, in accordance with the investment limits set out in Section 5 of the Prospectus. These may include common stock, preferred stock, securities convertible into equity securities, American Depositary Receipts (“ADRs”), Global Depositary Receipts (“GDRs”) or American Depositary Shares (“ADSs”). ADRs and GDRs are transferable securities in registered form certifying that a certain number of shares have been deposited with a depositary bank by whom the ADR or GDR has been issued. ADRs allow foreign equities to be traded on US exchanges and markets, and GDRs allow foreign equities to be traded on European exchanges and markets, and US exchanges and markets. ADSs are the equity shares of a non-US company that are held by a US depositary bank and are available for purchase by a US investor. ADSs are the actual US dollar denominated equity share of a foreign-based company available for purchase on an US stock exchange.

It is the intention that at least 51% of the Fund’s net assets will be invested in equities listed on a Recognised Market. Investments in warrants shall not exceed 10% of the Fund’s assets. The Fund is actively managed.

The Investment Manager seeks to construct a diversified portfolio with an emphasis on attractive business models with long-term growth prospects. While the macroeconomic environment is being considered from a top-down perspective, the Investment Manager primarily focuses on a bottom-up selection analysis to evaluate the long-term prospects of a target company’s business model. This analysis is based on various factors, including the historical and expected revenue and earnings growth profile, the external environment, market growth prospects, competitive forces as well as company-specific internal success factors. This is considered alongside an assessment of valuations, such that the Investment Manager only invests in those equities, which it believes are trading at a discount to fair value, and are accordingly positioned to outperform the wider equity market over the longer term. There will be no specific focus on industry sector or geographic location.

Warrants

A warrant is a certificate, usually issued along with a bond or preferred stock, entitling the holder to buy a specific amount of securities at a specific price, usually above the current market price at the time of issuance, for an extended period, anywhere from a few years to forever. In the case that the price of the security rises above that of the warrant's exercise price, then the investor can buy the security at the warrant's exercise price and resell it for a profit. Otherwise, the warrant will simply expire or remain unused. Warrants are listed on option exchanges and trade independently of the security with which it was issued.

An investment in a fund which invests in such equity warrants should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors.

In addition, the Fund may invest in fixed and floating rate bonds and debentures issued by corporates, governments or government-like entities (i.e., agency, supranational, government guaranteed, federal state, local authority) each having an Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating, and listed or traded on Recognised Markets.

The Fund may also invest up to a maximum of 10% of its net assets in other Investment Funds. The investment policy of such Investment Funds will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Environmental and Social Characteristics promoted by the Fund

The Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and invests in companies that apply good corporate governance. In order to achieve this, the Fund pursues the following approaches in the investment process via exclusions, Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") integration and engagement.

No Sustainable Investment Objective

The Fund does not have as its objective sustainable investment within the meaning of Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the "Disclosure Regulation").

Investment Strategy

The following procedures are implemented in the investment process on a continuous basis:

(a) Exclusions

The criterion of sustainability is defined by exclusion criteria in addition to ESG key performance indicators. The issuers of a security are considered to be unsustainable if they violate one of over 100 internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact (the "UN Global Compact") or the UN Guiding Principles on Business & Human Rights. These ten principles of the UN Global Compact promote sustainable and responsible corporate development in order to make globalisation more social and ecological. They fall into the categories of human rights, labour standards, environmental and corruption prevention. Securities of issuers that are engaged in the following controversial business areas, beyond a defined threshold, are also considered unsustainable: (a) coal energy: companies which generate more than 30 percent of their turnover from the generation of electricity from thermal coal are considered to have committed an infringement; (b) coal mining: the infringement concerns companies which derive more than 30 percent of their turnover from the extraction of thermal coal; (c) fossil fuels: companies are considered to be infringing if they generate more than 5 percent of their turnover from the extraction of oil and gas by non-conventional methods (fracking, oil sands); (d) armour: companies which derive more than 10 percent of their turnover from the production of and trade in defence equipment are considered to have committed an infringement. Also excluded are companies which produce and/or distribute controversial weapons, such as landmines and ABC weapons; (e) tobacco: producers and trading companies which achieve more than 5 percent of their turnover with end products such as cigarettes or cigars are considered to have committed an infringement.

(b) ESG Integration

The aim of ESG integration is to improve the risk/return profile of the Fund by integrating sustainability aspects into the traditional investment analysis process. The assessment of an issuer's sustainability is carried out by the Investment Manager using published information from the issuers.

The Investment Manager evaluates the economic impact of the following aspects on a company's business success:

All issuers of equities and/or corporate bonds are subject to sustainability analysis before their securities are purchased. This includes key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption. The Investment Manager's analysis covers the following topics: (a) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact; (b) management of sustainability risks: in addition to ESG ratings and scores, several key performance indicators are taken into account, e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled; (c) a climate rating for measuring the transition to a low-carbon economy; and (d) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

In addition, the Investment Manager may also rely on the sustainability assessment of external providers to evaluate the above criteria. External data providers collect information from companies or issuers on how they deal with the above-mentioned sustainability issues and generally also assess these and make this information available to the company. With regard to a violation of the ten principles of the UN Global Compact, the Investment Manager generally refers to the information in the sustainability assessments of external data providers.

(c) Engagement

Engagement will involve discussions regarding business-relevant ESG challenges related to the underlying companies. An automated ESG reporting allows for an ex-post analysis of key sustainability factors. The reporting measures relevant ESG characteristics of the Fund. It includes information on the active dialogue with companies (engagement) and execution of voting rights.

Compliance with the environmental and social characteristics is monitored on a regular basis.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

As part of its investment process, the Fund includes all relevant financial risks in its investment decision and evaluates these on an ongoing basis. In doing so, all relevant sustainability risks, including environmental, social or governance events or conditions that could have a principal adverse impact on the investment, including those that could have a significant negative impact on the return of an investment, are also taken into account, as well as the most important negative effects of an investment decision on sustainability factors. Sustainability factors include environmental, social and employee concerns, respect for human rights and the fight against corruption and bribery. Investment decisions may cause, contribute to or be directly related to a negative impact or likely to lead to a significant impact on sustainability factors. The Investment Manager's analysis of the management of sustainability risks incorporates governance analysis sourced by external data providers. It covers the boards' independence, experience and effectiveness, executive pay practices, ownership structure and reliability of reported financials. The Investment Manager engages with underlying companies via dialogue and voting rights. The Investment Manager has mandated Bank of Montreal Global Asset Management ("BMO") to exercise voting rights. The governance guidelines establish a consistent philosophy and approach to corporate governance and the exercising of voting rights.

Sustainability Indicators

The sustainability indicators used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund include:

- (a) key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption;
- (b) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact;
- (c) management of sustainability risks: in addition to ESG ratings and scores, several key performance indicators are taken into account, e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled; and
- (d) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

Use of Derivatives

The Fund will, if possible, give preference to transactions with derivatives that serve to fulfil the environmental or social characteristics of the Fund.

Further Information

Product related information as well as information on the integration of sustainability risks into the Fund's investment processes, including aspects of the organisation, risk management and governance of such processes can be found on the Manager's website at <https://www.universal-investment.com/en/permanent/profile/ireland>. The extent to which sustainability risks can influence the performance of the financial product shall be disclosed in either qualitative or quantitative terms.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities, nor are they made in economic activities that contribute to an environmental objective, within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088. Therefore, the investments are not subject to a "do no significant harm" test.

Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded equity future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has an equity index or an individual equity as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to equity markets.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or options contracts and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

It is not anticipated that the Fund will be significantly leveraged through the use of financial derivative instruments. The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

At any time the leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 250% of its net asset value. It is not anticipated that the Fund's investment in long positions will exceed 250% and in short positions 200% of its net asset value respectively.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 5-10 years and who are prepared to accept a medium to high level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of the Disclosure Regulation are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Environmental, social and governance strategies may take risks or eliminate exposures found in other strategies or broad market benchmarks that may cause performance to diverge from the performance of these other strategies or market benchmarks. These effects may have an impact on the Fund's return, on the assets, financial and earnings position of the Fund and on the reputation of the Company. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types. Environmental, social and governance strategies will be subject to the risks associated with their underlying investments' asset classes. Further, the demand within certain markets or sectors, that an environmental, social or governance strategy targets, may not develop as forecasted or may develop more slowly than anticipated.

Metzler Focus Japan Sustainability is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

Three Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as further described on page 12.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy

The investment objective will be obtained by investing predominantly in equities and/or equity related securities of companies located in Japan, which are listed or traded on Recognised Markets. These equity securities and equity related securities will include common stock, preferred stock and securities convertible into or exchangeable for such equity securities. It is the intention that at least 51% of the Fund's net assets will be invested directly in equities listed on a Recognised Market. The Fund is actively managed.

The Fund will for the most part be invested in up to 35 securities, however this number may be increased if the Investment Manager deemed it appropriate.

The Investment Manager shall endeavour to ensure that the Fund will be fully invested at all times in those securities referred to above in paragraph 1 of this "Investment Policy" section. However, the Fund may be required to increase its cash position in certain circumstances, for example (i) in preparation for repurchase, the Investment Manager may intentionally increase the cash position in the Fund, or (ii) the Fund may be required to increase its cash position where market conditions so dictate.

The Fund may also invest up to a maximum of 10% of its net assets in other Investment Funds. The investment policy of such Investment Funds will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Environmental and Social Characteristics promoted by the Fund

The Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and invests in companies that apply good corporate governance. In order to achieve this, the Fund pursues the following approaches in the investment process via exclusions, Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") integration and engagement.

No Sustainable Investment Objective

The Fund does not have as its objective sustainable investment within the meaning of Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27

November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the “Disclosure Regulation”).

Investment Strategy

The following procedures are implemented in the investment process on a continuous basis:

(a) Exclusions

The criterion of sustainability is defined by exclusion criteria in addition to ESG key performance indicators. The issuers of a security are considered to be unsustainable if they violate one of over 100 internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact (the “UN Global Compact”) or the UN Guiding Principles on Business & Human Rights. These ten principles of the UN Global Compact promote sustainable and responsible corporate development in order to make globalisation more social and ecological. They fall into the categories of human rights, labour standards, environmental and corruption prevention. Securities of issuers that are engaged in the following controversial business areas, beyond a defined threshold, are also considered unsustainable: (a) coal energy: companies which generate more than 30 percent of their turnover from the generation of electricity from thermal coal are considered to have committed an infringement; (b) coal mining: the infringement concerns companies which derive more than 30 percent of their turnover from the extraction of thermal coal; (c) fossil fuels: companies are considered to be infringing if they generate more than 5 percent of their turnover from the extraction of oil and gas by non-conventional methods (fracking, oil sands); (d) armour: companies which derive more than 10 percent of their turnover from the production of and trade in defence equipment are considered to have committed an infringement. Also excluded are companies which produce and/or distribute controversial weapons, such as landmines and ABC weapons; (e) tobacco: producers and trading companies which achieve more than 5 percent of their turnover with end products such as cigarettes or cigars are considered to have committed an infringement.

(b) ESG Integration

The aim of ESG integration is to improve the risk/return profile of the Fund by integrating sustainability aspects into the traditional investment analysis process. The assessment of an issuer's sustainability is carried out by the Investment Manager using published information from the issuers.

The Investment Manager's ESG assessment is incorporated as a basis for addressing relevant non-financial information to assess an issuer's sustainability over the medium- to long-term. ESG evaluation is conducted by the Investment Manager on the results of its ESG assessment in a proprietary framework, implemented onto the investment platform. The investment process for Japanese equities by the Investment Manager, integrates ESG evaluation and leverages it to enhance the accuracy and confidence of the medium- to long-term financial forecasts for an issuer. Constructive and purposeful dialogues in response to various ESG issues surrounding an issuer, are pursued by the Investment Manager, to foster sustainable growth of the issuer.

When considering a possible violation of the ten principles of the UN Global Compact, the Investment Manager generally refers to the information in the sustainability assessments of external data providers.

(c) Engagement

Engagement will involve discussions regarding business-relevant ESG challenges related to the underlying companies. An automated ESG reporting allows for an ex-post analysis of key sustainability factors. The reporting measures relevant ESG characteristics of the Fund. It includes information on the active dialogue with companies (engagement).

Compliance with the environmental and social characteristics is monitored on a regular basis.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

As part of its investment process, the Fund includes all relevant financial risks in its investment decision and evaluates these on an ongoing basis. In doing so, all relevant sustainability risks, including environmental, social or governance events or conditions that could have a principal adverse impact on the investment, including those that could have a significant negative impact on the return of an investment, are also taken into account, as well as the most important negative effects of an investment decision on sustainability factors. Sustainability factors include environmental, social and employee concerns, respect for human rights and the fight against corruption and bribery. Investment decisions may cause, contribute to or be directly related to a negative impact or likely to lead to a significant impact on sustainability factors. The ESG scores published by MSCI ESG Research, an independent provider of ESG data, reports and ratings based on published methodologies, are also considered as one of the relevant perspectives for investment decisions. The Investment Manager engages with underlying companies via dialogue.

