Monthly comment

In May, Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV – Listed Private Equity increased in value and since the beginning of the year outperformed broader equity markets.

The largest value gain was achieved by the British private equity company 3i Group. The company reached a 17% NAV gain and until the end of March 2016 increased assets under management by 3.9%.

Hg Capital Trust, another British Private Equity company, achieved a NAV increase of 13% over the last financial year. Its portfolio companies further increased revenue and EBITDA growth rates, with a large number of candidates for a potential exit until the end of the year. Also, the shares of British private equity investor SVG Capital showed a significant upward trend after publishing a NAV increase of 13% year over year. Particularly co-investments in the software companies TeamViewer and Vismo, whose valuation was written up significantly, have made a considerable contribution to the favorable development.

Finally, the US business development company Ares Capital agreed to acquire its competitor American Capital. Combined, the two, which focus on providing debt to small and mid-cap companies, managed investments of more than USD 13 billion at 31 March valuations.
