INVESTMENT STRATEGY

ODDO BHF Generation is a European equity fund of all market caps that seeks to invest mainly in companies with stable and sustainable shareholdings (often family-owned companies). It aims to be permanently invested in equities, targeting long-term capital growth. The fund follows a pure stock-picking strategy based on fundamental analysis and individual stock valuation to find attractively priced stocks with regard to their long-term prospects

Sustainalytics provides company-level analysis used in the calculation of Morningstar's Sustainability Score.

(1) The summary risk indicator (SRI) is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the market or because we are not able to pay you. It ranges from 1 (low risk) to 7 (high risk). This indicator is not constant and will change according to the fund's risk profile. The lowest category does not mean risk-free. Historical data, such as that used to calculate the SRI, may not be a reliable indication of the fund's future risk profile. There is no guarantee that the investment objectives in terms of risk will be achieved.

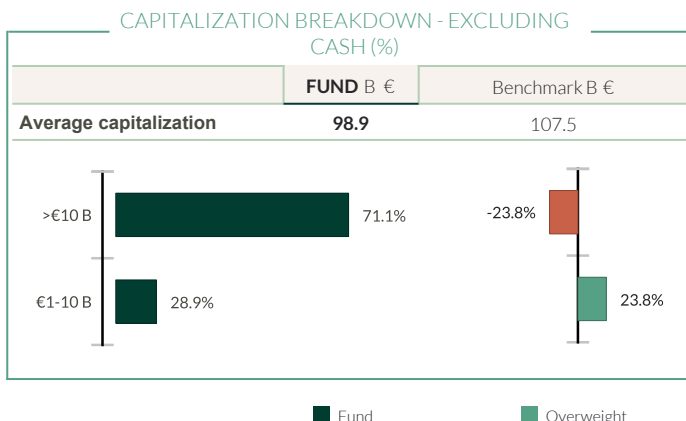

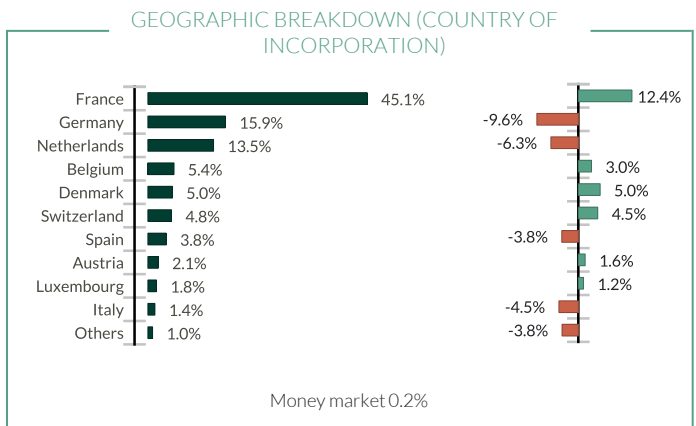

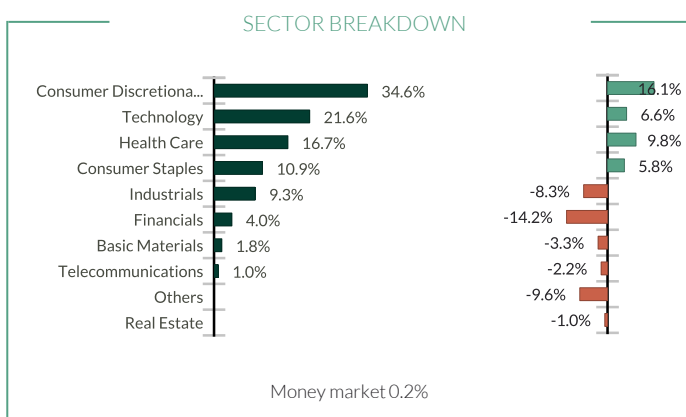

(2) Information on the EU Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (SFDR) can be found in the SFDR classification(2) section of the document.

* : rebased on the rated part of the fund | In accordance with the update to our ESG integration policy published, the internal ESG rating scale now ranks the investment universe from 1 (High Risk) to 5 (Strong Opportunity) in ascending order.

The ESG approach consists in selecting companies with the best environmental, social and governance policies by favouring the best-rated issuers within an investment universe in terms of non-financial criteria (Best in Universe) and/or issuers showing an improvement in their ESG practices over time (Best Effort).

Past performance is not an indication of future results. Performance may vary over time.