Sustainability Indicators

The sustainability indicators used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund include:

(a) Environment:

- Key factors of climate change based on the TCFD (Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures) framework and other relevant perspectives such as an environmental product's effect on society.

(b) Social:

- Key factors linked to stakeholder relationships (e.g. employees, customers or business partners).

(c) Governance:

- Corporate governance mechanism and structure.

Use of Derivatives

The Fund will, if possible, give preference to transactions with derivatives that serve to fulfil the environmental or social characteristics of the Fund.

Further Information

Product related information as well as information on the integration of sustainability risks into the Fund's investment processes, including aspects of the organisation, risk management and governance of such processes can be found on the Manager's website at <https://www.universal-investment.com/en/permanent/profile/ireland>. The extent to which sustainability risks can influence the performance of the financial product shall be disclosed in either qualitative or quantitative terms.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities, nor are they made in economic activities that contribute to an environmental objective, within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088. Therefore, the investments are not subject to a "do no significant harm" test.

Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded equity future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has an equity index or an individual equity as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to equity markets.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or options contracts and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

It is not anticipated that the Fund will be significantly leveraged through the use of financial derivative instruments. The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

At any time the leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 250% of its net asset value. It is not anticipated that the Fund's investment in long positions will exceed 250% and in short positions 200% of its net asset value respectively.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 5-10 years and who are prepared to accept a medium to high level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of the Disclosure Regulation are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Environmental, social and governance strategies may take risks or eliminate exposures found in other strategies or broad market benchmarks that may cause performance to diverge from the performance of these other strategies or market benchmarks. These effects may have an impact on the Fund's return, on the assets, financial and earnings position of the Fund and on the reputation of the Company. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types. Environmental, social and governance strategies will be subject to the risks associated with their underlying investments' asset classes. Further, the demand within certain markets or sectors, that an environmental, social or governance strategy targets, may not develop as forecasted or may develop more slowly than anticipated.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler Euro Corporates Short Term Sustainability is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

Classes of Shares

Two Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as further described on page 14.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve interest income and long term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy

The Fund shall seek to attain its investment objective by investing predominantly in corporate debt securities of global issuers denominated in Euro, with a period to maturity of up to five years. Examples of such securities include, but are not limited to, fixed coupon corporate bonds and floating rate corporate bonds. The Investment Manager utilises a combination of a macro top down selection methodology and a bottom up fundamental analysis approach with regard to the selection of such securities – the asset class selection and the rating allocation will follow the top down approach and the security selection (within the selected asset classes and rating allocation) will adopt the bottom up approach. The focus will be on non-financial sector corporate debt securities. The Fund is actively managed.

In addition, the Fund may also invest in other Euro denominated debt securities such as fixed and floating rate government bonds, covered bonds, treasury notes and debentures. For the avoidance of doubt, this includes Money Market Instruments (for example, promissory notes, commercial paper). Any debt securities in which the Fund invests will have rating of at least Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating at the time of purchase, and will be listed or traded on Recognised Markets.

The Fund may also invest up to a maximum of 10% of its net assets in other Investment Funds. The investment objective and policy of such Investment Funds will be consistent with the investment objective and policy of the Fund.

The Fund may also use financial derivative instruments as set out in more detail below in the section entitled 'Use of Financial Derivative Instruments'.

It is the intention of the Fund to adhere to the investment policy referred to above as much as possible, however, market circumstances (e.g., exceptional market circumstances outside the control of the Investment Manager) may lead to temporary deviations from this policy such as increasing the cash holding in the Fund.

Environmental and Social Characteristics promoted by the Fund

The Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and invests in companies that apply good corporate governance. In order to achieve this, the Fund pursues the following approaches in the investment process via exclusions, Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") integration and engagement.

No Sustainable Investment Objective

The Fund does not have as its objective sustainable investment within the meaning of Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the "Disclosure Regulation").

Investment Strategy

The following procedures are implemented in the investment process on a continuous basis:

(a) Exclusions

The criterion of sustainability is defined by exclusion criteria in addition to ESG key performance indicators. The issuers of a security are considered to be unsustainable if they violate one of over 100 internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact (the "UN Global Compact") or the UN Guiding Principles on Business & Human Rights. These ten principles of the UN Global Compact promote sustainable and responsible corporate development in order to make globalisation more social and ecological. They fall into the categories of human rights, labour standards, environmental and corruption prevention. Securities of issuers that are engaged in the following controversial business areas, beyond a defined threshold, are also considered unsustainable: (a) coal energy: companies which generate more than 30 percent of their turnover from the generation of electricity from thermal coal are considered to have committed an infringement; (b) coal mining: the infringement concerns companies which derive more than 30 percent of their turnover from the extraction of thermal coal; (c) fossil fuels: companies are considered to be infringing if they generate more than 5 percent of their turnover from the extraction of oil and gas by non-conventional methods (fracking, oil sands); (d) armour: companies which derive more than 10 percent of their turnover from the production of and trade in defence equipment are considered to have committed an infringement. Also excluded are companies which produce and/or distribute controversial weapons, such as landmines and ABC weapons; (e) tobacco: producers and trading companies which achieve more than 5 percent of their turnover with end products such as cigarettes or cigars are considered to have committed an infringement.

(b) ESG Integration

The aim of ESG integration is to improve the risk/return profile of the Fund by integrating sustainability aspects into the traditional investment analysis process. The assessment of an issuer's sustainability is carried out by the Investment Manager using published information from the issuers.

The Investment Manager evaluates the economic impact of the following aspects on a company's business success:

All issuers of equities and/or corporate bonds are subject to sustainability analysis before their securities are purchased. This includes key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption. The Investment Manager's analysis covers the following topics: (a) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact; (b) management of sustainability risks: in addition to ESG ratings and scores, several key performance indicators are taken into account, e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled; (c) a climate rating for measuring the transition to a low-carbon economy; and (d) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

In addition, the Investment Manager may also rely on the sustainability assessment of external providers to evaluate the above criteria. External data providers collect information from companies or issuers on how they deal with the above-mentioned sustainability issues and generally also assess these and make this information available to the company. With regard to a violation of the ten principles of the UN Global Compact, the Investment Manager generally refers to the information in the sustainability assessments of external data providers.

(c) Engagement

Engagement will involve discussions regarding business-relevant ESG challenges related to the underlying companies. An automated ESG reporting allows for an ex-post analysis of key sustainability factors. The reporting measures relevant ESG characteristics of the Fund. It includes information on the active dialogue with companies (engagement) and execution of voting rights.

Compliance with the environmental and social characteristics is monitored on a regular basis.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

As part of its investment process, the Fund includes all relevant financial risks in its investment decision and evaluates these on an ongoing basis. In doing so, all relevant sustainability risks, including environmental, social or governance events or conditions that could have a principal adverse impact on the investment, including those that could have a significant negative impact on the return of an investment, are also taken into account, as well as the most important negative effects of an investment decision on sustainability factors. Sustainability factors include environmental, social and employee concerns, respect for human rights and the fight against corruption and bribery. Investment decisions may cause, contribute to or be directly related to a negative impact or likely to lead to a significant impact on sustainability factors. The Investment Manager's analysis of the management of sustainability risks incorporates governance analysis sourced by external data providers. It covers the boards' independence, experience and effectiveness, executive pay practices, ownership structure and reliability of reported financials. The Investment Manager engages with underlying companies via dialogue and voting rights. The Investment Manager has mandated Bank of Montreal Global Asset Management ("BMO") to exercise voting rights. The governance guidelines establish a consistent philosophy and approach to corporate governance and the exercising of voting rights.

Sustainability Indicators

The sustainability indicators used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund include:

- (a) key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption;
- (b) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact;
- (c) management of sustainability risks: in addition to ESG ratings and scores, several key performance indicators are taken into account, e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled; and
- (d) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

Use of Derivatives

The Fund will, if possible, give preference to transactions with derivatives that serve to fulfil the environmental or social characteristics of the Fund.

Further Information

Product related information as well as information on the integration of sustainability risks into the Fund's investment processes, including aspects of the organisation, risk management and governance of such processes can be found on the Manager's website at <https://www.universal-investment.com/en/permanent/profile/ireland>. The extent to which sustainability risks can influence the performance of the financial product shall be disclosed in either qualitative or quantitative terms.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities, nor are they made in economic activities that contribute to an environmental objective, within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088. Therefore, the investments are not subject to a "do no significant harm" test.

Use of Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded interest rate future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract with an underlying instrument that pays interest) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to interest rate or bond markets and may be used to adjust the Fund's interest rate or duration exposure.

Exchange traded bond future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has a bond index or individual bond as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to bond markets and may be used to adjust the Fund's interest rate or duration exposure.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or options contracts and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

At any time the leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 250% of its net asset value. It is not anticipated that the Fund's investment in long positions will exceed 250% and in short positions 200% of its net asset value respectively.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 2 years and who are prepared to accept a low to medium level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

Derivatives – General

The primary risks associated with the use of financial derivative instruments for investment purposes are (i) failure to predict accurately the direction of the market movements; (ii) market risks, for example, lack of liquidity or lack of correlation between the change in the value of the underlying asset and that of the value of the Fund's derivatives; and (iii) to the extent that a Fund may invest in over-the-counter derivatives transactions, credit risk with regard to parties with whom it trades and the risk of settlement default and the risk that the legal documentation of the contract may not accurately reflect the intention of the parties. In addition, a Fund may have to transact with counterparties on standard terms which it may not be able to negotiate.

Other derivative risks which may affect the Fund include the following:

Highly Volatile Markets

The prices of derivative instruments, including futures and options prices, are highly volatile. Price movements of forward contracts, futures contracts and other derivative contracts in which the Fund's assets may invest are influenced by, among other things, interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments, and national and international political and economic events and policies. In addition, governments from time to time intervene, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly those in currencies and interest rate related futures and options. Such intervention often is intended directly to influence prices and may, together with other factors, cause all of such markets to move rapidly in the same direction because of, among other things, interest rate fluctuations.

In relation to particular derivative instruments, the following risk factors should also be noted:

Currency Forwards

Currency forwards have the risk of the currency exposure in the same way as a regular currency spot transaction. Currency forwards are OTC traded and therefore have counterparty risk. Forward contracts also carry roll risk, which is the risk that when a forward contract expires, a new forward to replace the expired one cannot be put into place at the same cost or on the same hedge basis. This may occur due to changes in market liquidity or interest rates, resulting in a potential slippage or loss in the hedge position due to the contract expiration and roll.

Options

An option is the right, but not the obligation, to buy (for a call option) or sell (for a put option) a specific amount of a given stock, currency, index, or debt, at a specified price (the strike price) during a specified period of time. The Fund's option transactions may be part of a hedging strategy or a form of leverage, in which the Fund has the right to benefit from price movements in a large number of securities with a small commitment of capital. These activities involve risks that can be substantial, depending on the circumstances. In options trading, the buyer of a call option assumes the risk of losing the premium invested in the option, and the buyer of a put option assumes the risk of losing the premium paid to purchase the put option. When the Fund buys an option, a decrease (or inadequate increase) in the price of the underlying security in the case of a call, or an increase (or inadequate decrease) in the price of the underlying security in the case of a put, could result in a total loss of the Fund's investment in the option (including commissions).

Interest Rate Futures

Interest rate futures contracts are exchange traded and carry the interest rate risk (duration) of the cheapest to deliver bond in the deliverable basket, or the otherwise contractually set interest rate risk. Bond futures with a basket of allowed deliverable bonds also carry so called basis risk that can affect the returns on the margin.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of the Disclosure Regulation are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Environmental, social and governance strategies may take risks or eliminate exposures found in other strategies or broad market benchmarks that may cause performance to diverge from the performance of these other strategies or market benchmarks. These effects may have an impact on the Fund's return, on the assets, financial and earnings position of the Fund and on the reputation of the Company. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types. Environmental, social and governance strategies will be subject to the risks associated with their underlying investments' asset classes. Further, the demand within certain markets or sectors, that an environmental, social or governance strategy targets, may not develop as forecasted or may develop more slowly than anticipated.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler Wertsicherungsfonds 90 is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

Five Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as further described on page 14.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation while aiming to restrict negative returns within a calendar year to 10%, thus aiming to preserve a minimum Net Asset Value per Share (adjusted for dividend distributions) at year end of 90% of the Net Asset Value per Share at the beginning of a calendar year. To achieve this objective, the fund pursues a capital preservation strategy (Wertsicherungsstrategie).

