What is this product?

The Fund is a sub-fund of JCF which is constituted in the form of a mutual fund. JCF is domiciled in Ireland and established as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between sub-funds. JCF’s home regulator is the Central Bank of Ireland (the “Central Bank”).

Objective and Investment Strategy

The Fund's investment objective is to seek long-term growth of capital by investing primarily in equity securities of US companies selected for their growth potential.

The Fund pursues its objective by investing primarily in equity securities of US companies selected for their growth potential. Eligible equity securities include US and non-US common stocks, preferred stocks, securities convertible into common stocks or preferred stocks, such as convertible preferred stocks, and other securities with equity characteristics. The Fund may invest in companies of any size. Subject to the above, no more than 10% of the net asset value of the Fund may be invested in securities traded on any one emerging market and the aggregate amount of the Fund which may be invested in securities traded on the emerging markets is 20% of the net asset value of the Fund.

The Fund will not invest substantially in financial derivative instruments ("FDI") for investment purposes. The Fund may employ investment techniques and instruments, such as trading in futures, options and swaps and other FDIs both for efficient portfolio management and, subject to a limit of 10% of its NAV, for investment purposes, principally to achieve a reduction of risk, reduction of costs, generation of additional capital or income for the Fund, access to markets not otherwise available or immediately available, to synthetically short or to endeavour to limit losses in emergency market conditions. Foreign exchange hedging is deployed at class level and may be deployed at security level.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the Hong Kong Offering Document for details including the risk factors.

1. Risk of Investing in Securities

There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objective. The value of shares of the Fund and the income from them may rise or fall, as the capital value of the securities in which the Fund invests may fluctuate. The investment income of a Fund is based on the income earned on the securities it holds, less expenses incurred. Therefore, the Fund's investment income may be expected to fluctuate in response to changes in such expenses or income.

2. Concentration of Investments

The Fund seeks to maintain a diversified portfolio of investments. However, as the Fund invests primarily in US securities, it may be less diversified in its investments than other funds. Increased concentration of investments by the Fund will increase the risk of the Fund suffering proportionately higher loss should a particular investment decline in value or otherwise be adversely affected.

3. Small Capitalisation Securities

- The Fund may invest in companies of any size.
- Smaller or newer companies may suffer more significant losses as well as realise more substantial growth than larger or more established issuers due to the fact that these companies may lack depth of management, be unable to generate funds necessary for growth or potential development, or be developing or marketing new products or services for which markets are not yet established and may never be established.
- Such companies may also have more limited trading markets and may be subject to wide price fluctuations. Investments in such companies tend to be more volatile and somewhat more speculative, and may therefore be more likely to suffer loss which may affect the performance of the Fund.

4. Risk of Investing in FDI

- The Fund may invest in FDI for investment purposes. Given the leverage effect of FDI, such investments may result in total or substantial loss.
- The price of FDI may move in unexpected ways, especially in abnormal market conditions.
- FDI involve other risks of loss, such as credit, currency, leverage, counterparty, liquidity, index, settlement default and interest risks.
- Increased margin calls and unlimited risk of loss are also risks which may arise through the use of FDI as is the potential inability to terminate or sell FDI positions.

5. Emerging Markets Risk

The Fund may invest its assets in emerging markets. Investing in emerging markets involves greater risks of loss than investing in more developed markets due to, among other factors, currency and exchange control risks, political and economic risks, legal and regulatory risk and custodial risk. In addition, markets in emerging countries are generally less liquid and more volatile than developed markets.

Is there any guarantee?

The Fund does not have any guarantees. You may not get back the full amount of money you invest.