SUSTAINABLE REPORT – METHODOLOGY

ODDO BHF AM considers that measuring the environmental, social and governance impact of an investment is an essential step in disseminating good practices in ESG integration. To do this, it is imperative to have reliable, simple quantitative criteria (no reprocessing) and to allow comparison between portfolios regardless of their composition (large vs midcaps, geographical and sectoral diversity). The choice of indicators is therefore crucial for the relevance of impact measurement.

We systematically indicate the availability of the data at the level of the portfolio and its benchmark.

Carbon metrics methodology: We updated our methodology of carbon intensity calculation.

Starting January 31st, 2023, when reported carbon values are unavailable or inconsistent, estimated carbon values are used.

The estimations are based on average carbon value (scope 1+2 emissions) of sectoral peers as a function of revenues

MONTHLY MANAGEMENT COMMENT

In March, equity indices continued the upward trend that began last November. This dominant scenario revolves around several factors:

- The US economy remains lively, economic indicators in Europe are stabilising (albeit at low levels) and the Chinese economy is beginning to recover.
- Inflation is no longer a concern for central banks. In the United States, inflation was close to 3% on a 12-month rolling basis, 3.2% at the end of March and 3.1% at the end of January. If the persistent strength of the economy and the resulting pressure on wages keep underlying inflation (i.e. excluding commodities and energy) at 3.80% year-on-year at the end of February and 3.95% on average over the last six months, well above the Fed's 2% target, the downward trend is set to continue. In the Euro Zone, inflation was 2.6% at the end of February, compared with 2.8% at the end of January, the fifth consecutive month below the 3% mark.
- Yields on 10-year government bonds are stable, below 4.50% in the United States and 2.50% in Germany.

The MSCI EMU NR index gained 4.45% over the month. As in previous months, it was the cyclical sectors that led the rise – in particular banking and chemicals – with gains of over 6%. Real estate, up 7%, also benefited from rent indexation and better visibility on refinancing terms. Conversely, the defensive sectors of food, health care, consumer goods, telecoms and utilities are lagging behind. Technology, which experienced some weaknesses during the month due to Apple, ended the month stable.

Oddo BHF Génération outperformed its benchmark over the month. The month's best performers were Jungheinrich (Germany, logistics), Santander (Spain, banking), D'Ieteren (Belgium, holding company), SPIE (France, services), Stellantis (France, automotive), Trigano (France, campervans), SEB (France, consumer goods), Novo Nordisk (Denmark, health care), Aalberts (Netherlands, industrials), UCB (Belgium, health care), Kronos (Germany, capital goods) and Essilor Luxottica (France, eyewear). At the other end of the spectrum, the fund was weighed down by the poor performance of Besi (Netherlands, semiconductors), Technoprobe (Italy, semiconductors), UbiSoft (France, video games), Sopra (France, IT services), Dassault Systèmes (France, software), Rémy Cointreau (France, spirits), Richemont (Switzerland, luxury goods), LVMH (France, luxury goods), L'Oréal (France, cosmetics), ALTEN (France, outsourced R&D), ASM International (Netherlands, semiconductors), Roche (Switzerland, health care) and Carlsberg (Denmark, beer).

In terms of portfolio changes, we scaled back our holdings in ASM International (Netherlands, semiconductors), Grifols (Spain, health care), Roche (Switzerland, health care), Essilor Luxottica (France, eyewear) and SAP (Germany, software), while increasing our investments in VAT Group (Switzerland, semiconductors), Heineken (Netherlands, beer), Besi (Netherlands, semiconductors) and Dassault Systèmes (France, software).

We are keeping the portfolio's overall ESG rating above that of the reference universe.

RISKS:

The fund is exposed to the following risks : risk of capital loss, equity risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, risk associated with discretionary management, currency risk, risk associated with commitments on forward financial instruments, counterparty risk, risk associated with holding small and medium capitalisations, risks associated with securities financing transactions and collateral management, Sustainability risk and on an ancillary basis emerging markets risk

SFDR CLASSIFICATION²

The EU Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (SFDR) is a set of EU rules which aim to make the sustainability profile of funds transparent, more comparable and better understood by end investors. Article 6: The management team does not consider sustainability risks or adverse effects of investment decisions on sustainability factors in the investment decision making process. Article 8: The management team addresses sustainability risks by integrating ESG criteria (Environment and/or Social and/or Governance) into its investment decision making process. Article 9: The management team follows a strict sustainable investment objective that significantly contributes to the challenges of the ecological transition, and addresses Sustainability Risks through ratings provided by the Management Company's external ESG data provider.