While the Fund will aim to restrict negative returns within a calendar year to 10% in accordance with the investment objective, there is no guarantee or assurance that this objective will be met.

Investment Policy

The Fund will seek to attain its investment objective by gaining exposure to the global equity and debt securities markets. The Fund will gain this exposure by predominantly investing in global stock index derivatives and interest rate/bond derivatives. Where investment opportunities arise, the Fund may also invest directly in debt securities, equities and equity related securities (for example, ADRs, GDRs, warrants) all of which are listed or traded on a Recognised Market. Any cash not required to be paid by way of margin or premium on derivative transactions, or invested directly in equities or debt securities, may be invested in Money Market Instruments (for example, promissory notes, commercial paper). The Fund is actively managed.

The Fund will have no primary sector, geographical or capitalisation focus.

Financial derivative instruments utilised by the Investment Manager to gain exposure to the global equity and debt securities markets include global equity index futures and global interest rate/bond futures. The criterion for the selection of global stock index derivatives is the market liquidity of index futures. Examples of the indices include, but shall not be limited to, the EURO STOXX 50, TOPIX, S&P 500, FTSE 100, SMI, Hang Seng (details of which are widely available on the internet, as further described in Appendix 14 of the Prospectus). Details of the specific financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund are set out below in the section entitled 'Use of Financial Derivative Instruments'.

The debt securities in which the assets of the Fund may be invested include fixed and floating rate bonds and debentures issued or covered by corporates, governments or government-like entities (i.e., agency, supranational, government guaranteed, federal state, local authority), each having an Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating, and listed or traded on Recognised Markets.

The Fund may invest up to a maximum of 10% of its net assets in other Investment Funds. The investment policy of such Investment Funds will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

The Fund will aim to achieve a positive return while restricting negative returns that may occur in a calendar year to a predetermined limit ("Annual Risk Budget") on the basis of a dynamic (i.e., flexible and variable) asset allocation. The Annual Risk Budget is set at the beginning of each calendar year at 10% of the Net Asset Value per Share (adjusted for dividend distributions). The Investment Manager will focus on controlling systematic risk (market risk and beta risk) over time with the aim that negative returns, if any, will not exceed the Annual Risk Budget. The overall aim of generating positive returns while seeking to restrict losses during declining or volatile market conditions is achieved through a capital preservation strategy which involves the dynamic management of asset allocation between bond, equity and money market exposure. During this process, risk associated with equities and interest rates (influenced by market conditions) will be managed dynamically by the Investment Manager on the basis of a quantitative model. The quantitative model involves the Investment Manager monitoring on an ongoing basis the relative performance of the equity and bond sectors while factoring in the Fund's ongoing performance, measured against the Annual Risk Budget. Asset Allocation under the model is generally weighted towards the asset class (e.g., equities or bonds) with the better relative performance although the risk associated with each sector and the Annual Risk Budget are also important considerations for the Investment Manager. Accordingly, the proportion of equity and bond exposure is not fixed but varies according to the specific quantitative model being adopted by the Investment Manager. It is not possible, therefore, for the Investment Manager to determine specific equity and bond weightings in respect of the Fund as this will be dependent on market conditions. The Fund aims to achieve an attractive participation in positive market phases while reducing losses in declining or volatile market phases, through appropriate adjustment of the asset allocation. In difficult market conditions, the Fund may reduce equity and bond exposure in the portfolio and in extreme market conditions, in order to protect the Fund from losses in excess of the Annual Risk Budget, the equity and bond exposure could be reduced to zero leaving the Fund with exposure to Money Market Instruments.

Loss preventions, capital preservation or compliance with the Annual Risk Budget can at no time be guaranteed. The Annual Risk Budget is based on the Fund's performance over the full calendar year. Accordingly, subscriptions during the course of a year may bear higher losses than the Annual Risk Budget.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

While the Fund does not promote environmental and social characteristics, as part of its investment strategy, sustainability risks are regarded as relevant by the Investment Manager. A significant portion of the Fund's portfolio is comprised of liquid financial derivative instruments. Currently, there is insufficient information available regarding liquid financial derivative instruments which fulfil the environmental or social characteristics required for the investment strategy. Consequently, it is not possible at present for the Investment Manager to properly integrate such risks into the investment decision-making process relating to the Fund, due to the high proportion of liquid financial derivative instruments in the portfolio. Therefore, until such time as there is adequate information available regarding liquid financial derivative instruments which fulfil the social or environmental characteristics required for the investment strategy, the Investment Manager is unable to assess the likely impact of sustainability risks on the return of Fund.

The Investment Manager does not consider the adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors because liquid financial derivative instruments, which consider the adverse impacts of the investment decisions on sustainability factors, are not available.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088.

Use of Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded equity index future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has an equity index as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to equity markets.

Exchange traded interest rate future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract with an underlying instrument that pays interest) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to interest rate or bond markets and may be used to adjust the Fund's interest rate or duration exposure.

Exchange traded bond future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has a bond index or individual bond as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to bond markets and may be used to adjust the Fund's interest rate or duration exposure.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e. contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

At any time the leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 500% of its net asset value. It is not anticipated that the Fund's investment in long positions will exceed 500% and in short positions 450% of its net asset value respectively.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 5-10 years and who are prepared to accept a low to medium level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

Derivatives – General

The primary risks associated with the use of financial derivative instruments for investment purposes are (i) failure to predict accurately the direction of the market movements; (ii) market risks, for example, lack of liquidity or lack of correlation between the change in the value of the underlying asset and that of the value of the Fund's derivatives; and (iii) to the extent that a Fund may invest in over-the-counter derivatives transactions, credit risk with regard to parties with whom it trades and the risk of settlement default and the risk that the legal documentation of the contract may not accurately reflect the intention of the parties. In addition, a Fund may have to transact with counterparties on standard terms which it may not be able to negotiate.

Other derivative risks which may affect the Fund include the following:

Highly Volatile Markets

The prices of derivative instruments, including futures prices, are highly volatile. Price movements of forward contracts, futures contracts and other derivative contracts in which the Fund's assets may invest are influenced by, among other things, interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments, and national and international political and economic events and policies. In addition, governments from time to time intervene, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly those in currencies and interest rate related futures. Such intervention often is intended directly to influence prices and may, together with other factors, cause all of such markets to move rapidly in the same direction because of, among other things, interest rate fluctuations.

In relation to particular derivative instruments, the following risk factors should also be noted:

Currency Forwards

Currency forwards have the risk of the currency exposure in the same way as a regular currency spot transaction. Currency forwards are OTC traded and therefore have counterparty risk. Forward contracts also carry roll risk, which is the risk that when a forward contract expires, a new forward to replace the expired one cannot be put into place at the same cost or on the same hedge basis. This may occur due to changes in market liquidity or interest rates, resulting in a potential slippage or loss in the hedge position due to the contract expiration and roll.

Interest Rate Futures

Interest rate futures contracts are exchange traded and carry the interest rate risk (duration) of the cheapest to deliver bond in the deliverable basket, or the otherwise contractually set interest rate risk. Bond futures with a basket of allowed deliverable bonds also carry so called basis risk that can affect the returns on the margin.

Equity Index Futures and Equity Index Options

The Fund may utilise exchange traded Equity Index Futures and Equity Index Options to seek to hedge against market risk or gain exposure to an underlying equity market. Hedging against a decline in the value of a position does not eliminate fluctuations in the values of positions or prevent losses if the values of such positions decline, but establishes other positions designed to gain from those same developments, thus moderating the decline in the positions' value. Such hedging transactions also limit the opportunity for gain if the value of the portfolio position should increase. Futures prices are highly volatile, with price movements being influenced by a multitude of factors such as supply and demand relationships, government trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control policies and political and economic events in the marketplace. Futures markets are subject to comprehensive statutes, regulations and margin requirements. Further, futures trading may be illiquid as a result of daily limits on movements of prices, while the Fund's futures trading could be adversely affected by speculative position limits.

Counterparty Risk

Many of the markets in which the Investment Manager may effect its transactions are "over-the-counter" or "inter-dealer" markets. The participants in such markets are typically not subject to credit evaluation and regulatory oversight as are members of "exchange-based" markets. This exposes the Fund to the risk that a counterparty will not settle a transaction due to a credit or liquidity problem, thus causing the Fund to suffer a loss. In addition, in the case of a default, the Fund could become subject to adverse market movements while replacement transactions are executed. Such "counterparty risk" is accentuated for contracts with longer maturities where events may intervene to prevent settlement, or where the Investment Manager has concentrated their transactions with a single counterparty or small group of counterparties. Other than as disclosed herein and in compliance with the UCITS Regulations, the Investment Manager is not restricted from dealing with any particular counterparty or from concentrating any or all of its transactions with one counterparty. Moreover, the Investment Manager has a limited internal credit function which evaluates the creditworthiness of its counterparties. The ability of the Investment Manager to transact business with any one or more counterparties and the absence of a regulated market to facilitate settlement may increase the potential for losses by the Fund.

Where the Fund delivers collateral to its trading counterparties under the terms of its ISDA master agreements and other trading master agreements, either by posting initial margin or on a daily mark-to-market basis, circumstances may arise where a counterparty may be over-collateralized and/or the Fund may from time to time have uncollateralized mark-to-market exposure to a counterparty in relation to its rights to receive securities and cash. In both circumstances, although counterparty risk with respect to the Fund will be monitored and measured in accordance with the UCITS Regulations, the Fund will be exposed to the creditworthiness of any such counterparty and, in the event of the insolvency of a trading counterparty, the Fund will rank as an unsecured creditor in relation to amounts equivalent to any such over-collateralization and any uncollateralized exposure to such trading counterparty. In such circumstances it is likely that the Fund will not be able to recover any debt in full, or at all.

The Fund may trigger events of default or termination events under various counterparty agreements due to, among other things, reductions in Net Asset Value. If the Fund is unable to obtain waivers from the relevant counterparties, such counterparties could exercise numerous remedies under the affected agreements, including of posted collateral and termination of outstanding trades.

Futures Trading

The Fund may utilise futures contracts and options thereon. Futures prices are highly volatile, with price movements being influenced by a multitude of factors such as supply and demand relationships, government trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control policies and political and economic events in the marketplace. Futures markets are subject to comprehensive statutes, regulations and margin requirements. Further, futures trading may be illiquid as a result of daily limits on movements of prices, while the Fund's futures trading could be adversely affected by speculative position limits.

The Fund may open a futures position by placing with a futures commission merchant an initial margin that is small relative to the value of the futures contract, making the transaction "leveraged". If the market moves against the Fund's position or margin levels are increased, the Fund may be called upon to pay substantial additional funds on short notice to maintain its position. If the Fund were to fail to make such payments, its position could be liquidated at a loss, and the Fund would be liable for any resulting deficit in its account.

Options

The Fund may buy or sell (write) both call options and put options. The Fund's option transactions may be part of a hedging strategy or a form of leverage, in which the Fund has the right to benefit from price movements in a large number of securities with a small commitment of capital. These activities involve risks that can be substantial, depending on the circumstances. In options trading, the buyer of a call option assumes the risk of losing the premium invested in the option, and the buyer of a put option assumes the risk of losing the premium paid to purchase the put option. When the Fund buys an option, a decrease (or inadequate increase) in the price of the underlying security in the case of a call, or an increase (or inadequate decrease) in the price of the underlying security in the case of a put, could result in a total loss of the Fund's investment in the option (including commissions). The Fund could mitigate those losses by selling short, or buying puts on, the securities as to which it holds call options, or by taking a long position in securities underlying put options. If the option is on a future, the purchaser will acquire a futures position with associated liabilities for margin.

Selling ("writing" or "granting") an option generally entails considerably greater risk than purchasing options. Although the premium received by the seller is fixed, the seller may sustain a loss well in excess of that amount. The seller will be liable for additional margin to maintain the position if the market moves unfavourably. The seller will also be exposed to the risk of the purchaser exercising the option, and, upon such exercise, the seller will be obligated to either settle the option in cash or to acquire or deliver the underlying interest, depending on the terms of the option. If the option is on a future, upon exercise by the purchaser of the option, the seller will acquire a position in a future with associated liabilities for margin. In the case of an option on a future, certain exchanges in some jurisdictions permit deferred payment of the option premium, exposing the purchaser to liability for margin payments not exceeding the amount of the premium. The purchaser is still subject to the risk of losing the premium and transaction costs. When the option is exercised or expires, the purchaser is responsible for any unpaid premium outstanding at that time.

The options markets have the authority to prohibit the exercise of particular options, which if imposed when trading in the option has also been halted, would lock buyers and writers of that option into their positions until one of the two restrictions has been lifted.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the "Disclosure Regulation") are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types.

An investment horizon of at least 5-10 years is required in order to ride out potentially adverse market developments.

As a consequence of the risk factors set out in Section 15 of the Prospectus, the Company is unable to provide any guarantee, assurance or warranty to investors as to the performance of the Fund.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler Alternative Multi Strategy is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

Three Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as further described on page 15.

The Fund's investment programme is speculative and entails certain risks. There can be no assurance that the investment objective of the Fund will be achieved or that the Fund will not incur substantial losses. In addition, the use of leverage and other investment practices to be employed by the Fund can in certain circumstances substantially increase any adverse impact on the Fund's investment portfolio. An investment in the Fund should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy

The Fund will seek to attain its investment objective by investing predominantly in a broadly diversified portfolio of derivatives strategies based on the equity, bond and currency markets. The Fund is actively managed.

The derivative strategies aim to generate positive returns independent of the direction of the market, aiming to benefit both from rising as well as from falling prices of the underlying assets. Each derivative contract traded under the strategies can be bought (long) or sold (short). Details of the specific financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund are set out in the sections entitled 'Financial Derivative Instruments' and 'Borrowing and Leverage Policy' below.

The assets underlying the financial derivatives contracts will predominantly comprise global equity indices (examples of the type of global equity indices include, but are not limited to, the S&P 500, the FTSE 100 and the Dow Jones Industrial Average, details of which are widely available on the internet as further described in Appendix 14 of the Prospectus) interest rates or fixed income instruments (such as government bonds) and currencies.

The overall investment strategy of the Investment Manager can be characterised as 'Alternative Multi Strategy' which involves the Investment Manager seeking to achieve a high level of diversification by implementing a variety of investment strategies, with no specific focus on any individual asset class, instrument, sector, currency or region. The Investment Manager aims to diversify across a wide range of asset classes and underlyings. The Fund's exposure to positions with higher risk characteristics will be less than its exposure to positions with lower risk characteristics.

The Investment Manager will trade a broad range of derivatives such as futures, FX forwards and options under each of the various strategies. The strategies that the Investment Manager will apply in respect of the Fund are all quantitatively driven, rule-based and can be divided into groups, such as carry, volatility, momentum, and relative value. The strategies to be adopted can be described as follows:

- the carry strategies analyse the yield (i.e. income generated over a period of time) of global equity, bond and currency markets. Financial derivative instruments such as equity index futures, bond futures, currency futures, credit default swaps and currency forwards are traded under the carry strategies to benefit from yield differentials (i.e. difference in the yields of different asset classes) with limited directional market exposure (i.e. limited exposure to the movement in price of the underlying to the derivative);
- the volatility strategies capitalise on the existence of a volatility risk premium that serves to compensate sellers of options (call and put options) for unfavourable outcomes. The volatility risk premium can be described as the difference between the implied volatility, which reflects the expected volatility of market participants and which determines the option's price, and the subsequent realised volatility of the underlying asset. Financial derivative instruments such as options and futures are traded under the volatility strategies to obtain that premium;
- the momentum strategies capitalise from the knowledge that investors tend to either under-react or over-react after receiving new information which results in price trends. They capture trends in equity, fixed income and FX markets and produce option payoff profiles (risk/return profiles) that are replicated by dynamically trading the underlying assets (i.e. intermittently adjusting the assets to suit market conditions) using exchange-traded futures and FX forwards. The Investment Manager's FX policy in this regard is to actively manage FX positions based on the recent trend of each currency (i.e. the Fund will buy currencies that have been rising recently and will sell currencies that have been falling);
- the relative value strategies analyse the relative performance of global equity, bond and currency markets. Financial derivative instruments such as equity index futures, bond futures, currency futures and currency forwards are traded under the relative value strategies to benefit from mean reversion (i.e. the assumption that the price will eventually revert back to its long-run mean) with limited directional market exposure.

The above strategies can be divided into two groups: alternative risk premia (carry strategies and volatility strategies) and market inefficiencies (momentum strategies and relative value strategies). Alternative risk premia are characterised as natural sources of return as they compensate investors for taking systematic risk. As such, this group serves as the main return driver. However, all risk premia will be affected by periods of strong risk aversion. In order to provide diversification, the Investment Manager also applies strategies that exploit the market inefficiencies that are most prevalent during periods of market stress. All strategies are rules based and quantitatively driven, i.e. an algorithm determines the individual positions. The Investment Manager aims to allocate a similar risk budget to strategies and across all asset classes.

The Investment Manager uses a combination of these strategies, and the theories behind them, to select the Fund's portfolio of derivative contracts and also to determine the timing of opening/closing the contracts. This is a systematic process and is designed to achieve broad diversification across the whole portfolio in terms of the strategies used, exposure to asset classes and time horizons. Current market volatility is constantly monitored by the Investment Manager and this volatility is used to systematically identify and update optimum portfolio positions and weightings. The use of a combination of strategies reduces the weaknesses of individual strategies in certain market phases and aims to consistently improve the risk-return profile of the Fund.

Any cash not required to be paid by way of margin or premium on derivative transactions may be invested in Money Market Instruments (for example, promissory notes, commercial paper) or bonds. The Fund may invest in fixed and floating rate bonds and debentures issued or covered by corporates, governments or government-like entities (i.e., agency, supranational, government guaranteed, federal state, local authority) each having an Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating, and listed or traded on Recognised Markets.

The Fund may also invest up to a maximum of 10% of its net assets in other Investment Funds. The investment policy of such Investment Funds will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

While the Fund does not promote environmental and social characteristics, as part of its investment strategy, sustainability risks are regarded as relevant by the Investment Manager. A significant portion of the Fund's portfolio is comprised of liquid financial derivative instruments. Currently, there is insufficient information available regarding liquid financial derivative instruments which fulfil the environmental or social characteristics required for the investment strategy. Consequently, it is not possible at present for the Investment Manager to properly integrate such risks into the investment decision-making process relating to the Fund, due to the high proportion of liquid financial derivative instruments in the portfolio. Therefore, until such time as there is adequate information available regarding liquid financial derivative instruments which fulfil the social or environmental characteristics required for the investment strategy, the Investment Manager is unable to assess the likely impact of sustainability risks on the return of Fund.

The Investment Manager does not consider the adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors because liquid financial derivative instruments, which consider the adverse impacts of the investment decisions on sustainability factors, are not available.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088.

Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded equity future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has an equity index or an individual equity as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to equity markets.

Exchange traded bond futures and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has a bond index or an individual bond as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure bond markets and may be used to adjust the Fund's interest rate or duration exposure.

Exchange traded interest rate future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract with an underlying instrument that pays interest) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to interest rate or bond markets and may be used to adjust the Fund's interest rate or duration exposure.

Over the counter Credit Default Swaps (CDS) (i.e., a contract which has a bond index or an individual bond as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to bond markets and may be used to manage the Fund's credit risk.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or options contracts and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

The average leverage arising out of the derivatives described above, and calculated in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, is expected to be approximately 500% to 1100% of Net Asset Value. However, it is anticipated that the maximum leverage may be up to 1,400% of Net Asset Value under certain market conditions, such as in periods of low volatility, whereby financial derivative instruments, as outlined above, with large notional amounts are entered into (thereby increasing the leverage figure which is calculated by adding together these notional amounts). Such leverage typically consists of both long and short positions, where the expected maximum short positions (being part of the total leverage) may be up to 1000% of the Net Asset Value and long exposures are anticipated to be between 0% and 1,400%.

Profile of the Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 5-10 years and who are prepared to accept a medium to high level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

Derivatives – General

Subject to the conditions and within the limits from time to time laid down by the Central Bank, and except where otherwise stated in the investment objective and policies of the Fund, the Fund may engage in transactions in financial derivative instruments, whether for hedging purposes or investment purposes.

The investments made in this Fund may be subject to substantial fluctuations and no guarantee can be given that the value of the derivatives positions will not be negative.

The factors that may trigger such fluctuations or can influence their scale include but are not limited to:

- Fluctuations in equity markets
- Changes in interest rates
- Changes in exchange rates
- Changes in the volatility of the relevant assets
- Changes in the correlation between the relevant assets

By diversifying investments, the Investment Manager endeavours to partially mitigate the negative impact of such risks on the value of the Fund.

Furthermore, investors should be aware of the following particular risks which arise as a result of the Fund's investment policy with respect to employing FDIs:

Counterparty Risk

Many of the markets in which the Investment Manager may effect its transactions are "over-the-counter" or "inter-dealer" markets. The participants in such markets are typically not subject to credit evaluation and regulatory oversight as are members of "exchange-based" markets. This exposes the Fund to the risk that a counterparty will not settle a transaction due to a credit or liquidity problem, thus causing the Fund to suffer a loss. In addition, in the case of a default, the Fund could become subject to adverse market movements while replacement transactions are executed. Such "counterparty risk" is accentuated for contracts with longer maturities where events may intervene to prevent settlement, or where the Investment Manager has concentrated their transactions with a single counterparty or small group of counterparties. Other than as disclosed herein and in compliance with the UCITS Regulations, the Investment Manager is not restricted from dealing with any particular counterparty or from concentrating any or all of its transactions with one counterparty. Moreover, the Investment Manager has a limited internal credit function which evaluates the creditworthiness of its counterparties. The ability of the Investment Manager to transact business with any one or more counterparties and the absence of a regulated market to facilitate settlement may increase the potential for losses by the Fund.

Where the Fund delivers collateral to its trading counterparties under the terms of its ISDA master agreements and other trading master agreements, either by posting initial margin or on a daily mark-to-market basis, circumstances may arise where a counterparty may be overcollateralized and/or the Fund may from time to time have uncollateralized mark-to-market exposure to a counterparty in relation to its rights to receive securities and cash. In both circumstances, although counterparty risk with respect to the Fund will be monitored and measured in accordance with the UCITS Regulations, the Fund will be exposed to the creditworthiness of any such counterparty and, in the event of the insolvency of a trading counterparty, the Fund will rank as an unsecured creditor in relation to amounts equivalent to any such over-collateralization and any uncollateralized exposure to such trading counterparty. In such circumstances it is likely that the Fund will not be able to recover any debt in full, or at all.

The Fund may trigger events of default or termination events under various counterparty agreements due to, among other things, reductions in Net Asset Value. If the Fund is unable to obtain waivers from the relevant counterparties, such counterparties could exercise numerous remedies under the affected agreements, including of posted collateral and termination of outstanding trades.

Options

The Fund may buy or sell (write) both call options and put options. The Fund's option transactions may be part of a hedging strategy or a form of leverage, in which the Fund has the right to benefit from price movements in a large number of securities with a small commitment of capital. These activities involve risks that can be substantial, depending on the circumstances. In options trading, the buyer of a call option assumes the risk of losing the premium invested in the option, and the buyer of a put option assumes the risk of losing the premium paid to purchase the put option. When the Fund buys an option, a decrease (or inadequate increase) in the price of the underlying security in the case of a call, or an increase (or inadequate decrease) in the price of the underlying security in the case of a put, could result in a total loss of the Fund's investment in the option (including commissions). The Fund could mitigate those losses by selling short, or buying puts on, the securities as to which it holds call options, or by taking a long position in securities underlying put options. If the option is on a future, the purchaser will acquire a futures position with associated liabilities for margin.

Selling ("writing" or "granting") an option generally entails considerably greater risk than purchasing options. Although the premium received by the seller is fixed, the seller may sustain a loss well in excess of that amount. The seller will be liable for additional margin to maintain the position if the market moves unfavourably. The seller will also be exposed to the risk of the purchaser exercising the option, and, upon such exercise, the seller will be obligated to either settle the option in cash or to acquire or deliver the underlying interest, depending on the terms of the option. If the option is on a future, upon exercise by the purchaser of the option, the seller will acquire a position in a future with associated liabilities for margin. In the case of an option on a future, certain exchanges in some jurisdictions permit deferred payment of the option premium, exposing the purchaser to liability for margin payments not exceeding the amount of the premium. The purchaser is still subject to the risk of losing the premium and transaction costs. When the option is exercised or expires, the purchaser is responsible for any unpaid premium outstanding at that time.

The options markets have the authority to prohibit the exercise of particular options, which if imposed when trading in the option has also been halted, would lock buyers and writers of that option into their positions until one of the two restrictions has been lifted.

Combination Transactions

The Fund may engage in spreads or other combination options transactions involving the purchase and sale of related exchange traded or OTC options and futures contracts. These transactions are considerably more complex than the purchase or writing of single options. They involve the risk that executing simultaneously two or more buy or sell orders at the desired prices may be difficult or impossible, the possibility that a loss could be incurred on both sides of a multiple options transaction, and the possibility of significantly increased risk exposure resulting from the hedge against loss inherent in most spread positions being lost as a result of the assignment of an exercise to the short leg of a spread while the long leg remains outstanding. In addition, the transaction costs of combination options transactions can be especially significant due to separate costs being incurred on each component of the combination.

Futures Trading

The Fund may utilise futures contracts and options thereon. Futures prices are highly volatile, with price movements being influenced by a multitude of factors such as supply and demand relationships, government trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control policies, political and economic events and emotions in the marketplace. Futures markets are subject to comprehensive statutes, regulations and margin requirements. Further, futures trading may be illiquid as a result of daily limits on movements of prices, while the Fund's futures trading could be adversely affected by speculative position limits.

The Fund may open a futures position by placing with a futures commission merchant an initial margin that is small relative to the value of the futures contract, making the transaction "leveraged". If the market moves against the Fund's position or margin levels are increased, the Fund may be called upon to pay substantial additional funds on short notice to maintain its position. If the Fund were to fail to make such payments, its position could be liquidated at a loss, and the Fund would be liable for any resulting deficit in its account.

Forward Contracts

The Fund may trade forward contracts in the interbank currency market. Such forward contracts are not traded on exchanges; rather, banks and dealers act as principals in these markets, negotiating each transaction on an individual basis.

In general, governmental authorities do not regulate trading in forward contracts; there is no limitation on daily price movements and speculative position limits are not applicable. The principals who deal in the forward markets are not required to continue to make markets in the currencies or commodities they trade and these markets can experience periods of illiquidity, sometimes of significant duration. There have been periods during which certain participants in these markets have refused to quote prices for certain currencies or commodities or have quoted prices with an unusually wide spread between the price at which they were prepared to buy and that at which they were prepared to sell. Disruptions can occur in any market traded by the Fund due to unusually high trading volume, political intervention or other factors. The imposition of controls by governmental authorities might also limit such forward trading to less than that which the Investment Manager would otherwise recommend, to the possible detriment of the Fund. Market illiquidity or disruption could result in major losses to the Fund.

Highly Volatile Derivative Instruments

The prices of derivative instruments, including options, are highly volatile. Price movements of forward contracts and other derivative contracts in which the Fund's assets may be invested are influenced by, among other things, interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programs and policies of governments, and national and international political and economic events and policies. In addition, governments from time to time intervene, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly those in currencies and financial instrument options. The Fund also is subject to the risk of the failure of any of the exchanges on which its positions trade or of their clearing houses.

Credit Default Swap Risks

Credit Default Swaps (CDS) are two-party financial derivative contracts and therefore carry derivative risk and counterparty risk. In addition, because CDS are two-party contracts and may have terms of greater than seven days, CDS contracts may be considered to be illiquid or difficult to value. The CDS market is largely unregulated.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the "Disclosure Regulation") are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler Wertsicherungsfonds 98 is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

In addition to the provisions contained in the Prospectus and the UCITS Regulations the following shall, in particular, apply in respect of the Fund.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation while aiming to restrict negative returns within a calendar year to 2%, thus aiming to preserve a minimum Net Asset Value per Share (adjusted for dividend distributions) at year end of 98% of the Net Asset Value per Share at the beginning of a calendar year. To achieve this objective, the fund pursues a capital preservation strategy (Wertsicherungsstrategie).

While the Fund will aim to restrict negative returns within a calendar year to 2% in accordance with the investment objective, there is no guarantee or assurance that this objective will be met.

Investment Policy

The Fund will seek to attain its investment objective by gaining exposure to the EU debt securities markets and the global equity markets. The Fund will gain this exposure by predominantly investing in EU interest rate/bond derivatives and global equity index derivatives. Financial derivative instruments utilised by the Investment Manager to gain exposure to the EU debt securities and global equity markets include EU interest rate bond futures and global equity index futures. The criterion for the selection of such futures is the market liquidity of the relevant futures. Examples of the global equity indices include, but shall not be limited to, the EURO STOXX 50, TOPIX, S&P 500, FTSE 100, SMI, Hang Seng (details of which are widely available on the internet as further described in Appendix 14 of the Prospectus). Details of the specific financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund are set out below in the section entitled 'Use of Financial Derivative Instruments'. The Fund is actively managed.

Where investment opportunities arise, the Fund may also invest directly in EU debt securities, and global equities and equity related securities (for example, ADRs, GDRs, warrants), all of which are listed or traded on a Recognised Market. The debt securities in which the assets of the Fund may be invested include fixed and floating rate bonds and debentures issued or covered by corporates, governments or government-like entities (i.e., agency, supranational, government guaranteed, federal state, local authority) each having an Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating, and are listed or traded on Recognised Markets.

Depending on market conditions, the Fund may be fully invested in the EU debt securities markets. Exposure to the equity markets will be limited to 20% of its Net Asset Value and this exposure will have no primary sector, geographical or capitalisation focus.

Any cash not required to be paid by way of margin or premium on derivative transactions, or invested directly in debt securities or equities, may be invested in Money Market Instruments (for example, promissory notes, commercial paper).

The Fund may invest up to a maximum of 10% of its net assets in other Investment Funds. The investment policy of such Investment Funds will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

The Fund will aim to achieve a positive return while restricting negative returns that may occur in a calendar year to a predetermined limit ("Annual Risk Budget") on the basis of a dynamic (i.e., flexible and variable) asset allocation. The Annual Risk Budget is set at the beginning of each calendar year at 2% of the Net Asset Value per Share (adjusted for dividend distributions). The Investment Manager will focus on controlling systematic risk (market risk and beta risk) over time with the aim that negative returns, if any, will not exceed the Annual Risk Budget. The overall aim of generating positive returns while seeking to restrict losses during declining or volatile market conditions is achieved through a capital preservation strategy which involves the dynamic management of asset allocation between bond, equity and money market exposure. During this process, risk associated with equities and interest rates (influenced by market conditions) will be managed dynamically by the Investment Manager on the basis of a quantitative model. The quantitative model involves the Investment Manager monitoring on an ongoing basis the relative performance of the equity and bond sectors while factoring in the Fund's ongoing performance, measured against the Annual Risk Budget. Asset Allocation under the model is generally weighted towards the asset class (e.g., equities or bonds) with the better relative performance although the risk associated with each sector and the Annual Risk Budget are also important considerations for the Investment Manager. Accordingly, the proportion of equity and bond exposure is not fixed but varies according to the specific quantitative model being adopted by the Investment Manager. It is not possible, therefore, for the Investment Manager to determine specific equity and bond weightings in respect of the Fund as this will be dependent on market conditions. The Fund aims to achieve an attractive participation in positive market phases while reducing losses in declining or volatile market phases, through appropriate adjustment of the asset allocation. In difficult market conditions, the Fund may reduce equity and bond exposure in the portfolio and in extreme market conditions, in order to protect the Fund from losses in excess of the Annual Risk Budget, the equity and bond exposure could be reduced to zero leaving the Fund with exposure to Money Market Instruments.

Loss preventions, capital preservation or compliance with the Annual Risk Budget can at no time be guaranteed. The Annual Risk Budget is based on the Fund's performance over the full calendar year. Accordingly, subscriptions during the course of a year may bear higher losses than the Annual Risk Budget.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

While the Fund does not promote environmental and social characteristics, as part of its investment strategy, sustainability risks are regarded as relevant by the Investment Manager. A significant portion of the Fund's portfolio is comprised of liquid financial derivative instruments. Currently, there is insufficient information available regarding liquid financial derivative instruments which fulfil the environmental or social characteristics required for the investment strategy. Consequently, it is not possible at present for the Investment Manager to properly integrate such risks into the investment decision-making process relating to the Fund, due to the high proportion of liquid financial derivative instruments in the portfolio. Therefore, until such time as there is adequate information available regarding liquid financial derivative instruments which fulfil the social or environmental characteristics required for the investment strategy, the Investment Manager is unable to assess the likely impact of sustainability risks on the return of Fund.

The Investment Manager does not consider the adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors because liquid financial derivative instruments, which consider the adverse impacts of the investment decisions on sustainability factors, are not available.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088.

Use of Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded equity index futures and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has an equity index as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to equity markets.

Exchange traded interest index futures and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract with an underlying instrument that pays interest) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to interest rate or bond markets and may be used to adjust the Fund's interest rate or duration exposure.

Exchange traded bond future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has a bond index or individual bond as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to bond markets and may be used to adjust the Fund's interest rate or duration exposure.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

At any time the leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 350% of its net asset value. It is not anticipated that the Fund's investment in long positions will exceed 350% and in short positions 300% of its net asset value respectively.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 2 years and who are prepared to accept a low to medium level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

Derivatives – General

The primary risks associated with the use of financial derivative instruments for investment purposes are (i) failure to predict accurately the direction of the market movements; (ii) market risks, for example, lack of liquidity or lack of correlation between the change in the value of the underlying asset and that of the value of the Fund's derivatives; and (iii) to the extent that a Fund may invest in over-the-counter derivatives transactions, credit risk with regard to parties with whom it trades and the risk of settlement default and the risk that the legal documentation of the contract may not accurately reflect the intention of the parties. In addition, a Fund may have to transact with counterparties on standard terms which it may not be able to negotiate.

Other derivative risks which may affect the Fund include the following:

Highly Volatile Markets

The prices of derivative instruments, including futures prices, are highly volatile. Price movements of forward contracts, futures contracts and other derivative contracts in which the Fund's assets may invest are influenced by, among other things, interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments, and national and international political and economic events and policies. In addition, governments from time to time intervene, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly those in currencies and interest rate related futures. Such intervention often is intended directly to influence prices and may, together with other factors, cause all of such markets to move rapidly in the same direction because of, among other things, interest rate fluctuations.

In relation to particular derivative instruments, the following risk factors should also be noted:

Currency Forwards

Currency forwards have the risk of the currency exposure in the same way as a regular currency spot transaction. Currency forwards are OTC traded and therefore have counterparty risk. Forward contracts also carry roll risk, which is the risk that when a forward contract expires, a new forward to replace the expired one cannot be put into place at the same cost or on the same hedge basis. This may occur due to changes in market liquidity or interest rates, resulting in a potential slippage or loss in the hedge position due to the contract expiration and roll.

Interest Rate Futures

Interest rate futures contracts are exchange traded and carry the interest rate risk (duration) of the cheapest to deliver bond in the deliverable basket, or the otherwise contractually set interest rate risk. Bond futures with a basket of allowed deliverable bonds also carry so called basis risk that can affect the returns on the margin.

Equity Index Futures

The Fund may utilise exchange traded equity index futures to seek to hedge against market risk or gain exposure to an underlying equity market. Hedging against a decline in the value of a position does not eliminate fluctuations in the values of positions or prevent losses if the values of such positions decline, but establishes other positions designed to gain from those same developments, thus moderating the decline in the positions' value. Such hedging transactions also limit the opportunity for gain if the value of the portfolio position should increase. Futures prices are highly volatile, with price movements being influenced by a multitude of factors such as supply and demand relationships, government trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control policies, political and economic events and emotions in the marketplace. Futures markets are subject to comprehensive statutes, regulations and margin requirements. Further, futures trading may be illiquid as a result of daily limits on movements of prices, while the Fund's futures trading could be adversely affected by speculative position limits.

Counterparty Risk

Many of the markets in which the Investment Manager may effect its transactions are "over-the-counter" or "inter-dealer" markets. The participants in such markets are typically not subject to credit evaluation and regulatory oversight as are members of "exchange-based" markets. This exposes the Fund to the risk that a counterparty will not settle a transaction due to a credit or liquidity problem, thus causing the Fund to suffer a loss. In addition, in the case of a default, the Fund could become subject to adverse market movements while replacement transactions are executed. Such "counterparty risk" is accentuated for contracts with longer maturities where events may intervene to prevent settlement, or where the Investment Manager has concentrated their transactions with a single counterparty or small group of counterparties. Other than as disclosed herein and in compliance with the UCITS Regulations, the Investment Manager is not restricted from dealing with any particular counterparty or from concentrating any or all of its transactions with one counterparty. Moreover, the Investment Manager has a limited internal credit function which evaluates the creditworthiness of its counterparties. The ability of the Investment Manager to transact business with any one or more counterparties and the absence of a regulated market to facilitate settlement may increase the potential for losses by the Fund.

Where the Fund delivers collateral to its trading counterparties under the terms of its ISDA master agreements and other trading master agreements, either by posting initial margin or on a daily mark-to-market basis, circumstances may arise where a counterparty may be over-collateralized and/or the Fund may from time to time have uncollateralized mark-to-market exposure to a counterparty in relation to its rights to receive securities and cash. In both circumstances, although counterparty risk with respect to the Fund will be monitored and measured in accordance with the UCITS Regulations, the Fund will be exposed to the creditworthiness of any such counterparty and, in the event of the insolvency of a trading counterparty, the Fund will rank as an unsecured creditor in relation to amounts equivalent to any such over-collateralization and any uncollateralized exposure to such trading counterparty. In such circumstances it is likely that the Fund will not be able to recover any debt in full, or at all.

The Fund may trigger events of default or termination events under various counterparty agreements due to, among other things, reductions in Net Asset Value. If the Fund is unable to obtain waivers from the relevant counterparties, such counterparties could exercise numerous remedies under the affected agreements, including of posted collateral and termination of outstanding trades.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the "Disclosure Regulation") are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler Sovereign Select LCR Sustainability is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

Five Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as further described on page 12.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve interest income and long term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy

The Fund shall seek to attain its investment objective by investing at least 90 per cent of its net asset value in global sovereign debt securities issued by governments or German Bundesländer (local German federal states). The Fund will have no geographical focus and the portfolio will be constructed independent of any benchmark. The Fund is actively managed.

The investment focus will be on countries with liquid local government bond markets and sustainable government debt. In the context of its investment selection strategy, the Investment Manager will analyse fundamental economic factors such as, but not limited to, a country's gross domestic product (GDP), debt indicators and the term structure of government bond yields. The investment selection process is not solely based on market capitalisation (volume of outstanding government bonds) and therefore may exhibit strong deviations from cap-weighted benchmark indices. For the avoidance of doubt, the Fund allows for exposure to liquid emerging market debt.

Any debt securities in which the Fund invests will be listed or traded on Recognised Markets.

Debt securities issued by EU or European Economic Area (EEA) governments will have a rating of at least Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating on an ongoing basis. Debt securities issued by governments outside the EU or EEA will have a minimum rating of A-/A3 or Equivalent Rating on an ongoing basis.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Fund may hold, on an on-going basis, no more than 40 percent of its NAV in debt securities issued by government issuers outside the EU or EEA with a rating below AA-/Aa3 or Equivalent Rating.

Securities issued by German Bundesländer will have a rating of at least AA-/Aa3 on an ongoing basis.

The Fund may not purchase any debt securities rated lower than the aforementioned minimum ratings. For the avoidance of doubt, investment in sub-investment grade securities will not be permitted.

The Fund cannot invest in other Investment Funds, including exchange traded funds (ETFs).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Fund's cash exposure will be limited to bank deposits. It is not anticipated that more than 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund will be invested in bank deposits.

It is intended that currency exposure will be hedged through the use of currency forward contracts. In addition, the Fund may also use other financial derivative instruments as set out in more detail below in the section entitled 'Use of Financial Derivative Instruments'.

Notwithstanding the above, in the event that an investment is no longer compliant with the aforementioned investment policy, the Manager shall procure the disposal of the relevant investment within 30 calendar days.

It is the intention of the Fund to adhere to the investment policy referred to above as much as possible, however, market circumstances (e.g., exceptional market circumstances outside the control of the Investment Manager) may lead to temporary deviations from this policy such as increasing the cash holding in the Fund. By adopting the above investment policy, the Fund shall be managed in accordance with the eligibility rules for the Liquidity Coverage Ratio imposed by Basel III (i.e., the LCR Regulations). The LCR Regulations are designed to ensure that a credit institution holds sufficient high quality liquid assets to cover its own liquidity needs.

An investment in a fund which invests in Emerging Markets should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors.

Environmental and Social Characteristics promoted by the Fund

The Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and invests in sovereign debt issued by issuers that apply good corporate governance practices. In order to achieve this, the Fund pursues the following approaches in the investment process via exclusions and Environmental, Social or Governance ("ESG") integration.

No Sustainable Investment Objective

The Fund does not have as its objective sustainable investment within the meaning of Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the "Disclosure Regulation").

Investment Strategy

The following procedures are implemented in the investment process on a continuous basis:

(a) Exclusions

The criterion of sustainability is defined by exclusion criteria in addition to ESG key performance indicators. The issuers of a security are considered to be unsustainable if; (i) they are classified as "not-free" according to the non-governmental organisation Freedom House. Freedom House rates people's access to political rights and civil liberties in 210 countries and territories through its annual "Freedom in the World" report; (ii) the peace status is classified as "very low" according to the Global Peace Index produced by the Institute for Economics and Peace; (iii) they are classified as "particularly corrupt" as defined by Transparency International's

Corruption Perceptions Index; (iv) they have a high frequency of money laundering cases, as published by the Basel Institute on Governance in its annual Basel Anti-Money Laundering Index.

(b) ESG Integration

The aim of ESG integration is to improve the risk/return profile of the Fund by integrating sustainability aspects into the traditional investment analysis process. The assessment of an issuer's sustainability is carried out by the Investment Manager using published information from external data providers. The Investment Manager assesses a country's exposure to and management of ESG risk factors affecting its value creation process. The assessment is based on the MSCI ESG Government Ratings.

Compliance with the environmental and social characteristics is monitored on a regular basis.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

As part of its investment process, the Fund includes all relevant financial risks in its investment decision and evaluates these on an ongoing basis. In doing so, all relevant sustainability risks, including environmental, social or governance events or conditions that could have a principal adverse impact on the investment, including those that could have a significant negative impact on the return of an investment, are also taken into account, as well as the most important negative effects of an investment decision on sustainability factors. Sustainability factors include environmental, social concerns, respect for human rights and the fight against corruption and bribery. Investment decisions may cause, contribute to or be directly related to a negative impact or likely to lead to a significant impact on sustainability factors. The Investment Manager's analysis of the management of sustainability risks incorporates governance analysis sourced by external data providers.

Sustainability Indicators

The sustainability indicators used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund include:

- (a) access to political rights and civil liberties, classified according to the non-governmental organisation Freedom House in its annual "Freedom in the World" report;
- (b) the level of corruption as classified by Transparency International's Corruption Perceptions Index;
- (c) the peace status, classified according to the Global Peace Index produced by the Institute for Economics and Peace;
- (d) the frequency of money laundering cases, ascertained from the annual Basel Anti-Money Laundering Index published by the Basel Institute on Governance; and
- (e) exposure to and management of ESG risk factors, based on the MSCI ESG Government Ratings.

Use of Derivatives

The Fund will, if possible, give preference to transactions with derivatives that serve to fulfil the environmental or social characteristics of the Fund.

Further Information

Product related information as well as information on the integration of sustainability risks into the Fund's investment processes, including aspects of the organisation, risk management and governance of such processes can be found on the Manager's website at <https://www.universal-investment.com/en/permanent/profile/ireland>. The extent to which sustainability risks can influence the performance of the financial product shall be disclosed in either qualitative or quantitative terms.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities, nor are they made in economic activities that contribute to an environmental objective, within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088. Therefore, the investments are not subject to a "do no significant harm" test.

Use of Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded interest rate futures (i.e., a contract with an underlying instrument that pays interest) may be used to hedge exposure to interest rates or bond markets.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or options contracts and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge currency exposure.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

At any time the leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 250% of its net asset value. It is not anticipated that the Fund's investment in long positions will exceed 250% and in short positions 200% of its net asset value respectively.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 3 years and who are prepared to accept a low to medium level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of the Disclosure Regulation are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Environmental, social and governance strategies may take risks or eliminate exposures found in other strategies or broad market benchmarks that may cause performance to diverge from the performance of these other strategies or market benchmarks. These effects may have an impact on the Fund's return, on the assets, financial and earnings position of the Fund and on the reputation of the Company. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types. Environmental, social and governance strategies will be subject to the risks associated with their underlying investments' asset classes. Further, the demand within certain markets or sectors, that an environmental, social or governance strategy targets, may not develop as forecasted or may develop more slowly than anticipated.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler European Dividend Sustainability is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

Five Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as further described on page 13.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy

The investment objective will be attained by investing predominantly in European equities and equity related securities such as, but not limited to, warrants, ADRs and GDRs, that are listed or traded on Recognised Markets. The Fund is actively managed.

The main investment focus of the investment portfolio will be on companies with an historical record of paying dividends, or with a high potential to pay dividends in the future. It is the intention that at least 75% of the Fund's net assets will be invested directly in equities listed on a Recognised Market.

The Fund will have no industry or market capitalisation focus.

The Fund may also invest up to a maximum of 10% of its net assets in other Investment Funds. The investment policy of such Investment Funds will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Exposure to currencies and equity markets may be hedged through the use of currency forward contracts, equity futures and equity options contracts. Further detail in relation to the Fund's use of financial derivative instruments is set out below in the section entitled "Use of Financial Derivative Instruments".

An investment in a fund which invests in warrants should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors.

Environmental and Social Characteristics promoted by the Fund

In addition to the "dividend" investment focus, the Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and invests in companies that apply good corporate governance. In order to achieve this, the Fund pursues the following approaches in the investment process via exclusions, Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") integration and engagement.

No Sustainable Investment Objective

The Fund does not have as its objective sustainable investment within the meaning of Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the “Disclosure Regulation”).

Investment Strategy

The following procedures are implemented in the investment process on a continuous basis:

(a) Exclusions

The criterion of sustainability is defined by exclusion criteria in addition to ESG key performance indicators. The issuers of a security are considered to be unsustainable if they violate one of over 100 internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact (the “UN Global Compact”) or the UN Guiding Principles on Business & Human Rights. These ten principles of the UN Global Compact promote sustainable and responsible corporate development in order to make globalisation more social and ecological. They fall into the categories of human rights, labour standards, environmental and corruption prevention. Securities of issuers that are engaged in the following controversial business areas, beyond a defined threshold, are also considered unsustainable: (a) coal energy: companies which generate more than 30 percent of their turnover from the generation of electricity from thermal coal are considered to have committed an infringement; (b) coal mining: the infringement concerns companies which derive more than 30 percent of their turnover from the extraction of thermal coal; (c) fossil fuels: companies are considered to be infringing if they generate more than 5 percent of their turnover from the extraction of oil and gas by non-conventional methods (fracking, oil sands); (d) armour: companies which derive more than 10 percent of their turnover from the production of and trade in defence equipment are considered to have committed an infringement. Also excluded are companies which produce and/or distribute controversial weapons, such as landmines and ABC weapons; (e) tobacco: producers and trading companies which achieve more than 5 percent of their turnover with end products such as cigarettes or cigars are considered to have committed an infringement.

(b) ESG Integration

The aim of ESG integration is to improve the risk/return profile of the Fund by integrating sustainability aspects into the traditional investment analysis process. The assessment of an issuer's sustainability is carried out by the Investment Manager using published information from the issuers.

The Investment Manager evaluates the economic impact of the following aspects on a company's business success:

All issuers of equities and/or corporate bonds are subject to sustainability analysis before their securities are purchased. This includes key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption. The Investment Manager's analysis covers the following topics: (a) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact; (b) management of sustainability risks: in addition to ESG ratings and scores, several key performance indicators are taken into account, e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled; (c) a climate rating for measuring the transition to a low-carbon economy; and (d) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

In addition, the Investment Manager may also rely on the sustainability assessment of external providers to evaluate the above criteria. External data providers collect information from companies or issuers on how they deal with the above-mentioned sustainability issues and generally also assess these and make this information available to the company. With regard to a violation of the ten principles of the UN Global Compact, the Investment Manager generally refers to the information in the sustainability assessments of external data providers.

(c) Engagement

Engagement will involve discussions regarding business-relevant ESG challenges related to the underlying companies. An automated ESG reporting allows for an ex-post analysis of key sustainability factors. The reporting measures relevant ESG characteristics of the Fund. It includes information on the active dialogue with companies (engagement) and execution of voting rights.

Compliance with the environmental and social characteristics is monitored on a regular basis.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

As part of its investment process, the Fund includes all relevant financial risks in its investment decision and evaluates these on an ongoing basis. In doing so, all relevant sustainability risks, including environmental, social or governance events or conditions that could have a principal adverse impact on the investment, including those that could have a significant negative impact on the return of an investment, are also taken into account, as well as the most important negative effects of an investment decision on sustainability factors. Sustainability factors include environmental, social and employee concerns, respect for human rights and the fight against corruption and bribery. Investment decisions may cause, contribute to or be directly related to a negative impact or likely to lead to a significant impact on sustainability factors. The Investment Manager's analysis of the management of sustainability risks incorporates governance analysis sourced by external data providers. It covers the boards' independence, experience and effectiveness, executive pay practices, ownership structure and reliability of reported financials. The Investment Manager engages with underlying companies via dialogue and voting rights. The Investment Manager has mandated Bank of Montreal Global Asset Management ("BMO") to exercise voting rights. The governance guidelines establish a consistent philosophy and approach to corporate governance and the exercising of voting rights.

Sustainability Indicators

The sustainability indicators used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund include:

- (a) key figures on climate change and other environmental issues, negative impacts on social and employee matters, human rights, and the fight against corruption;
- (b) involvement in controversial business practices based on internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact;
- (c) management of sustainability risks: in addition to ESG ratings and scores, several key performance indicators are taken into account, e.g. to measure how employee matters are handled; and
- (d) compliance of companies with the objectives of the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

Use of Derivatives

The Fund will, if possible, give preference to transactions with derivatives that serve to fulfil the environmental or social characteristics of the Fund.

Further Information

Product related information as well as information on the integration of sustainability risks into the Fund's investment processes, including aspects of the organisation, risk management and governance of such processes can be found on the Manager's website at <https://www.universal-investment.com/en/permanent/profile/ireland>. The extent to which sustainability risks can influence the performance of the financial product shall be disclosed in either qualitative or quantitative terms.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities, nor are they made in economic activities that contribute to an environmental objective, within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088. Therefore, the investments are not subject to a "do no significant harm" test.

Use of Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded equity future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has an equity index or an individual equity as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to equity markets.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or options contracts and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

It is not anticipated that the Fund will be significantly leveraged through the use of financial derivative instruments. The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

At any time the leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 250% of its net asset value. It is not anticipated that the Fund's investment in long positions will exceed 250% and in short positions 200% of its net asset value respectively.

Profile of a Typical Investor

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of the Disclosure Regulation are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Environmental, social and governance strategies may take risks or eliminate exposures found in other strategies or broad market benchmarks that may cause performance to diverge from the performance of these other strategies or market benchmarks. These effects may have an impact on the Fund's return, on the assets, financial and earnings position of the Fund and on the reputation of the Company. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types. Environmental, social and governance strategies will be subject to the risks associated with their underlying investments' asset classes. Further, the demand within certain markets or sectors, that an environmental, social or governance strategy targets, may not develop as forecasted or may develop more slowly than anticipated.

INTRODUCTION

Metzler China A Share Sustainability Fund is a sub-fund of the Company. The Company comes within the scope of the UCITS Regulations and is constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds and comprising distinct portfolios of investments. A description of the Company is contained in the Prospectus.

Classes of Shares

Three Classes of Shares in the Fund are offered through this Leaflet, as further described on page 17.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation.

Investment Policy

The investment objective will be obtained by gaining exposure to the Chinese equity markets. The Fund will gain this exposure by predominantly investing in A-Shares of Chinese companies, denominated in RMB, listed on the Shanghai or Shenzhen stock exchanges ("China A-Shares") via the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect or the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect (collectively "Stock Connect"). The Fund is actively managed.

Further details in relation to Stock Connect can be found below in the sections entitled "Stock Connect" and "Stock Connect Risk Factors".

The Fund also has the ability to invest in equities and equity related securities (including warrants, ADRs and GDRs) of issuers located in China and/or where the ultimate risk attaching to the securities reposes or is determined by reference to events in China, that are listed or traded on a Recognised Market.

The Investment Manager will utilise top-down macro analysis methodologies to evaluate the equity market against criteria such as, but not limited to, the Chinese economy, import and export rates, capital investment and expected individual industry growth rates, to weight sectors within the portfolio according to greatest potential for returns. The Investment Manager will then use fundamental bottom-up selection analysis to analyse industry dynamics, growth potential, company competitiveness, management team capability, corporate governance, and earnings forecast of companies to select individual stocks within the sector with good growth prospects to hold in the portfolio in pursuance of the investment objective.

It is the intention that at least 51% of the Fund's net assets will be invested in equities listed on a Recognised Market.

The Fund can invest up to a maximum of 10% of its net assets in EU¹ regulated and domiciled Investment Funds, which may be open-ended, including for the avoidance of doubt, exchange traded funds. Any such investment shall be in accordance with the requirements of the UCITS Regulations. The Investment Funds in which the Fund will invest will seek to gain exposure to Chinese equity markets.

Furthermore, the Fund may invest in Chinese fixed and floating rate, government and corporate, bonds and debentures each having an Investment Grade or Equivalent Rating that are listed or traded on Recognised Markets. It is not intended that investment in Chinese government and corporate bonds and debentures will form a significant part of the Investment Manager's investment portfolio. The Fund may also, for short term cash management purposes, invest in money market instruments (for example, promissory notes, commercial paper) issued by Chinese issuers.

In addition, the Fund may use financial derivative instruments as set out in more detail below in the section entitled 'Use of Financial Derivative Instruments'.

Stock Connect

Stock Connect is a cross-boundary investment channel that connects the Shanghai and Shenzhen Stock Exchange with the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The aim of Stock Connect is for foreign investors to achieve stock market access to the Peoples Republic of China ("PRC") via Hong Kong.

The Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect comprises a Northbound Shanghai Trading Link and a Southbound Hong Kong Trading Link. Under the Northbound Shanghai Trading Link, Hong Kong and overseas investors (including the Fund), through their Hong Kong brokers, sub-custodians and a securities trading service company established by the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong ("SEHK"), may be able to trade eligible China A-Shares listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange ("SSE Securities") by routing orders to the Shanghai Stock Exchange. Under the Southbound Hong Kong Trading Link under Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect, investors in the PRC will be able to trade certain stocks listed on the SEHK.

The Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect comprises a Northbound Shenzhen Trading Link and a Southbound Hong Kong Trading Link. Under the Northbound Shenzhen Trading Link, Hong Kong and overseas investors (including the Fund), through their Hong Kong brokers, sub-custodians and a securities trading service company established by SEHK, may be able to trade eligible China A-Shares listed on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange ("SZSE Securities") by routing orders to the Shenzhen Stock Exchange. Under the Southbound Hong Kong Trading Link under Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect, investors in PRC will be able to trade certain stocks listed on the SEHK.

Safekeeping by the Depositary under UCITS Requirements

In accordance with the UCITS requirements and the conditions imposed by the Central Bank, the Depositary shall provide for the safekeeping of the Fund's assets in the PRC through its global custody network. Such safekeeping requires the Depositary to retain control over the SSE Securities and SZSE Securities at all times.

¹ In accordance with the "Notice of Intention: Investment by UCITS and Retail Investor AIFs in UK Investment Funds; Counterparties to OTC derivative instruments entered into by UCITS and Retail AIFs" issued by the Central Bank on 7 March 2019 and subject to any further guidance issued by the Central Bank, the Central Bank does not propose adopting a default position which would treat UK AIFs as an ineligible category of investment fund in which UCITS may invest.

Environmental and Social Characteristics promoted by the Fund

The Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics and invests in companies that apply good corporate governance. In order to achieve this, the Fund pursues the following approaches in the investment process via exclusions, Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) integration and engagement.

No Sustainable Investment Objective

The Fund does not have as its objective sustainable investment within the meaning of Article 9 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (the “Disclosure Regulation”).

Investment Strategy

The following procedures are implemented in the investment process on a continuous basis:

(a) Exclusions

The criterion of sustainability is defined by exclusion criteria in addition to ESG key performance indicators. The issuers of a security are considered to be unsustainable if they violate one of over 100 internationally recognised norms, including the UN Global Compact (the “UN Global Compact”) or the UN Guiding Principles on Business & Human Rights. These ten principles of the UN Global Compact promote sustainable and responsible corporate development in order to make globalisation more social and ecological. They fall into the categories of human rights, labour standards, environmental and corruption prevention. Securities of issuers that are engaged in the following controversial business areas, beyond a defined threshold, are also considered unsustainable: (a) coal energy: companies which generate more than 30 percent of their turnover from the generation of electricity from thermal coal are considered to have committed an infringement; (b) coal mining: the infringement concerns companies which derive more than 30 percent of their turnover from the extraction of thermal coal; (c) fossil fuels: companies are considered to be infringing if they generate more than 5 percent of their turnover from the extraction of oil and gas by non-conventional methods (fracking, oil sands); (d) armour: companies which derive more than 10 percent of their turnover from the production of and trade in defence equipment are considered to have committed an infringement. Also excluded are companies which produce and/or distribute controversial weapons, such as landmines and ABC weapons; (e) tobacco: producers and trading companies which achieve more than 5 percent of their turnover with end products such as cigarettes or cigars are considered to have committed an infringement.

(b) ESG Integration

The aim of ESG integration is to improve the risk/return profile of the Fund by integrating sustainability aspects into the traditional investment analysis process. The assessment of an issuer's sustainability is carried out by the Investment Manager using published information from the issuers.

The Investment Manager utilises top-down quantitative screening and bottom-up fundamental research on sectors and stocks by applying ESG factors. The in-house fundamental ESG framework is developed by the Investment Manager specifically for various sectors. In terms of the materiality of ESG key issues and sustainability aspects, the Investment Manager combines external ESG research and local sector research to determine the weight of ESG factors included in its framework.

External data providers collect information from companies or issuers on how they deal with sustainability issues and generally also assess these and make this information available to the Investment Manager. When considering a possible violation of the ten principles of the UN Global Compact, the Investment Manager generally refers to the information in the sustainability assessments of external data providers.

(c) Engagement

Engagement will involve discussions regarding business-relevant ESG challenges related to the underlying companies. An automated ESG reporting allows for an ex-post analysis of key sustainability factors. The reporting measures relevant ESG characteristics of the Fund. It includes information on the active dialogue with companies (engagement).

Compliance with the environmental and social characteristics is monitored on a regular basis.

Integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Process

As part of its investment process, the Fund includes all relevant financial risks in its investment decision and evaluates these on an ongoing basis. In doing so, all relevant sustainability risks, including environmental, social or governance events or conditions that could have a principal adverse impact on the investment, including those that could have a significant negative impact on the return of an investment, are also taken into account, as well as the most important negative effects of an investment decision on sustainability factors. Sustainability factors include environmental, social and employee concerns, respect for human rights and the fight against corruption and bribery. Investment decisions may cause, contribute to or be directly related to a negative impact or likely to lead to a significant impact on sustainability factors. The Investment Manager engages with underlying companies via dialogue. The Investment Manager has mandated Bank of Montreal Global Asset Management ("BMO") to engage with companies.

Sustainability Indicators

The sustainability indicators used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund include:

(a) key figures on climate change and other environmental issues including carbon emissions, water stress, pollution; and

(b) impacts on social and employee matters, including employee rights and welfare, privacy and data safety, product quality and safety.

Use of Derivatives

The Fund will, if possible, give preference to transactions with derivatives that serve to fulfil the environmental or social characteristics of the Fund.

Further Information

Product related information as well as information on the integration of sustainability risks into the Fund's investment processes, including aspects of the organisation, risk management and governance of such processes can be found on the Manager's website at <https://www.universal-investment.com/en/permanent/profile/ireland>. The extent to which sustainability risks can influence the performance of the financial product shall be disclosed in either qualitative or quantitative terms.

The investments underlying the Fund do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities, nor are they made in economic activities that contribute to an environmental objective, within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment, and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088. Therefore, the investments are not subject to a "do no significant harm" test.

Use of Financial Derivative Instruments

The financial derivative instruments employed by the Fund may be:

Exchange traded equity future and/or option contracts (i.e., a contract which has an equity index or an individual equity as its underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to equity markets.

Exchange traded currency futures and/or options contracts and/or over the counter currency forward contracts (i.e., contracts which have a currency as their underlying) may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to currencies. In particular, the Investment Manager may hedge the currency exposure of the underlying assets of the Fund to the base currency of the Fund.

The underlying assets to which the Fund will have exposure as a result of entering into such derivative arrangements will be consistent with the investment policy of the Fund.

Borrowing

The Fund will only borrow for temporary purposes in a situation where the Fund's cash account goes into overdraft or otherwise at the discretion of the Manager (e.g., resulting from margin requirements or time differences in settlement).

Leverage

It is not anticipated that the Fund will be significantly leveraged through the use of financial derivative instruments. The leverage of the Fund shall be calculated as the sum of the notionals of the financial derivative instruments. This method of measuring leverage involves simply adding all the notionals and allowing no offsets of long against short positions and no adjustments based on the duration of instruments. Accordingly, this method of measuring leverage is not a firm indicator of the volatility of the Fund.

At any time the leverage of the Fund is not anticipated to exceed 250% of its net asset value. It is not anticipated that the Fund's investment in long positions will exceed 150% and in short positions 100% of its net asset value respectively.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital appreciation with a minimum investment horizon of 5-10 years and who are prepared to accept a medium to high level of volatility.

Change in Investment Objective or Policy

Any material change in investment policy or any change in investment objective will be subject to the prior approval of Shareholders evidenced either by a majority vote at a meeting of Shareholders of the Fund or by the written consent of all of the Shareholders. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of the Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Manager to the Shareholders to enable the Shareholders to redeem their Shares prior to the implementation of the change.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the Risk Factors outlined below, investors should be aware of the Risk Factors detailed in section 15 of the Prospectus.

China A-Shares Market

Investing in the securities markets in the PRC is subject to the risks of investing in emerging markets generally and the risks specific to the PRC market. For more than 50 years, the central government of the PRC has adopted a planned economic system. Since 1978, the PRC government has implemented economic reform measures which emphasise decentralisation and the utilisation of market forces in the development of the PRC economy. Such reforms have resulted in significant economic growth and social progress. Many of the PRC economic reforms are unprecedented or experimental and are subject to adjustment and modification, and such adjustment and modification may not always have a positive effect on foreign investment in joint stock companies in the PRC or in listed securities such as China A-Shares.

The choice of China A-Shares issues which may be available to the Fund may be limited as compared with the choice available in other markets. There may also be a lower level of liquidity in the PRC China A-Share market, which is relatively smaller in terms of both combined total market value and the number of China A-Shares which are available for investment as compare with other markets. This could potentially lead to severe price volatility. The national regulatory and legal framework for capital markets and joint stock companies in the PRC are still developing when compared with those of developed countries. Currently, joint stock companies with listed China A-Shares are undergoing split-share structure reform to convert state owned shares or legal person shares into transferable shares with the intention to increase liquidity of China A-Shares. However, the effects of such reform on the China A-Share market as a whole remain to be seen. PRC companies are required to follow PRC accounting standards and practice which, to a certain extent, follow international accounting standards. However, there may be significant differences between financial statements prepared by accountants following PRC accounting standards and practice and those prepared in accordance with international accounting standards. Both the Shanghai and Shenzhen securities markets are in the process of development and change. This may lead to trading volatility, difficulty in the settlement and recording of transactions and difficulty in interpreting and applying the relevant regulations. Investments in the PRC will be sensitive to any significant change in political, social or economic policy in the PRC. Such sensitivity may, for the reasons specified above, adversely affect the capital growth and thus the performance of these investments. The PRC government's control of currency conversion and future movements in exchange rates may adversely affect the operations and financial results of the companies invested in by the Fund. In light of the above mentioned factors, the price of China A-Shares may fall significantly in certain circumstances.

Stock Connect Risk Factors

There are number of restrictions that apply to Stock Connect trading that could affect the Fund's investment and returns:

Suspension Risk - both the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong (SEHK) and Shanghai Stock Exchange (SSE) reserve the right to suspend trading if necessary for ensuring an orderly and fair market and managing risks prudently which could adversely affect the Funds ability to access the PRC market.

Differences in Trading Day - investors should be aware that the Stock Connect will only operate on days when both PRC and Hong Kong markets are open for trading and when banks in both markets are open on the corresponding settlement days. The Fund may, therefore, be subject to a risk of price fluctuations in China A-Shares in respect of the period during which Stock Connect is not trading.

Clearing and Settlement Risk - the Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited (HKSCC) and China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited (ChinaClear) have established clearing links and each is a participant of each other to facilitate clearing and settlement of cross-boundary trades. ChinaClear has established a risk management framework and measures that are approved and supervised by the China Securities Regulatory Commission. The chances of ChinaClear default are considered to be remote. Should the remote event of ChinaClear default occur and ChinaClear be declared as a defaulter, HKSCC will in good faith, seek recovery of the outstanding stocks and monies from ChinaClear through available legal channels or through ChinaClear's liquidation. In that event, the Fund may suffer delay in the recovery process or may not be able to fully recover its losses from ChinaClear.

Regulatory Risk - the current regulations relating to Stock Connect are untested and there is no certainty as to how they will be applied. Moreover, the current regulations are subject to change. There can be no assurance that the Stock Connect will not be abolished. The Fund may be adversely affected as a result of these changes.

Legal/Beneficial Ownership - where shares are purchased through Stock Connect, the Fund would only have a contractual claim against HKSCC for the rights and interests in such shares. The Fund does not have any proprietary rights. Technically, as the PRC legal system does not recognise the concept of beneficial ownership, the PRC authorities recognise HKSCC as the legal owner of such shares and not the Fund. Because Stock Connect is in its early stages, additional developments are likely. It is unclear whether or how such developments may affect a Fund's investments or returns. Additionally, the application and interpretation of the laws and regulations of Hong Kong and the PRC are uncertain, as are the rules, policies and guidelines published or applied by relevant regulators and exchanges in respect of the Stock Connect program. These may have a negative impact on the Fund's investments and returns.

Operational Risk - the Stock Connect provides a new channel for investors from Hong Kong and overseas to access the PRC's stock market directly. Market participants are able to participate in this programme subject to meeting certain information technology capacity, risk management and other requirements as may be specified by the relevant exchange and/or clearing house. Market participants may need to address issues arising from these differences (as well as the fact that the securities regime and legal systems of the PRC and Hong Kong differ significantly) on an ongoing basis.

Front-end Monitoring Risk - PRC regulations require that before an investor sells any share, there should be sufficient shares in the account; otherwise SSE will reject the sell order concerned. SEHK will carry out pre-trade checking on China A-Shares sell orders of its participants (i.e., the stock brokers) to ensure there is no over-selling.

Derivatives – General

The primary risks associated with the use of financial derivative instruments for investment purposes are (i) failure to predict accurately the direction of the market movements; (ii) market risks, for example, lack of liquidity or lack of correlation between the change in the value of the underlying asset and that of the value of the Fund's derivatives; and (iii) to the extent that a Fund may invest in over-the-counter derivatives transactions, credit risk with regard to parties with whom it trades and the risk of settlement default and the risk that the legal documentation of the contract may not accurately reflect the intention of the parties. In addition, a Fund may have to transact with counterparties on standard terms which it may not be able to negotiate.

Other derivative risks which may affect the Fund include the following:

Highly Volatile Markets

The prices of derivative instruments, including futures prices, are highly volatile. Price movements of forward contracts, futures contracts and other derivative contracts in which the Fund's assets may invest are influenced by, among other things, interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments, and national and international political and economic events and policies. In addition, governments from time to time intervene, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly those in currencies and interest rate related futures. Such intervention often is intended directly to influence prices and may, together with other factors, cause all of such markets to move rapidly in the same direction because of, among other things, interest rate fluctuations.

In relation to particular derivative instruments, the following risk factors should also be noted:

Counterparty Risk

Many of the markets in which the Investment Manager may effect its transactions are "over-the-counter" or "inter-dealer" markets. The participants in such markets are typically not subject to credit evaluation and regulatory oversight as are members of "exchange-based" markets. This exposes the Fund to the risk that a counterparty will not settle a transaction due to a credit or liquidity problem, thus causing the Fund to suffer a loss. In addition, in the case of a default, the Fund could become subject to adverse market movements while replacement transactions are executed. Such "counterparty risk" is accentuated for contracts with longer maturities where events may intervene to prevent settlement, or where the Investment Manager has concentrated their transactions with a single counterparty or small group of counterparties. Other than as disclosed herein and in compliance with the UCITS Regulations, the Investment Manager is not restricted from dealing with any particular counterparty or from concentrating any or all of its transactions with one counterparty. Moreover, the Investment Manager has a limited internal credit function which evaluates the creditworthiness of its counterparties. The ability of the Investment Manager to transact business with any one or more counterparties and the absence of a regulated market to facilitate settlement may increase the potential for losses by the Fund.

Where the Fund delivers collateral to its trading counterparties under the terms of its ISDA master agreements and other trading master agreements, either by posting initial margin or on a daily mark-to-market basis, circumstances may arise where a counterparty may be over-collateralized and/or the Fund may from time to time have uncollateralized mark-to-market exposure to a counterparty in relation to its rights to receive securities and cash. In both circumstances, although counterparty risk with respect to the Fund will be monitored and measured in accordance with the UCITS Regulations, the Fund will be exposed to the creditworthiness of any such counterparty and, in the event of the insolvency of a trading counterparty, the Fund will rank as an unsecured creditor in relation to amounts equivalent to any such over-collateralization and any uncollateralized exposure to such trading counterparty. In such circumstances it is likely that the Fund will not be able to recover any debt in full, or at all.

The Fund may trigger events of default or termination events under various counterparty agreements due to, among other things, reductions in Net Asset Value. If the Fund is unable to obtain waivers from the relevant counterparties, such counterparties could exercise numerous remedies under the affected agreements, including of posted collateral and termination of outstanding trades.

Options

The Fund may buy or sell (write) both call options and put options. The Fund's option transactions may be part of a hedging strategy or a form of leverage, in which the Fund has the right to benefit from price movements in a large number of securities with a small commitment of capital. These activities involve risks that can be substantial, depending on the circumstances. In options trading, the buyer of a call option assumes the risk of losing the premium invested in the option, and the buyer of a put option assumes the risk of losing the premium paid to purchase the put option. When the Fund buys an option, a decrease (or inadequate increase) in the price of the underlying security in the case of a call, or an increase (or inadequate decrease) in the price of the underlying security in the case of a put, could result in a total loss of the Fund's investment in the option (including commissions). The Fund could mitigate those losses by selling short, or buying puts on, the securities as to which it holds call options, or by taking a long position in securities underlying put options. If the option is on a future, the purchaser will acquire a futures position with associated liabilities for margin.

Selling ("writing" or "granting") an option generally entails considerably greater risk than purchasing options. Although the premium received by the seller is fixed, the seller may sustain a loss well in excess of that amount. The seller will be liable for additional margin to maintain the position if the market moves unfavourably. The seller will also be exposed to the risk of the purchaser exercising the option, and, upon such exercise, the seller will be obligated to either settle the option in cash or to acquire or deliver the underlying interest, depending on the terms of the option. If the option is on a future, upon exercise by the purchaser of the option, the seller will acquire a position in a future with associated liabilities for margin. In the case of an option on a future, certain exchanges in some jurisdictions permit deferred payment of the option premium, exposing the purchaser to liability for margin payments not exceeding the amount of the premium. The purchaser is still subject to the risk of losing the premium and transaction costs. When the option is exercised or expires, the purchaser is responsible for any unpaid premium outstanding at that time.

The options markets have the authority to prohibit the exercise of particular options, which if imposed when trading in the option has also been halted, would lock buyers and writers of that option into their positions until one of the two restrictions has been lifted.

Currency Forwards

Currency forwards have the risk of the currency exposure in the same way as a regular currency spot transaction. Currency forwards are OTC traded and therefore have counterparty risk. Forward contracts also carry roll risk, which is the risk that when a forward contract expires, a new forward to replace the expired one cannot be put into place at the same cost or on the same hedge basis. This may occur due to changes in market liquidity or interest rates, resulting in a potential slippage or loss in the hedge position due to the contract expiration and roll.

Futures Trading

The Fund may utilise futures contracts and options thereon. Futures prices are highly volatile, with price movements being influenced by a multitude of factors such as supply and demand relationships, government trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control policies, political and economic events and emotions in the marketplace. Futures markets are subject to comprehensive statutes, regulations and margin requirements. Further, futures trading may be illiquid as a result of daily limits on movements of prices, while the Fund's futures trading could be adversely affected by speculative position limits.

The Fund may open a futures position by placing with a futures commission merchant an initial margin that is small relative to the value of the futures contract, making the transaction "leveraged". If the market moves against the Fund's position or margin levels are increased, the Fund may be called upon to pay substantial additional funds on short notice to maintain its position. If the Fund were to fail to make such payments, its position could be liquidated at a loss, and the Fund would be liable for any resulting deficit in its account.

Sustainability Risks

Sustainability risks within the meaning of the Disclosure Regulation are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential principal adverse impact on the value of the Fund's investment. Environmental, social and governance strategies may take risks or eliminate exposures found in other strategies or broad market benchmarks that may cause performance to diverge from the performance of these other strategies or market benchmarks. These effects may have an impact on the Fund's return, on the assets, financial and earnings position of the Fund and on the reputation of the Company. Sustainability risks can affect all known types of risk (for example, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and operational risk), and as a factor, contribute to the materiality of these risk types. Environmental, social and governance strategies will be subject to the risks associated with their underlying investments' asset classes. Further, the demand within certain markets or sectors that an environmental, social or governance strategy targets may not develop as forecasted or may develop more slowly than anticipated.
